OLD INDIAN FIGHTER AGAIN GOES BACK TO MOUNTAINS HE LOVES

John X. Miller Doesn't Like Old Soldiers' Home at Roseburg and So Comes Back to Mountain Home.

John X. Miller, one of the few of those who are left of the pioneers of '52, returned from Roseburg Friday and Saturday morning left for his homestead on Trail Creek.

John X. had gone to the soldiers' home at Roseburg, being an Indian war veteran, but the treatment accorded him did not coincide with his independent spirit and he left for his homestead in the mountains.

"I can live there all right," said the old man, "because I have lived in the mountains for the past fifty years. I'm getting pretty old and feeble but I'll be blown if any petty office holder can bluff me."

John X. Miller was one of the original owners of the Gold Hill pocket which produced $190,000 in a few months and created a furor all over the coast.

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS.

J. B. Welch came in on business from his ranch near Asbestos on Friday.

Mrs. J. M. Riggen of Derby spent the day in Central Point yesterday. Mrs. Riggen has many friends in the city, having successfully conducted a class in painting here last year.

Robert Ashworth visited with relatives and friends in Ashland on Friday, returning on the evening train.

The big "White Steamer," belonging to W. H. Noreross, has been in temporary retirement for the past week or two owing to some fault in the generator. That part of the machine was sent to San Francisco for repair and came back yesterday and Mr. Noreross and family will no longer be deprived of their accustomed outings.

Mrs. F. W. Lesmeister went to Gold Ray yesterday for the purpose of securing photographs of the dam and succeeded in getting some excellent negatives. She is making a remarkably fine collection of pictures from all over the valley.

Frank Hawk and T. R. Moore made a brief business visit to Medford on Thursday.

Charles Pruitt of Roxy Ann and Mrs. Howard who superintends his domestic affairs were in town on Friday transacting business with our local merchants.

S. A. Pattison and wife and little Misses Katherine and Dorothy spent Thursday afternoon in Medford.

Mrs. M. Elwood of Central Point returned on Thursday from a five weeks' visit with friends in Fresno, Cal. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Robert Long of Coldwater, Michigan, who has also been visiting at various points in California. Mrs. Long will spend a couple of weeks here before returning to her Michigan home.

Mrs. Isaac Williams shopped in Medford on Friday.

W. H. Ferguson is entertaining his mother and sister for a few days. Their home is in Medford.

William Welch who has been looking after things in Central Point for the past few weeks returned to Butte Falls which will be his headquarters for some time to come.

Inquiring for news on the streets Friday morning we were informed that the only recent event of importance was the partial demolition of Freeman & Wiley's wagon shed by Billy Ferguson's cow the night before. However, the owners of the wagon shed do not attribute the damage to any sinister motives on the part of the cow, but consider it, rather, as a well meaning but misdirected attempt to "boost."

G. S. Moore is remodeling the interior of his establishment and will soon have a very attractive ice parlor and refreshment room in the rear of his confectionery. This will render Central Point's hot weather equipments quite up to date.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crowe left on Tuesday for their new home at McMinville. They made many warm friends during their short stay in this city and the best wishes of all go with them.

JEFFRIES' FATHER SAYS JIM IS TRUE

Aged Minister Deplores Efforts of Ministers to Block Big Battle—Says Big Fellow Hates Hypocrisy.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 7.—The Rev. A. C. Jeffries, father of James J. Jeffries, retired heavyweight champion, is not in sympathy with the movement inaugurated by ministers throughout the country to prevent the Jeffries-Johnson fight.

On the other hand, he declares that if any protest against the battle is to be made, let it begin with "those who are consistent and who have cast the beam out of their own eyes." In a communication to a local evening paper, the Rev. Mr. Jeffries, while he does not approve of prize fighting, defends his stalwart son's ring activity. He is bitter against the ministers who are attacking the big fighter, and suggests that Jim may yet become a "champion of religion, and wage war against hypocrites."

Jim Hates Hypocrisy.

He said: "Jim hates hypocrisy. This is why he makes no religious profession. And when he does, I hope to see him still a champion, but the truth. "I hope to see him knock out all liars. These very religious progressives will then become his worst enemies. This is the fight for faith for which I myself am now training, and Christ is the manager."

Just a Story

I am from "Old New England," and not ashamed of the fact, but I am now a citizen of Oregon and am proud to say the Rogue River Valley is my home. And, to make it still better and give a more definite location, it is in the progressive city of Medford that I have "pitched my tent."

My native state is not the place to grow balloons, therefore I make use of no "hot air" in my talk. After two years' stay amid these protecting hills, I have concluded that the best thing to deal in was land, a thing that is limited in quantity and as it is always sought after is always rising in value.

I do not wish to get all the real estate business in Medford, but do desire my share.

Therefore, I respectfully invite you to call at my office and see if I have not got just what you are looking for at a price that won't strangle you. Truly yours, as usual,
