LOWER FREIGHT RATES ASKED

Lang of Medford Grocery Co. appears before State Railroad Commission as Representative of Medford Commercial Club.

I. Lang, of the Medford Grocery Co., appeared before the state railroad commission Thursday at Salem as the representative of the Medford Commercial club's freight rate committee and proved the best informed witness of the hearing. He brought out the club's contention that lower railroad rates were essential to building up a jobbing center. He was armed with a mass of statistics. While the first-class rate may be fair, he declared that the difference between the first and second-class rates is not proportionate. He contended that an equitable rate would be based on the graduated tariff established by the Washington state commission and recently ordered in effect on the O. R. & N.

Improved Equipment.

R. Koehler, general purchasing agent of the Southern Pacific, stated that since the year 1893 the Southern Pacific company has made remarkable improvements in its right of way and equipment, in that at the time there were no steel rails between the towns of Tangent and Roseburg; the bridges between Portland and Ashland were wooden; 19 miles of trestle work has been filled in the past eight years; embankments have been widened from 14 to 16 feet, and in place of the comparatively light equipment, new and heavier engines and cars have been installed.

Mr. Koehler was then asked why were class rates lower in 1893 than they were at the present date, and he said special circumstances was the principal cause, among them being the competition with the O. R. & N.

In connection with the competition fight, the witness stated that a great amount of teaming was being carried on, especially between Corvallis and Eugene. Mr. Koehler said the first competition occurred in 1881, and continued until the Oregon

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY TO SECURE LECTURER

People of Medford to Be Given an Opportunity to Learn All About Radium at an Early Date.

Medford may in a few weeks witness the marvels of radium, the revelations of which have so amazed the world. Radium, it will be remembered, is the newly-found substance that gives constant heat and light, and continuously throws off tiny particles of itself, yet without any apparent diminution of weight or strength. Its rays will penetrate a foot of steel or go through two feet of hard wood. Its cost is at the rate of over $5,000,000 per pound, and is hardly obtainable even at that fabulous price, so extremely scarce is the present supply. Scientists estimate it is practically inexhaustible and that it will continue its peculiar manifestations for thousands, if not millions of years, without wearing out. Professor W. B. Patty, an expert exhibitor, may be engaged for an early appearance here, bringing a supply of radium and demonstrating its wonderful properties; also bringing, if he comes, a complete wireless telegraph apparatus and a supply of purified air, both of which will be instructively and entertainingly shown.

The coming of these novelties to the city depends upon citizens showing promptly a desire to have such an attraction. "Already many tickets have been spoken for, and if 50 more can be placed in the next day or two, definite arrangements will be announced. Those interested in the movement may communicate their desires to or obtain information from St. Mary's academy.

Historic Site at Auction.

NEW YORK, April 30.—One of the last of the historic sites in the vicinity of the metropolis fell before the march of population today when Battle Hill Park, at White Plains, was auctioned off for building lots. It was on this memorable ground, on October 28, 1776, that Washington, after detaching a garrison of 3000 men for the defense of Fort Washington, entered with the remainder of his force into a spirited action with the British under General Howe and lost nearly 400 of his men.

Lower Rate Demanded.

Mr. Koehler was asked whether or not the remarkable increase in the population of Portland since 1889 would tend to increase the earnings of the Southern Pacific in the Willamette valley, and thus give the public the benefit of a lower rate. He admitted that traffic had increased since that time greatly, but he thought this could be partly accounted for by the advanced efficiency of the road.

One of the points brought out at the investigation into class rates on the Southern Pacific by the state railroad commission was that notwithstanding the population of the Willamette valley increased in the past 20 years from three to five-fold, the rates are higher now than they were two decades ago. This was shown by a report of the O. R. & N. company made to a committee of the legislature in 1889.

The commission placed in evidence 11 exhibits, showing a comparison of class rates out of Omaha, Kansas City, St. Paul, Seattle and Salt Lake with those on the Southern Pacific.

MAY DAY AROUSES ANXIETY IN EUROPE

LONDON, April 30.—Owing to the unusual unrest in labor circles Europe is awaiting May day with more anxiety than has been the case in a number of years. The lockout of the building trades in Germany has aroused intense feeling throughout the empire. In Paris, the prefecture of police has taken extraordinary precautions to suppress disorders tomorrow. A dispatch from the French capital today says that no fewer than 20 regiments of infantry and dragons are quartered in the city in anticipation of trouble. Though the number of unemployed in London is larger than usual, no disturbances are expected here.

The institutions of the middle west also had a good representation, including Michigan, Illinois, Indiana and Kansas.
