

30 SENATORS TERMS EXPIRE

Many Members of Millionaires' Club Serving Last Year of Present Terms—Fall Elections and Conventions Will Decide Fates.

WASHINGTON, March 19.— Thirty members of the senate are in the last year of their present terms.
The conventions or elections of the summer and fall will decide, in almost all the cases, whether the toga wearers shall return to their law practice or disport for six years more in the marble temple of legislation on the hill.
In regard to several of the senators, the question has already been settled. The return of Senator Isidor Rayner has been assured by the action of the Maryland legislature.
Senator Hernando de Sota Money, the Democratic leader, will retire to his plantation in Mississippi. They take a senatorial situation by the forelock down in Mississippi and in line with the honorable custom John Sharp Williams, statesman, gentleman, scholar, lawyer and planter, was chosen several years ago to succeed Money. Williams was then leader of the Democrats and one of the most popular members of the house. Senator Flint (Cal.) has said he would not be a candidate for re-election. In a statement issued a short time ago he explained that the great expense of carrying on a campaign under the new California primary law was beyond his means and that, besides, he felt it to be his duty to earn more money than comes in the senate pay envelope to provide for the future of his family.
At the head of the list, alphabetically and otherwise, of those who will toe the mark and take the oath next March 4 will be one Senator Aldrich from Rhode Island. A vagrant rumor went the rounds last summer that Aldrich had decided to retire. When it was brought to his attention he remarked that he hadn't passed out authority to anybody to make such a statement. So he'll come back.

They have been trying to build a fire under Senator Hale in the thirty-state of Maine, but the senator's friends declare that he'll return again just as he has for thirty years. He stands beside Aldrich at the head of the regular organization in rank, but not in influence. Other members of the old guard likely to return are Lodge (Mass.) and Kean (N. J.), while Burrows (Mich.) and Scott (W. Va.) say they will be here, too, though they are fighting for the honor in the face of right lively opposition.

Four of the band of progressives in the senate are under fire of the "interests," and, according to widely circulated reports of the regular Republicans, but they are fighting on cheerfully with the expectation of putting in six years more at the old stand. La Follette is, of course, an object of especial solicitude and extraordinary efforts are being made to overturn Wisconsin, where he has no friends but the people. Beveridge, now the undisputed Republican leader in Indiana and a strong force in the senate, is up for re-election.
Burrhead has W. J. Bryan, among other issues, on his hands in Nebraska, and Clapp seeks recognition in Minnesota, where they are up to date and don't have moss on their political doctrines.

In the group of those who must be born again as senators if they are going to help govern the country and advance the light of civilization generally are: Bulkeley, Connecticut; Carter, Montana; Clark, Wyoming; Culbertson, Texas; Daniel, Virginia; Depew, New York; Dick, Ohio; Dupont, Delaware; Frazier, Tennessee; McCumber, North Dakota; Nixon, Nevada; Oliver, Pennsylvania; Page, Vermont; Piles, Washington; Sutherland, Utah; Taliaferro, Florida, and Warner, Missouri.

Of the expiring 30, there are 24
Republicans and 6 Democrats.
