WANT LIMITED PARCELS POST

President of Merchants' Association of New York Advocates Parcels Post in Rural Communities Rather Than in Cities.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—A parcels post at first, if not for all time, limited to packages originating in rural routes and destined for rural routes, was advocated before the house committee on postoffices and post roads by representatives of the Merchants Association of New York. Marcus M. Marks, president of the association favored limiting the parcels post to rural communities, because he feared that to extend it to cities would allow the large mail order houses to gain a monopoly on rural business and thus threaten the welfare of the country store which he considered essential to the growth of the village. He said also that the government had better go slow and try out the rural system before attempting the costly establishment of a parcels post in cities. In rural districts, he pointed out, the nucleus of the machinery already existed in the rural free delivery. He considers a raise of $300 a year a sufficient amount to cover the extra work to rural carriers. Beyond this there was little additional cost to be expected in the way of horses and wagons and he said that a thorough investigation had assured the members of the Merchants' Association that the venture would prove profitable to the postoffice department. The views held by Mr. Marks are all incorporated in the parcels post bill of Representative Bennett (Rep., N. Y.).

John M. Stahl, president of the Farmers' Congress, said that it was unfair that a Japanese in this country could send a package of ten pounds to Japan for $1.20 when an American would have to pay $1.60, even when the package was broken up into the mail limit of three-pound packages. He advocated either the zone system of charge or else an entire monopoly of the parcels carrying business by the government. The express company, he said, was almost exclusively an American institution as in nearly every other country in the world the government had a monopoly on this business.

BASEBALL NOTES

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 6.—The following changes in the positions of the coast league umpires on the baseball map may have been announced by President Thomas F. Graham: Finney leaves for Los Angeles at the end of the local series. McGroovy will journey to Sacramento, while Van Haltren and Hildebrand are to act as arbitrators on the grounds here.

The new changes are to be effective for a period of two weeks. Judge Graham stated this morning that there has been a lot of complaint about the manner in which Umpire Finney calls the strikes and balls so he has ordered the indicator man to practice on the vacant ground until he can make himself distinctly understood to the farthest bleacherite.

Ike Butler, the veteran pitcher who has been with the Los Angeles club for some time was handed his unconditional release yesterday by Manager Frank Dillon. Butler is expected to catch with one of the state league teams.

The Los Angeles has been materially crippled by the enforced absence of Curtis Bernard, the speedy outfielder, who was recently knocked out by a pitched ball. Bernard's all around work, especially his speedy base running has been an asset to the southern crew. Ross has been filling the vacant field.

One of the pleasing features of the Oaklanders has been the steady improvement of Catcher Mitze. The stocky back-stop was slow showing his real form, but now that he is in it is expected that he will add much strength to the Oaks line up.

Bage Danzig, the popular first sacker of the Senators, is to become an outlaw. Not perhaps in the same sense that Hal Chase, Henderson and a few more of the boys became outlaws, but an outlaw nevertheless. In other words he is to jump from the ranks of the staid bachelors into the company of the benedicts and sign a life contract which the little scout Cupid has tucked about his person.

This Year, In This City Want Advertising Will Build a Lot of New Business!

While it remains simply a PLAN, you needn't want-advertise it. But when you are ready to WORK OUT the plan, to "get it going," your want advertising campaign should have attention a-plenty. If your plan is good, want advertising will help you put life into it. There is a faulty adage that "The good die young." Here is a truer one: Good Plans, Not Well Advertised, Die Young. And, it may be added, they die while they're still PLANS before they are strong enough to walk—before they grow into businesses, into "going concerns." A lot of the business successes of one and two years hence are now PLANS. They will survive the plan-age chiefly because they will be well advertised—because their fosterers know how to make want advertising a pushing and helping force. You may make your plan one of the near-future business successes, if it's a good plan, and you're a good want advertiser.

Wortman, aye; Elfert, aye; Demmer, aye; Welsh, aye.
Approved, April 20, 1910.
W. H. CANON, Mayor.
Attest: ROBT. W. TELFER, City Recorder.
