

MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE

THE WEATHER.
Tonight and Thursday —
Warmer. Possible light frost.

FIFTH YEAR.

MEDFORD, OREGON, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 27, 1910.

No. 32.

IF NOT YET ON ROLL, HURRY! YOU'RE NEEDED

If Medford Citizens Do Not Wake
Up Grants Pass and Ashland Will Show Great Population, for They Are All Getting on the List—Tis
Every One's Duty.

19 OUT OF 50 TODAY
HAD NOT BEEN COUNTED

Matter is Most Important—If Not Counted, Call at Commercial Club
Rooms and Give Secretary Your Name—Time Left is Very Short.

Medford citizens are not responding to the call of the census men as they should. In consequence, Ashland or Grants Pass may show a larger population. Not that either place has as large a number of residents, but that they are all getting on the roll. Medford must wake up. But a day or two yet remains in which to complete the enumeration. Everyone should make it a point to have his name listed.

Out of 50 people on the streets of Medford who were asked this morning whether they had been enrolled, 19 admitted that they had not been. Most of these were not at home when the census man called, or were occupants of some hotel or lodging house and were away most of the day. If this ratio holds, a large percentage of population has been missed.

If you have not been counted, call at the Commercial club rooms and leave details regarding yourself on blanks you will find there—and call at once.

Every business man should see that all of his employees are listed. Every hotel keeper that his guests are counted, every lodging house keeper that his roomers are put on the list. This is extremely important and must be done at once.

GREEKS AROUSED OVER KILLING OF COUNTRYMEN

SEATTLE, Wash., April 27.—The local Greek colony is aroused today over the killing of Louis Zahariadis, owner of the Main cafe. A mass meeting of the Greeks of the city has been called for tonight to offer a reward for the arrest of George Pahlilis, charged with the crime.

Nursing an old grudge, Pahlilis, former partner in the cafe, entered the restaurant last night and, according to witnesses, emptied the magazines of two revolvers at Zahariadis, killing him instantly.

The killing was evidently carefully planned. Last October Pahlilis and the dead man quarreled and broke up their partnership. Pahlilis went to Spokane. Three weeks ago he returned and since then he has been a frequent visitor at the restaurant.

BUFFALO BILL PLANS UNIQUE MEMORIAL

CHICAGO, April 27.—When "Buffalo Bill" Cody dies his body will be buried on the summit of Cedar mountain, in Big Horn county, Wyoming, and over it will stand a marble statue of a buffalo 40 feet high with electric lights in the eye sockets so brilliant that they can be seen eight miles away. At least that is what Cody himself plans, though he says he is far from a dead one now.

Sham Battle for Teddy.

PARIS, April 27.—As a prelude to the Kriegspiel, or war game, that Colonel Roosevelt expects to view at Berlin, the French government today provided a sham battle for the edification of the American visitor.

Noted Author Dead.

PARIS, April 27.—The body of Bjornstjerne Bjornson, Norwegian poet, dramatist and novelist, was removed to the Protestant chapel here from his home, where he died.

Kingly honors are being paid to the memory of Bjornson.

Come To High Jinks Tonight

Der Kaiser and T. R Are Praised

Benjamin Ide Wheeler Declares These Two Men Are Most Potent
Forces in the World.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 27.—Emperor William of Germany and Theodore Roosevelt are the two most potent personal factors for the advancement of the peace of the world. This declaration was made by President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California, who today is on his way to Berkeley after attending the annual convention of the state school superintendents' association at Riverside.

"The popular idea that the German emperor, with his wonderful military organization, is a menace to the world's peace is incorrect," Wheeler said.

"Both Emperor William and Roosevelt have more preparedness for war is the best safeguard against that evil.

"Every ship built by the United States, Germany or Great Britain is an added help to peace."

Bryan Not For Us Say "Drys"

Californian Says Nomination of Bryan
Would Jeopardize Party, as He Is Not Yet Out of Kindergarten.

DES MOINES, Ia., April 27.—Open opposition to the suggested boom of William Jennings Bryan for president on the prohibition ticket is apparent at the prohibition convention here. A number of the delegates however, favor passing some sort of resolution endorsing Bryan.

Charles R. Hall, a Californian, addressing a banquet of the delegates, voiced the Bryan opposition.

"It would jeopardize the prohibition party to have as a candidate a man out of the kindergarten class of the prohibition school," he declared. "As soon as Bryan cuts away from the 'whisky democratic party' I willingly will endorse him."

Pittsburg To Take a Rest

No More Graft Cases Are to Be Tried for Some Time, According to Judge
Who Dismissed Jury Panel.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 27.—Judge Frased today created a sensation in the graft cases by announcing that there will be no more graft trials for the present.

The entire panel of petit jurors drawn for the trials was dismissed by the court with the exception of those drawn to serve in the pending trial of ex-Councilman Coffey.

"COME ON OVER" SAY DEMOCRATS

Senator Raynor of Maryland Extends Invitation to Insurgents to Join Their Party—His Invitation Was Seconded by Senator Bailey of Texas—Dolliver Declines.

"WE ARE TIRED OF BEING FLIRTED WITH—COME ON"

Raynor Declares Democrats Are Growing Weary of Being Embraced Only to Be Rejected When Supreme Moment Comes.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 27.—Republican insurgents in the senate were invited to join the Democratic party today. The invitation was extended by Senator Isidor Raynor (Dem. Md.) and was seconded by Senator Joseph Bailey of Texas.

Senator Raynor was speaking on the administration railroad bill when he tendered the invitation.

"There is scarcely a difference between us now," he said, after asking the insurgents to become Democrats. "If we eliminate all nonessentials, are the insurgents in sympathy with us or are they merely flirting with us? We are growing weary of being embraced only to be rejected when the supreme moment comes."

Dolliver Declines.

Later Senator Dolliver, speaking on the same measure, gently declined Raynor's invitation on behalf of the insurgents, of whom Dolliver is a leader.

Senator Raynor began his speech with an attack on the constitutionality of the railroad bill.

The insurgents have frequently attacked the measure and demanded a number of amendments. After speaking of the insurgent attitude on this measure, he declared it was identical with the bill of the Democrats and suggested they join forces.

Senator Bailey, who followed, declared that political gravitation would compel the insurgents and the Democrats to join each other sooner or later.

He declared the Republican party was torn with internal strife and said:

"You are not strong enough in any state or in any district to fight the Democrats and each other at the same time."

Senator Dolliver, in his reply, declared that the insurgents were merely fighting wrong in their party to eliminate corporation control.

"We will fight wrong in the Republican party, not to injure the party, but to destroy control by special interest that now dominates the party," Dolliver declared.

The insurgents, he said, had sympathy with the Democratic party, "but little confidence in it."

"The present political evil," he continued, "is that a few men have grown so strong that they are knocking the heads of the two old parties."

"The party of the future will be based on Lincoln's doctrine of an unfettered start and fair chance to every man."

WATTERMAN MEETS WITH MOST SERIOUS ACCIDENT

E. B. Watterman, the well-known orchardist, who recently sold his place, south of Medford, met with a very serious accident Monday evening while on his way to Medford. His horse fell with him and he suffered a compound fracture of the arm. It was feared he would lose it, but now it is believed that the arm will be saved.

MONTGOMERY STORE IS SOLD TO SEATTLE MAN

A. Tackstrom, recently of Seattle, has purchased the Montgomery store on Main street. Mr. Tackstrom is a recent arrival in Medford and has indicated his intention of staying not only by purchasing the Montgomery store, but by buying residence property—the Hargrave place, on Laurel avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery will probably seek another location.

ASHLAND GAVE WARM WELCOME

During Evening Reception Was Tendered Portland's Business Men and Man Speeches Were Made—Dr. Smith Makes Plea for Good Roads in State—Praisers Crater Project.

ALL PLEASSED WITH RECEPTION IN ROGUE

Taken to Natorium in Ashland and Given Bath—Off on Trip to Klamath at 11 P. M.—Surprised by the Large Orchards.

ASHLAND, Or., April 27.—Members of the Portland excursion were royally welcomed to Ashland Tuesday evening. The train pulled in on schedule time at 5:40, the excursionists having made brief stops at Phoenix and Talent, where they were received by citizens of the two towns.

The visitors were taken around Ashland and shown the park and other sights before dusk. In the evening a reception was accorded them by the Ashland Commercial club at the new Elks hall.

Judge C. B. Watson acted as chairman, and introduced the Portland speakers with humorous descriptions.

Praise for Ashland.

Dr. J. R. Weatherbee, chairman of the Portland Civic Improvement league, paid a high compliment to Ashland, declaring that Portland and Ashland were the two substantial cities of Oregon. That Ashland was like Portland in its absence of hot air, contrasting favorably with Medford, as Portland did with Seattle. He predicted a bright future for the city.

Dr. Andrew C. Smith, president of the Hibernia Savings bank, made a strong plea for good roads, and advocated the amendment of the constitution, so that counties could issue bonds and the state aid in constructing boulevards. This he declared was the only practical solution of the good roads problem in Oregon.

Smith Cites Medford.

"The people of Medford," declared Mr. Smith, "are making a most praiseworthy effort to build the Crater Lake highway, but it is a shame that they have to make the effort. Crater Lake belongs to the nation and it is the state's business to open it up. I hope that the people of Oregon will respond generously to Medford's appeal for funds, and that everyone who has the interest of the state at heart will make a contribution."

William McMurray, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, spoke of the rapid growth and development of the cities of the Rogue River valley, declaring that no section of the state was progressing more rapidly. He also favored a city that the railroad favored, a fine system of highways, and he supplemented the good roads plea by a plea for good hotels. At present, he declared, there is not a first-class hotel south of Portland in the state. There should be a change in the hotels, if there were, he declared, the railroads would see to it that they were kept filled with tourists, and that Oregon would become a great tourist resort for the nation. He advocated the formation of local companies to erect such hotels as one of the most effective methods of advertising a city and bringing in the desirable class of people.

W. E. Comans, general freight agent of the Southern Pacific, spoke along the same lines and W. H. Hollis, secretary of the Bankers and Merchants Insurance company of Forest Grove, in a brief talk thanked the people of Ashland for their hospitality. E. V. Carter of Ashland welcomed the visitors to the valley and told of the friendly relations existing between the various towns of southern Oregon.

After the speaking the visitors were treated to mineral water and cigars and taken to the natorium. They left for Klamath Falls at 11 o'clock well pleased with the Rogue River valley and their reception here.

The visiting business men of Port-

Nature Mourns O'er Bier of World's Greatest Humorist

ELMIRA, April 27.—Continuously for the past three days Dame Nature has been mourning over the grave of Mark Twain on the grassy slope of the Langdon plot in Woodlawn cemetery. On Sunday when the body was laid in its last resting place a heavy rain beat down upon the canvas sides of a little tent which sheltered the mourners. Since then there has been no cessation in the downpour—a thing unprecedented in this city at this time of year.

It seems that nature has joined in with the world in mourning the passing of the great humorist.

There is no rift in the clouds today.

JOHN D. IS TIRED OF WAITING FOR CONGRESS TO ACT

Expected Now That Capitalist Will Attempt to Incorporate His Scheme Under Laws of Some State—Reported to Rockefeller It Is Impossible to Get Action on Scheme.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 27.—John D. Rockefeller is tired of waiting for congress to act on his scheme to establish a half-billion dollar foundation fund, and it is expected that he will attempt to incorporate under the laws of some state. Rockefeller's representatives are convinced that it will be impossible to get the bill establishing the foundation passed during the present session. It is reported that this fact has been laid before Rockefeller and he has sanctioned the plan to seek incorporation elsewhere.

The principal objectors to the foundation scheme are Senators Heyburn of Idaho and La Follette of Wisconsin.

Their objections, it is declared, are so strenuous that they must be disposed of before the foundation bill could pass, and in order to take them up the bill has been delayed. It is not likely that it will be reached before adjournment.

Senator La Follette objects to the whole measure as being too vague. The bill declares the object of the foundation is the "benefit of humanity." La Follette declares that the measure should specify in what way the benefit is to be secured.

land were greatly pleased by their reception in this city and left cheering the local men who had entertained them.

"Of course I was familiar with the great fruit belt of the Rogue," stated George M. Trowbridge, managing editor of the Oregon Journal, "but one must see it at first hand to appreciate it. Never have I seen more beautiful orchards. I am sure our party was much impressed by the auto trip."

"The Medford spirit which we have heard so much about was evident and it is the spirit which builds cities and makes them famous."

WOLTER MUST DIE; SENTENCE IS PRONOUNCED

New York Youth Found Guilty of Atrocious Crime, Is Taken to Sing Sing, Where He Will Be Executed During Week Beginning June 16—Apparently Unmoved.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Albert Wolter, convicted of the murder of Ruth Wheeler, was today sentenced to be electrocuted at Sing Sing during the week beginning June 16. Since the jury returned a verdict of guilty Wolter has been waiting apparently unmoved for Judge Foster to pronounce the verdict.

Today he was taken to the court and Judge Foster delivered the sentence.

Ruth Wheeler, a young girl, according to the evidence, answered an advertisement calling for a stenographer. It is declared she went to Wolter's room.

Her body was afterwards found mutilated and charred. Part of it was in a grate and a part on the fire escape outside his window.

A woman who lived in the apartment told of having heard Wolter busy about the fireplace on the night it was supposed the murder was committed.

Wolter's defense was an attempted alibi.

CHAMBERLAIN WOULD OPEN INDIAN RESERVATION

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 27.—A bill to open to settlement the Klamath Indian reservation was introduced in the senate today by Senator Chamberlain.

Mikado Gives Fete.

TOKYO, April 27.—A cherry blossom fete, the most brilliant social function of the year, was given this afternoon by the emperor and empress to 1200 Japanese and foreign, civil and military dignitaries.

Jeff Hard at Work.

ROWARDENNAN, April 27.—Cooler weather today enabled Jeffries to again take up a somewhat strenuous program of training. Jim hiked over mountain roads for some ten miles at a good clip.

500 WOMEN AND CHILDREN ARE SLAUGHTERED BY TURKS

Troops Herd Victims into Small City and Then Bombard It—After 36 Hours of Fighting Turkish Troops Are Repulsed in Bloody Battle by Albanians at Kochanik Pass.

60,000 TURKISH TROOPS ARE RUSHED TO FRONT

Hundreds Said to Be Dying Owing to Lack of Quarters in Which to Care for Wounded—Abdul Hamid Said to Be Dying of Apoplexy.

SALONIKA, Turkey, April 27.—Five hundred Albanians, mostly women and children, were killed by the Turkish troops, who first herded their victims into the city of Godants and then bombarded it, according to dispatches received here today.

The town was practically destroyed by the missiles hurled by the big guns.

Turks Repulsed.

LONDON, April 27.—A dispatch received by Reuter's Agency today from Albania, says that the Albanians repulsed the Turkish army twice in the battle at Kachanik Pass, where they have been fighting for 36 hours.

Reuter's correspondent also reported that the capturing of the rebels who are holding Prishtina and Prisanrd, are in imminent danger of being defeated and made prisoners by a large force of loyalists who surround the two cities.

Prisanrd is one of the most important cities in the province of Albania.

Mobilizing Troops.

CONSTANTINOPLE, via Philadelphia, April 27.—The government today is mobilizing 60,000 troops to rush to Albania to suppress the rebellion which has assumed such proportions as to seriously menace the stability of the present regime.

The efforts of the Turks to stay the progress of the revolutionists has been unsuccessful, although more than 30,000 loyal troops are in the field.

In the battle at Stimja both sides lost heavily in the two-day conflict. It is reported that more than 1000 men were killed.

Two hundred killed . . . . .

Two hundred were killed at Teshalova Pass. In these two engagements alone several thousand combatants were wounded and a large number taken prisoners.

Neither the rebels nor the regulars are prepared to care for the wounded and hundreds are said to be dying.

Chfteka Pasha, who is in command of the Turkish army in the Albanian region, is being blamed by government leaders for the failure of the loyalists to suppress the rebellion. The people are demanding his removal as minister of war.

It was rumored today that Abdul Hamid, whom the rebels hope to seat on the Turkish throne, from which he was deposed, is suffering from an attack of apoplexy. It is reported his condition is serious.

JACKSONVILLE GRANTS TELEPHONE FRANCHISE

At a meeting of the town council of Jacksonville Saturday evening a franchise was granted to the Home Telephone company to erect poles and wire them in certain streets of the town.

The franchise was granted after the council had taken it under consideration and had investigated the proposition thoroughly.
