

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. Eyer of Eugene has passed a week's visit very pleasantly with his cousin, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bish, and family of North Court street. Judge Kelly today unloaded four Overland automobiles, making 20 new cars received in Medford the past week. Meeker's spring sales—your opportunity. Colonel William Duling, one of the cattle and wheat kings of Eastern Washington, who has been wintering in Long Beach, Cal., the past season, was renewing an acquaintance with friends in the valley last week. C. E. Whisler took occasion to give him an auto spin throughout various sections of the valley, covering in all about 75 miles, an ideal outing at this beautiful season. Upon returning to Medford they missed the train, with the result that Mr. Whisler rushed the passengers to Ashland by auto conveyance, a courtesy greatly appreciated. C. C. Walker of Ashland circulated among his numerous friends in this end of the valley Monday. Stanley Dich is building a six-room modern residence on North Court street. A. W. Bish, the pioneer contractor and builder, is doing the work. Emil Payette, "the Arcola Kid," was at Gold Hill Tuesday on a business trip. Captain M. Caton of Phoenix was in Medford Tuesday morning on a business trip. Meeker's, 28 South Central ave. James W. Strain of Klamath Falls was a Medford visitor Tuesday. Mrs. C. C. Aydlotte and Mr. Wilson are building five and six-room residences on North Beatty. L. Hooker is the contractor and builder. J. W. Dayo of Gold Hill was in Medford on business Tuesday. F. M. Stewart was at Jacksonville Tuesday. T. O. Erickson and Arthur Brown are in the Applegate section for a few days—springing spring poetry and singing seren songs to the unsuspecting residents thereof. Professor Abe Bish and family have bought property in Ashland and will build, as they prefer a quiet, dry city to a wet, bustling, bustling city like beautiful Medford. J. A. Waddell of Portland is in Medford looking after business interests. John H. Carkin, attorney at law, over Jackson County Bank. Private board at 166 E. street. Strictly first-class. Meeker's windows are attractive. Messrs. Beck and Calvin, teamsters, have each bought lots on North Court street and are building. Arthur Jones, the high school student of Beagle, has returned and will resume his studies. James Owings, the photographer of North Central avenue, is moving to Gold Hill. See the new goods at Meeker's. New hair-dressing parlors now open at Montgomery's. 50° Commander Eighmy, G. A. R., leaves today for Southern California town. Mrs. Guy Moore of North Beatty street, has a severe attack of whooping cough. Lem Hooker and family of North Beatty visited friends in Gold Hill Sunday. Meeker save you money. Pupils of Mrs. E. E. Gore will be heard in a public piano recital at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, April 19, at 8 o'clock. The program will consist of solo work and concerted numbers for three performers, and a piano solo with second part played on the pipe organ. Rothwell & Brown have engaged in business as plastering and cement contractors and will make a specialty of ornamental plastering. G. A. Taylor of Battle Creek, Mich., is in Medford looking over the business situation. George E. Neuber of Jacksonville was a Medford visitor on business Tuesday. Mrs. H. L. Young of Brookfield ranch, near Brownsboro, is visiting in the city for a few days. Miss Edith Jennings of Gold Hill, was a Medford visitor Monday. S. A. Pattison of the Central Point Herald was in Medford on a business trip Monday. Ex-County Judge G. W. Dunn of Ashland was in Medford on business Tuesday. J. E. Pierce and family of Green Bay, Wis., are in Medford looking over the valley with a view to locating. E. V. Carter of Ashland was in Medford Tuesday looking after business interests. Haskins for Health.

H. E. Lee of Eugene is in Medford today on business. Mr. and Mrs. George Loring of Gold Hill were Medford visitors Tuesday. The Warren Construction company are operating their mixing plant on West Eighth street preparing the material for the paving of Main street, for which the company has the contract. Work commenced on the paving Monday and the company will push it to a finish. W. J. Drumhill has returned from a visit to California points, where he has been for the past several months. C. A. Malboeuf of Portland is here looking after business interests.

SAYS "FOURTH ESTATE" FLIRTED WITH GIRLS WAS PLAGIARIZED IS OUT JUST $1000

Patterson is Defendant in Suit for $50,000 Brought by Newspaper Man Who Claims Story Stolen.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 12.—Joseph Medill Patterson, millionaire socialist and author, today is defendant in a $50,000 damage suit brought by Eugene Quirk, a newspaper man. Quirk claims that Patterson's successful play, "The Fourth Estate," was plagiarized from a book called "Drifting," which he wrote in collaboration with his wife. Quirk's bill of complaint, which was filed yesterday, charges infringement of copyright, plagiarism and the theft of plot, theme and characters from his book, "The Fourth Estate." This was Patterson's second successful venture. His book, "A Little Brother of the Rich," was dramatized before "The Fourth Estate" appeared.

SALOON PORTER WAS CHINESE GENERAL

Learned That Chinaman Who Labor-ed as Porter in Vallejo Saloon Was Retired General of Chinese Army.

VALLEJO, Cal., April 12.—It was learned today that Woooh Hi, a porter in a local saloon, who died Saturday, was a retired general of the Chinese army. While he worked as porter in the saloon, he had been under pension by the Chinese government. Woooh's identity became known when Coroner Klotz received a lengthy cablegram from the Chinese government requesting him to ship the body to the family of the man at Peking, China. Money to defray the expense was also wired. There was no known reason for Woooh to labor. He was wealthy and was in a position to live a life of ease. He came to Vallejo a year ago. To those who knew him, he exhibited a scar across his breast, which he said was the mark of a wound he received during the Chinese-Japanese war.

Married at Jacksonville. J. A. Loar and Ethel J. Holland were married by Judge J. R. Neil in the courthouse at Jacksonville this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Loar have many friends in Medford who are wishing them all kinds of good fortune in the years to come.

ORDINANCE NO. 319.

An ordinance requiring all restaurants and other places in the city of Medford where the public are supplied with food to maintain garbage cans for the reception of slops and garbage. The city of Medford doth ordain as follows: Section 1. Every person conducting or running a restaurant and other place in the city of Medford where the public are supplied with food shall maintain at all times a garbage can, or cans, holding not more than twenty gallons, which shall be constructed of metal and shall be water tight and fitted with an air tight lid, and said can shall at all times be kept securely covered with said lid, except when being filled and emptied. Section 2. Into said can shall be placed and deposited by the person running said restaurant all slops, garbage and similar material, and the same shall be removed and emptied at proper intervals, to be determined by the health officer of the city. Any person who shall violate the provisions of this ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than five or more than fifty dollars. The foregoing ordinance was passed by the city council of the city of Medford, Oregon, on the 6th day of April, 1910, by the following vote: Emerick absent, Merrick absent, Dentmer aye, Elfert aye, Welch aye, Werten aye. Approved April 7th, 1910. W. H. CANON, Mayor. Attest: ROBT. W. TELFER, City Recorder.

$150 AN ACRE—270 acres, foothill land, about 6 miles from Medford; there are about 85 acres on this place now planted to fruit which includes about 26 acres in bearing. The bearing varieties are Newtown and Spitzenberg apples and Comice pears. There are 25 acres of Newtowns in their second year with peach blossoms and about 6 acres of Newtowns just planted; also 26 acres of Jonathans and 16 acres of Bartlett and Anjou pears just planted. About 200 acres of first-class fruit land on the place. There are many springs on the place and considerable water could be developed for irrigation; two houses, good barn and other buildings. Would subdivide nicely. Easy terms.

$2500—Sixty acres, 6 miles from Medford, about 15 acres cleared and partly planted; small buildings.

$250 AN ACRE—70 acres, about 4 miles from Medford, free soil; 25 acres planted to Newtown and Spitzenberg apples, mostly 3 years old; in addition, about 25 acres under cultivation, balance easily cleared; good new 6-room plastered house, new barn; also set of old buildings. Could be subdivided into two or three tracts nicely. easy terms.

$5500—Six miles from Medford, good new buildings, about 8 acres planted to Newtown, Spitzenberg and pears, 1 and 2 years old; about 7 acres additional cleared, balance not hard clearing; good team, wagon and machinery goes with the place. This is a 60-acre tract.

$15,000—A first-class fruit and alfalfa ranch, 185 acres, 5 1/2 miles from railway station, practically all bottom land, 140 acres now under cultivation, water right with place; fair house, two barns, schoolhouse on the place, for $15,000, which is only $81 an acre; $6000 cash will handle, and easy terms can be had on the balance; this is a fine chance to get a first-class tract of low-priced land for development purposes. We don't think this will last long, and if you are interested, come in and see us about it.

$12,525—Eleven acres in Comice pears, 10 years old; 9 acres in Bartlett and Anjou pears, 1 to 3 years old; close in; good soil; sunny.

$12,000—Eleven acres in Comice and Bose pears, 14 years old; fine trees are in full bearing and will pay a good income on the price asked.

$15,000—Twenty acres, fine new modern bungalow, buildings easily worth $4000; about 13 acres of apples in full bearing; trees are 15 years old; balance planted to apples 2 years old; good soil; slightly location; close to market; an assured income from the beginning; a fine home.

$150 to $200 PER ACRE—Stewart acre tracts; 2 miles from Medford; tracts are from 10 to 25 acres in size; fine building spots on all; can all be irrigated; cheapest tracts in Medford neighborhood; easy terms.

$300 PER ACRE—Finest 5 and 10-acre orchard and garden tracts in the valley; easy terms.
