

MORE PURE FOOD CASES IN ASHLAND

Five Additional Complaints Filed by Catterlin and All Are Assessed $25—O. Winter Pleads Not Guilty.

ASHLAND, Or., March 29.—Five complaints were filed in Justice Eggleston's court Friday by Deputy Food and Dairy Inspector W. E. Catterlin, operating in conjunction with the district attorney's office, charging the violation of the pure food law in exposing for sale in Ashland short weight and unmarked butter. In each instance it was California butter that fell under the ban of the law, as followed in the complaints, and exposed for sale in five different grocery stores in Ashland, viz.: Holmes Bros., Loomis & Nelson, Ashland Trading company, White House Grocery and O. Winter's Opera House grocery. The first named entered pleas of guilty and were each assessed fines of $25 and costs amounting to $3.40 each. In the case of O. Winter, he appeared with his attorney, E. D. Briggs, and entered a plea of not guilty to the complaint against him of selling butter without the weight marks provided by law stamped upon it. A jury trial will in all probability be demanded to dispose of this case, which has been set for April 6, at 1 p. m.

The deputy inspector came into town unannounced Friday morning from the north, where he has been prosecuting similar cases at Roseburg and other points, being determined to see that the public is protected from the operations of creameries and others who put short weight or misbranded or unbranded butter upon the market. The deputy is also said to have his weather eye out for infractions of the pure-food law in other lines.

BREAK UP THAT COLD IN A DAY

You can stop a cough or a cold as if by magic by just breathing soothing, healing Hyomei over the sore, raw and inflamed membrane.

This is from a man who knows: "Mrs. Magor and myself have used your inhaler faithfully whenever needed and it has always given instant relief and saved us from many severe colds.

The above is voluntarily given and if in your estimation its use as a testimonial would help to get others to use it, I will gladly have you do so, as we consider it a wonderful discovery and recommend it whenever opportunity presents itself." F. W. Magor, Contracting Freight Agent, C. H. & Ry. Co., Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 22, 1909.

Don't fool with stomach nostrums; try magical Hyomei at once; it relieves a stuffed up head in two minutes.

A complete Hyomei outfit, including inhaler and one bottle of Hyomei, costs only $1.00 at druggists everywhere and at Chas. Strang's. It is guaranteed to cure catarrh, croup, coughs, colds, sore throat and bronchitis or omney back. Extra bottles of Hyomei, if afterward needed, cost but 50 cents.

"RED MILL" HAS WON UNUSUAL SUCCESS

Clever Musical Comedy Which Will Be Seen Here Tomorrow Evening Is Said to Be the "Real Thing."

The "Red Mill" which will grind for the first time at the opera house on Wednesday, March 30, is the one comic opera triumph of the past season to receive the endorsement of the dramatic critics and the paying public as well; in fact, the privileged "dead heads" voted it the one supreme comic opera success of the year. "The Red Mill" might be termed a musical comedy in two acts. Mr. Blossom, always clever, wrote the dialogue and lyrics, and Victor Herbert wrote all the music. Both combined have made a play that will last as long, if not longer, than any comic opera. The story has to do with two roving Americans who are "going" Europe for the first time, but find when they strike the continent that their extravagance has led them to almost financial ruin. They are discovered in an attempt to escape from the hotel, leaving their baggage behind, are apprehended, arrested and tried, and are sentenced by the burgomaster to work out their sentence to the innkeeper. Then begins a series of complications and excruciating situations which are brought to a climax in the first act, where they are helping two lovers to escape and go to the extreme in rescuing an imprisoned maiden from the mill by means of the revolving blades of fans, which they use to ascend and descend with the girl.

One whole season on Broadway, New York, should be sufficient guarantee to assuage any challenge. Thousands of New Yorkers have gone time and again to see Con Kidder and Kid Connor, in their various characters and to listen to the emoldies of Victor Herbert's catchiest themes, while the different types of girls which form the chorus, and the cute little Dutch Kiddies, six in number, to say nothing of the exquisite costumes and stage settings, should prove enough of allurements to fill any theater. The production here will be a replica of the New York organization and will include an exceptionally clever cast, with Bert O. Swar as Con Kidder, Frank Woods as Kid Connor, Otto Koerner, Alvin Laughlin, Carl Hartberg, S. W. Stott, Harry L. McClain, Cecil Summers and the Misses Agnes Major, Vernice Martyn, Adeline Stern, Georgia Harvey and a chorus of fifty, including the six little Dutch Kiddies, also an augmented orchestra.

BONITA FOND OF FANCY HOSIERY

Clever Actress Soon to Be Seen Here Is Said to Have One Ruling Passion—'Tis Love of Fancy Hosiery.

Bonita, the famous beauty and star of the musical comedy success "Wine, Woman and Song," due at the opera house for one night on Friday, April 1st, has a very bad case of the stocking habit. Most of the musical comedy favorites are noted for the elegance and quantity of their hosiery, but Bonita is fairly at the top of the tree in this respect. Her collection is simply bewildering in its profusion and unlimited variety. Some of the colors are carnation pink, stygian black, canine ochre, crushed strawberry, peaches and cream, Asiatic elephant, Bob Fitzsimmons red, Conroy Island blue, County Antrim green, striped tiger, Panama fever yellow, confederate gray, Elgin cream, studious brown, Jamaica ginger, absinthe opalescent, Ohio claret, jaundice tan, and in brief, the colors of the rainbow have to take a rear seat when brought into comparison with the multifarious hues of Bonita's hosiery. She is said to be the proud owner of more stockings than any other actresses extant. Her friends say that it is impossible for her to pass a dry goods store without her insatiable craving for stockings overpowering her, and that she goes in, through force of habit, and invariably makes a purchase of more hosiery.

Manager Mortimer M. Theise fears that if Bonita continues blowing her money for stockings, that he will be put to considerable expense paying for excess baggage on the railroads; and he has mildly requested Bonita to try to reform and curb her mad propensity for cornering all the hosiery in the country.
