SOCIETY

A most enjoyable Easter social was given at the home of Rev. W. Theo. and Mrs. Matlock for the C. E. of the Christian church. The special feature of the evening was the egg-rolling contest. The names of the young ladies were placed in empty egg shells and placed in a nest at the end of a long board. The gentlemen each rolled an egg into the nest in quest of his partner for the evening. Another feature of special interest was the initiation of a number into the mystic circle, which caused enough laughter to drive away the blues for aye. Mrs. Matlock was ably assisted in entertaining and serving by Miss Bertha Pierce, also Miss White and Miss Schmaulhausen.

On account of the numerous attractions next week, the Juvenile Dancing club's party has been postponed to April 6. Mr. L. Woodford of Eagle Point is a week-end visitor in Medford and will stay over for the Swastika dance. Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Zimmer and family have left the Moore hotel and are living on Ross avenue, near West Main street.

VICTIMS CHICAGO FIRE TOTAL 12

Another Departmental Scandal May Develop as the Outcome of Friday's Fire—No Fire Escapes on the Building. CHICAGO, Ill., March 26.—A thorough search of the ruins of the Fish & Co. building at Nineteenth street and Wabash avenue, today failed to reveal more bodies, and it is believed that the 12 victims whose bodies were recovered are all who perished in the big blaze yesterday. It is believed that they would have been burned to death had the building been equipped with fire escapes. Speaking in regard to this, Fire Chief Horan said that he had notified the building department some time ago that the Fish building was unsafe and should have fire-escapes. Horan declared that no action was taken in the matter by the building department. Officials of the building department assert that no notification regarding the conditions of the Fish building was received from Horan.
