PINCHOT'S TREE BADLEY CHOPPED

Work of Chief Forester Undone by Secretary Wilson—Graves Merely Tree-Grower, Not Organizer, But Is Well Versed.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Down at the Forest Service, on the wall of the office which "Giff" Pinchot used to occupy, hangs what appears to be a family tree. It has little wiggly branches, zig-zagging out from a main shoot. The trunk so to speak was labeled "Forester," and the branches were designated as "Operation," and so on.

In Pinchot's day that family tree was a pretty graphic plan of the organization of the Forest Service. It showed just the relation each of the subsidiary divisions of the bureau bore to the other; it indicated who was responsible. At a glance one could see whether grazing matters were handled under "operation," or "maintenance," or "products," or what not.

But now the artist who should attempt to reconstruct the thing would have to break the symmetry of its branches and the tout ensemble would resemble nothing so much as a Christmas tree after two months in the back yard.

Wilson Uses His Axe
No sooner had Pinchot been dismissed by the presidential order than Secretary of Agriculture Wilson took up his official axe and began chopping off the branches on this tree—pruning down the army of various officials.

First, he lopped off that magnificent branch which joined the main trunk near the top and was labeled "finance." The splendid shoot which tapered down to the label "Law" was then removed. Then the crowning glory of the tree, that fat branch "Education, I Division"—it was also called "Division of Information," ought to have been dubbed "Press Bureau"—was sacrificed.

There may be more chopping in the future.

Graves a Tree Grower.
Secretary has so circumscribed the duties of the forest service that all there is left to do is to grow trees, and water those already growing. Henry Solon Graves, Pinchot's successor, has already announced that this is his slogan. He has decided to let the family tree of the service worry along without any attention, and to let time heal its grievous cuts.

The chief forester doesn't pose as an organizer. Pinchot was. There is no higher compliment to his energies than the present centralization of affairs in the forest service, the outgrowth of his ideas, the work of his grain. Graves is a tree-grower, pure and simple—and says so himself.

He has studied for years about trees and he knows them. He is anxious to grow trees, but is not apt to go beyond that point, first because he does not want to and second because Secretary Wilson would not let him if he did.

Had But One Client
Graves studied forestry first in the university at Munich, Germany. He came away from there chuck full of tree lore and then wandered around Switzerland, Germany and Austria. When he came back to the United States he found Gifford Pinchot here—then the only "consulting forester" in captivity in America. Graves joined with Pinchot and the two hung out a partnership shingle.

The firm got just one client, the Vanderbilt estate at Baltimore, N. C. So well did Graves do his part of the work there that when a man was needed to tell the Interior department about trees he was chosen.

Japs Deported.
MANILA, April 5.—The two Japanese who were accused of attempting to secure plans of fortifications, but who were discharged owing to the inadequacy of the civil law to hold them for the alleged offense, have been deported. The Japanese were placed aboard the liner Yedo Maru and warned not to return to the Philippines.

The arrangements for their deportation were arranged by the American authorities and the Japanese consul, who acted only officially in the matter.

The man who is not sure that advertising will help him sell it is trying to sell something that you ought to be very wary about buying.

LIVE STOCK ACTIVE THROUGHOUT MARCH

All Previous Records for Prices Broken—More Buyers Looking to Portland Market.

PORTLAND, April 5.—The livestock market at Portland for the month of March has been a pleasing one, both in prices and receipts. As compared with March last year, there was an increase of 3607 cattle, 1193 sheep and 382 hogs. In the face of the great shortage prevailing all over the country, this is a splendid showing for the Portland market.

All previous records for prices were broken, not alone in individual instances of small sales, but in the higher general average prevailing for all classes of livestock. Cattle sold high, sheep and lambs brought big prices and the hog market that went up in February has shown no sign of a falling stick.

More buyers are looking to this market for their supplies and competition in every line is keen.

A further glance at comparative receipts may be of interest:

	Cattle.	Hogs.	Sheep.
March, 1910.....	7945	4650	4472
March, 1909.....	4338	4268	3369

Increase ... 3607 382 1193

The showing in hogs is remarkable when it is considered that there were 3127 less brought to Portland by packers from Missouri river points in March, 1910, than in March, 1909.

Population is increasing so rapidly in the Pacific northwest that the farmers need have no fear of an over-supply of livestock that is properly prepared for the market.

NEW YORK BUREAU FIGHTING INCOME TAX, SAYS JAMES

WASHINGTON, April 5.—"I am satisfied," said Representative Ollie James of Kentucky, "that there is a combination, a bureau or something of the sort organized and operated by a group of New York individuals and corporations with the view of fighting the income tax amendment in every state of the union."

"I don't know whom to lay my finger on and say 'You are engaged in this effort to defeat the purposes of the enactment,' but I am informed on unquestionable authority that such an organization does exist and I am going to find out about it. I will know more in a week than I do now."

"It was most evident down in Kentucky," continued Mr. James, "that there was a powerful organization working against the ratification of the amendment by four-fifths of the states. The action of the Virginia legislature is also significant."

BRIDAL PARTY OF 450, WITH EIGHT WEDDINGS

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Eight couples came from Richmond today to be married here. They came with a wedding party of 450 persons, which filled seven coaches of a special train. The Rev. James E. Cook of Baltimore came to the capital to tie the bunch of knots.

First the wedding party appeared at the license clerk's office for the permits. That official did a day's work in an hour. Then, in the parlors of a downtown hotel, the clergyman did the rest.

Each year Mrs. James R. Gill, superintendent of the male orphan asylum in Richmond runs the "Cupid Special" to Washington for the benefit of her charges. Charitable folks and friends of the asylum compose the wedding attendants and see that wedding gifts are not lacking. Three other young couples, who could not wait, were married in Richmond this morning. They came along on the special for their honeymoon.

BRYAN WILL ADVOCATE NATIONAL LABOR PARTY

WASHINGTON, April 5.—William J. Bryan is to address the Farmers' union annual convention in St. Louis May 3 to 8. He will talk about the aid he and the democratic party received from the labor people and the Farmers' union in the last campaign, and will urge a formation of the union and American Federation of Labor into a national labor party or a union in support of particular candidates for both legislatures and congress.

On May 8 President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor will make an address, and will announce organized labor's political plans and the candidates to be supported and the candidates to be
