

Any Thing to Sell? Any Thing to Buy? A Want Ad Will Do It

JUDGE DENIES DIVORCE TO 15-YEAR-OLD WIFE

SEATTLE, Wash., April 22.—"The divorce is denied," indignantly exclaimed Judge Robert H. Lindsay of the superior court, handing down a decision in the suit of Eva Roe, a matron of 15, for a divorce from her husband, Percy Rodgers, aged 22.

"Humph! The idea!" ejaculated the judge. "Things are coming to a pretty pass when children come up here and ask for a divorce the same as grown people. Instead of granting a divorce, I recommend that your mothers, both of whom are present, take you home, place you across their respective knees and get busy with a hairbrush or shingle."

Eva Rodgers went on the stand and tearfully told the jury that her lord and master had a bad habit of finding fault with her pies; that he was "altogether too rough" when he played games with her, and that on one horribly mortifying occasion he had gone so far as to box her ears. Apart from this, she had no complaint to make.

When the head of the edgers family took the stand he complained to the judge that his wife had a disagreeable habit of spending his wages by going to nickelodians and moving picture shows.

COTTON MILLS WILL SOON CLOSE DOWN, SAYS PATTON

NEW YORK, April 22.—"What King" Jim Patton today predicted that the cotton mills throughout the world would close during August and September because they would have nothing to work on.

He reiterated his denial that he has attempted to corner the cotton supply. He said if the law prohibiting the purchase of cotton futures was passed he would quit speculating on it.

"If the government does away with speculation," he said, "it will merely put cotton in the hands of a few strong men. The producers have no means of knowing what cotton is actually worth."

CLEVELAND READY TO PROTECT AMERICANS

LONDON, April 22.—A dispatch from Pekin today says the American cruiser Cleveland arrived at Yo Chow across Tung Ting lake from Chang Sha today. It reports that the uprising at Chang Sha will not reach serious proportions.

In other parts of China, particularly Yi Tiang, rioting similar to that of Chang Sha is taking place. The mission school at Yi Tiang is reported burned. The rioting there is said to be more serious than at Chang Sha.

How Many Want Ads Do You Answer In a Week?

How many advertised things do you investigate and buy? How many store bargains do you "look up" after reading the ads? How many advertised opportunities to buy or sell things do you follow up and utilize? If, with you, thrift is a practiced virtue, and not simply a preached one, you are a vigilant and intelligent answerer of ads—and you'll probably answer more this week than you did last.
