

CARPENTERS HAVE PLEASANT TIME

Big Delegation Attends From Ashland—Over Two Hundred at Banquet—Jolly Time Is Had—Local Union Is Strong.

Carpenters and their friends to the number of 200 last evening enjoyed one of the most pleasant social sessions ever held by local Union, No. 1846. The occasion was the third anniversary of the formation of a local Carpenters' union.

The union has thrived well since its founding on April 27, 1907, with 15 members. At that time carpenters were paid $2.50 for a day of ten hours. Now the union has a membership of 75 and has succeeded in getting a working day out to eight hours, for which $3.50 and $4 is paid. Many new members are being added through the efforts of Business Agent J. J. Seale.

The Ashland union, which was organized about six months ago, now has 48 members. About 20 attended last evening's gathering here.

A number of short addresses were made last evening. These were followed by refreshments and dancing. The affair was most enjoyable throughout.

JEFFRIES CONFINES HIS WORK TO ROAD HIKE

ROWARDENNAN, Cal., April 29.—Jim Jeffries confined his training stunts today to a two-mile road hike, owing to soreness he still feels resulting from the boil on his back.

The big fellow is also suffering slightly from a strained tendon in his leg, which needs rest. Acting upon the advice of his several trainers, Jeffries decided to forego all but the lightest kind of work in order to give the leg a rest and permit the soreness to get out of his back and waist.

After his road work today the challenger went fishing for several hours. He planned to do some gymnasium work this afternoon and to resume light sparring next Monday.

Billy Papke today began active training for his 25-round argument with Joe Thomas, to be held May 14 at Colma.

ANOTHER TIE VOTE IS PULLED OFF IN HOUSE

WASHINGTON, D. C. April 29.—Another tie vote occurred in the house today on an amendment of the administration railroad bill. Following the vote of Monday, this is taken as an indication of the sentiment of the house regarding the measure, and leaders are predicting turbulent times ahead before the bill is finally voted on. That it will require all the strength of the administration to force the passage of the measure seems certain, many house leaders declare.

The vote today was on Fubard's amendment to reduce the authority of the proposed commerce court. The amendment was lost through lack of a majority, the vote standing 121 to 121.

Attell Beats Murphy.

NEW YORK, April 29.—Abe Attell, champion featherweight, gave Tommy Murphy the worst of a ten-round go before the Empire club last night. Every round was Attell's but the eighth and ninth, when Murphy succeeded in breaking his guard and flooring him once. In the final round Attell punished Murphy severely.

Kling Pays His Fine.

CINCINNATI, O., April 29.—Secretary Bruce of the national baseball commission, today received a check from "Johnny" Kling for $700. The amount pays the fine levied against Kling, who was recently reinstated in organized baseball and assigned to his old club, the Chicago Cubs, of the National league.

2000 ATTEND TABERNACLE MEETING LAST EVENING

PROFESSOR MALTBIE'S CHORUS CHOIR THE LARGEST IN SOUTHERN OREGON.

"The attempt of a pair of dirty spawns of whisky politics to heap opprobrium upon me last night at the opera house missed fire. The powder was soaked too full of saloon juice. The insult is not to me, but to the consecrated, courageous pastors of the five churches representing almost 1100 church members, many of whom are members of the Commercial club, which is disgraced by the two spokesmen of the saloon gang in Medford above mentioned. When the president of the Commercial club says that these noble pastors are such consummate fools that they would send for a man to conduct a religious campaign under their auspices whose character is questionable he is a liar.

When he says that the 1100 church members who authorized these pastors to secure me for this campaign are so degraded and so utterly characterless that they would put up this money, erect a great tabernacle, the greatest ever built in southern Oregon, and have their pastors secure a 'religious fakir' to deceive the people of Medford, under their patronage, he insults every pure woman in the churches, he insults every gentleman in these churches, and in the name of these pastors and the 1100 church members upon whose invitation I came here, I brand that old cur a damnable, lying scoundrel.

"The afternoon paper did not mention the fact that at the opera house last night a filthy henchman of the saloon gang—a snitch lawyer—so I am informed, advised mob rule in Medford—that is, that they take me and give me a coat of the materials used for street paving, and so on. I hereby challenge that caricature of a lawyer, that travesty on manhood, to bring out his limbs of Medford's whisky hell and get busy. I am an American citizen and you haven't enough rotten lawyers, saloon bums and whisky newspapers in Oregon to intimidate me. Every bit of opposition to me and my work in Medford has the saloon and saloon politicians back of it. There must be a new Medford; there will be a new Medford, free from whisky domination."

Tremendous applause followed the above remarks, which were the introductory words of Evangelist Oliver's sermon at the tabernacle last night. "The majesty of law" was the subject of the sermon delivered by Dr. Oliver to the largest religious gathering ever assembled in Medford. The text was from Joshua 1:8. Dr. Oliver convinced his audience that "the true basis of success is not judged by the dollar mark, but by a character built according to the laws of God. The best citizens of Medford are the ones who build character on God's laws."

Among other things Oliver said: "The class of men who break God's laws and teach young men to do so, the men who throw bombs, the anarchists, the men who delight to overthrow order, are, as proven by history, atheists, infidels and skeptics to a man." Dr. Oliver spoke of the lack of appreciation on the part of many husbands and fathers for the sacrifice and work by the wives and mothers in the average home today. The evangelist gave the business men to understand that "the object of this campaign is to help make men honest and decent and to get 'dead-beats' to pay their debts."

Nearly 1000 People Declare Themselves in Favor of a Clean Medford.

Dr. Oliver asked all people, whether church member or not, who would stand by this movement to make Medford a better city, to come forward and shake hands with the local pastors. Over half of the audience responded by coming forward.

Special Services. A special service for young people will be held at the tabernacle this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Service every night at 7:30. A lecture to "women only" on Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Sunday evening to "men only."
