HUGHES TO SIT ON SUPREME BENCH?

Rumor Has New York Executive as Most Favored Aspirant for Place -Is Strong, Progressive Man-Foe of Corporations.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 13 .-Governor Hughes of New York and William Vandeventer of the Eigth circuit court of the United States are, according to gossip here today, the favorites in the long list of judicial possibilities to fill the vacancy on the supreme bench caused by the death of Justice Brewer.

Among those said to have been those who are said to have been on the presiden 'a roll of candidates are Governor Hughes and Judge Vandeventer, Judge Hook and Sanborn of the eight federal circuit court. Solicitor General Bowers of the department of justice, Judges Andrews, Tompkins and Crure of the supreme beach of New York and Judge Swazey of the supreme court of lowa.

The news that Hughes and Vandeventer are considered as most favored candidate: for the place of Justice Brewer is teing widely counted Hughes legal training and antitrust campaigns, his handling of the New York insurance investigation the reforms he has advocated sin-o he was governor of New York, it is declared marks hive as a man who would stand with the government trust .l'igacion. It is declared in legal cir es that his appointment would stren then the government's case in such presecutions.

Judge Vanleventer was one of the jurists who say in the Standard Oil hearing in St. Louis.

Whether he would care to sit with the other justices of the supreme bench in case of a rehearing of the Standard appeal is a question being asked in many quarters. He would then be put into the position of judging his own legal action in the $6; Limas, $5; reis, $8. Standard Off cree. Although his decision shows his ideas relative to the in the trust prosecution it has planned, attorneys declare it would be doubtful wiether be would care $11; fancy, $11.00; stockers, $9.50.
