Private board at 116 East 6th st. Strictly first-class.

It's queer how the public tumbles to something strictly swell. Note how the high lots in the Nob Hill Addition have quietly been reserved for leading local citizens contemplating the construction of modern bungalows during the coming summer. And the owners tell us there will be a building restriction of $2000 on most of these lots. Thus Medford grows.

Be ready for the signal. 30

The equipment for a semaphore board arrived for the Central Point depot this week and will be installed at once. Since this station was equipped with the telegraph instruments it has been necessary to flag trains for the delivery of train orders but with the installing of the semaphore this antiquated method will be done away with.

Help the library.

The Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal church will meet at the residence of Mrs. G. L. Schermerhorn, 103 North Grape street, Thursday afternoon.

Everybody nearly went fishing Sunday or attended the ball games. There was therefore only a few hundred people on the street—about like the same number as appear on week days in neighboring towns.

BLOCK DAY.

The envelopes with "For the Library Fund," have been distributed by the ladies of the Greater Medford club, one having been left at every house in town. The enthusiasm with which the envelopes have been received and the interest evinced by the recipients in the library cause greatly encouraged the members of the club. Great returns are expected. Be ready this evening for the signal which will clang forth from church, school, firehouse and laundry, though this must not be mistaken for a session of church service or fire. The signal is just a melodious reminder to have their envelopes ready with their gifts and that the collectors are rallying forth to procure the envelopes. The collectors will then repair to the Jackson County bank, there to reckon the harvest.

What do you think will be the amount in the fund?

ART BURGESS BUYS FAMOUS LOUVRE CAFE

A. C. Burgess has purchased the Louvre Cafe and will continue the excellent service that has made this restaurant famous as the best grill south of Portland. A specialty will be made of after-theater parties and special dinners.

City Tied Up by Strike.

MADRID, April 25.—(Via Hendaye)—The strike at Gijon, the second largest city and the principal seaport in the province of Asturias, has assumed a revolutionary character. A rigid censorship over dispatches from the city has been maintained, but it is known that serious street fighting is in progress.

Swastika Dance Friday Night.

The announcement of the date of the Swastika dance as being next Thursday night was an error. The dance will be held Friday night.

OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT OF WATER.

The offices of M. M. Gault, superintendent of water, are now located in the city hall. Mr. Gault will be in his offices from 1 p. m. to 3 p. m., where he may be found by anyone having business with his department. 30

MEDFORD AS YET LEADS WITH 1000

Medford Wins Its Fifth Consecutive Game in Rogue River League—Game in Danger of Being Lost at One Time.

With the game tucked apparently safely away in the warbag of the Medford team, with the score 9 to 2. Grants Pass made a game batting rally in the eighth and chased over four runs. Bowers, first up, slammed a two-bagger to left; Williams followed, sending a similar hit along the third base line, scoring Bowers. Schmidt came through with a single, scoring Williams. S. Faubian contributed a single to the fireworks and there were three scores with nobody down. It looked as if the game might be pulled out of the fire. Riggs struck out and Osborne, who had taken Thrasher's place, went out, second to first, advancing Faubian, who scored on Ferguson's smash to the score board.

Guy Smith popped to short and the agony was over. Grants Pass failed to get anything in the ninth and the final score stood 9 to 6 in Medford's favor.

Coleman pitched fine ball until that fatal eighth, when the heat and poor water had their effect upon him. Hill the high school youngster, caught like a veteran. His blocking was perfect and the way he pegged to second made the Grants Pass boys leary about entertaining any felonious ideas about that keystone bag. He caught Osborne off first very neatly in the initial canto. With a little experience he is going to make a first-class backstop. He also found the ball for a hit and laid down a neat sacrifice.

That man Beebe is some short-stop, too. He made a great running catch in the third, which caused the fans to make some noise.

The score by innings:

Medford	0	1	3	0	1	9	3	1	0	—	9
Hits	1	0	3	0	1	1	2	0	—	9
Grants Pass	0	0	0	0	0	2	4	0	—	6
Hits	0	1	1	0	2	1	5	0	—	11

Batteries—Coleman and Hill; Ferguson and Williams. Three-base hits—Henselman. Two-base hits—Williams, Bowers, Strain. First base on balls—Off Ferguson 4, off Coleman

Don't Fail to Hear Dr. French E. Oliver Tonight

Oliver Union Meetings

Every Night This Week at 7:30 p. m.

At The Big Tabernacle

North Bartlett, Near Jackson St.

DR. OLIVER'S SUBJECT TONIGHT WILL BE "PRAYER."

A Fine Chorus Choir

ALMOST 300 VOICES WERE ON HAND IN THE CHORUS CHOIR LAST NIGHT.

Dr. Oliver pronounced it the finest ever heard in southern Oregon to his knowledge. You'll enjoy the chorus singing. Many of Medford's finest singers will be there. If you can sing, join this choir.

COME EARLY TONIGHT.

Oliver Terrific at Times

HAS NO MERCY ON HYPOCRITES.

He drags before his hearers the slimy hypocrite, tears from his heart his secret crimes and exposes his accursed villainy to the gaze of all. He is terrific at times. You should hear him at least once.

LARGE TABERNACLE, SEATING 3000 PEOPLE. CHOIR LOFT THAT WILL SEAT SOME 400 SINGERS. COME EXPECTING TO RECEIVE A BLESSING.

SEE ARTICLE ON OPENING OF REVIVAL ELSEWHERE IN PAPER.

You'll Like Oliver

HE COMMANDS RESPECT EVERYWHERE.

His high position as a revivalist has not been easily gained. Every step of the way has been a fight, but the fight has developed a well equipped knight. He is a big man, big body, big head, big heart, big soul. Hear him tonight and form your own opinion.

Prof. Maltbie's Solos Touch Every Heart

There are many soloists, but Prof. Maltbie certainly has few equals if any superiors. You can't help being impressed when you listen to one of his renditions. If music hath charms to chase evil away, when sung by this sweet singer when seconded by a well drilled chorus of over 200 voices, it cannot help but move something.

THE SINGING ALONE IS WORTH COMING 50 MILES TO HEAR.

Be Seated Early Tonight
