MUCH INTEREST TAKEN IN LANGFORD-KETCHEL GO

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—Although the report from Wheeling, W. Va., to the effect that Sid Hester had matched Langford and Ketchel to fight at Point Richmond, has turned out to be a fake, the interest it aroused has acted as an incentive to Hester to really go after the middleweights. If he lands them he will put them on across the bay on May 28, but in the meantime he will have to reckon with $25,000 or $30,000 offer that Jim Griffin is going to make a battle on July 2.

FISH ARE WASHED UPON DECKS OF STEAMER

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—The crew of the Oriental steamship company's steamer Nippon Maru, enjoyed a breakfast of fresh fish which were left stranded on the deck of the ship as she passed through the heads today.

During the entire journey from the Orient the ship fought against headwinds and bad weather.

The climax was reached this morning outside the Golden Gate when a series of gigantic waves washed over the hurricane deck.

When one of the waves receded a large school of fish was left on deck. The fish were picked up by the Japanese members of the crew and utilized as good fish should be.

"Defeated by trivialities," said a man of talent whose life had been a failure—and that mistake showed how he had made all the others.

Nothing is trivial that either defeats or conquers.

It is not trivial to use the right or wrong stationery any more than it is trivial to use the right or wrong words; to state your case clearly or to blunder.

The standard paper for business stationery
OLD HAMPSHIRE BOND
"Look for the water-mark"

is not generally used by men who make blunders; nor by men who forget that instant prejudice, or favorable impulse, is an important consideration.

That it pays always to use Old Hampshire Bond for commercial stationery is the testimony of prudent business men. I use this for myself—let us give you the OLD HAMPSHIRE BOND Book of specimens, or better still, write us for a copy. It contains suggestive specimens of letterheads and other business forms, printed, lithographed and engraved on the white and four-color Old Hampshire Bond.

Made by HAMPSHIRE PAPER COMPANY, the only paper makers in the world making bond paper exclusively.

A complete line of Old Hampshire Bonds, all colors, carried by us. We will be pleased to quote prices.
