THE FINANCIAL WORLD.

New York.

NEW YORK, May 9.—The stock market opened strong today. The bulls are apparently in control of the market, determined not to allow the death of King Edward to bring on the predicted slump in values. The strong tone of the London exchange helped hold the American market steady.

Southern Pacific and United States Steel were the strongest of the leaders and large buying at a gain of one and a fraction was recorded. Other stocks had sympathetic tendencies and the stability of the London market did much to strengthen the New York exchange.

The market fluctuated throughout the morning, Reading, Union Pacific and St. Paul falling a point while American Hide and Leather rose 2. United States Steel, American Smelting and New York Central dropped fractions.

Bonds were irregular. The market closed strong.

London.

LONDON, May 9.—British financiers today both in the cotton and stock exchanges worked bravely to prevent the big falling off in values that was anticipated. As a result of their efforts exery stock listed showed gains of from a half point to a point and a half.

Business at the exchanges was very brisk. Stock offered by fanicky holders was snapped up as soon as it appeared on the market by the strong supporting buying the values were kept from slumping.

Brokers representing immense banking and business interests and American financiers had unlimited buying orders. The result was that the market ruled strong following the lead of Saturday's short session in the New York exchange.

British consols expected to show big declines because of the anti-German sentiment of King George, rose over Friday's close of 1 1/2.

DAUGHTER IS DROWNED.

Searchlight and the lights of the big power plant were turned on the river in an endeavor to pierce its dark depths and secure the bodies of the drowned girls.

At this point the North Umpqua is a very turbulent stream and within a short distance makes its junction with the South Umpqua. Should the bodies of the two girls have been swept over the dam it may be several days before they are recovered.

Fred Blakesly is well known in Medford as one of the owners of the Sterling mine and he was on his way here on business when a telegram announcing the death of his daughter caught him at Grants Pass and called him back.

JACK JOHNSON HITS LONG ROAD

Gives Natives a Shock by Actually Going Out for a Seven-Mile Jaunt—Comes in Perspiring, but Breathing Normally.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 9.—Jack Johnson gave the natives a shock this morning by actually going out on the road, marking his first work in his real preparation for his battle with Jeffries on July 4. Well bundled up, Johnson took to the road early, despite the drizzle, and reeled off about seven miles. He finished with a sprint, and when he went to the rubbing board he was perspiring profusely and his breathing was almost normal.

"A few more jogs like I had this morning and I'll be ready to do some boxing," said Johnson. "Even now my mind is in fine shape, but I want it to be better so that when I do start boxing I can show some speed."

After coming out of the rubbing-room Johnson made a dash for the breakfast table, and what he did to the food was a shame.

ALLEN SEES COMET.

writer phoned him for the minimum night temperature, he announced the discovery, but was told that he had surely seen Venus instead of the comet. However, when Mr. Allen insisted that he had seen them both and described minutely the place in the heavens where he had seen the comet, the writer, after referring to the American Nautical Almanac or Ephemeris and to the Ephemeris of Halley's comet, taken from the Astronomische Nachrichten, it was found that Mr. Allen had really discovered it. On the following morning the writer, with the aid of a small field glass, found the comet, but on account of a somewhat hazy atmosphere, the view was somewhat disappointing.

Comet Beautiful Sunday.

On Sunday morning the comet was a beautiful sight. At 3:35 a. m., standard time, when Venus arose, it was fully 20 degrees above the rugged eastern horizon. The comet's tail was very prominent and stood away to the southwest fully 10 degrees, or a little less than the angular distance between Venus and the nucleus. To those who desire to see the comet in the eastern skies before it disappears between the earth and sun on May 18, and to reappear in the western skies, the writer would suggest that advantage be taken of the next few mornings. Although the comet passed perihelion about April 19, it did not reach its greatest western elongation until yesterday. On the morning of the 9th (today) the star Gamma, in the constellation Pegasus, the planet Venus, and the comet have nearly the same right ascension and consequently are nearly in line, with the comet about 10 degrees north of Venus and nearly 5 degrees south of the star Gamma.

LORIMER MAY RESIGN PLACE IN U.S. SENATE

Charges Brought Against His Election in Illinois Is Worrying Him—May Ask Investigation by Senate Committee into Charges of Graft.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 9.—Although Senator William Lorimer declares he has no intention of resigning, it is thought possible that he will temporarily relinquish his seat and demand that the senate appoint a committee to investigate his election.

This action is predicted in political circles here following the indictments returned by the Cook county, Illinois, grand jury caused by the allegations of state representative Charles A. White that he had been paid to vote for Lorimer.

The grand jury at Springfield today is investigating the Lorimer election, beginning the second week of the present month. Other indictments, it is intimated, will be returned in Chicago. The whole affair has caused so much talk and notoriety, it is declared, that Lorimer is considering asking the senate to begin an investigation of its own in order that he may be vindicated.

Washington dispatches received here have repeatedly intimated that Lorimer would resign. Although the senator has refused to discuss the charges of bribery in connection with his election, further than to deny them and to declare he would not resign, it is known that he has been greatly worried over the affair and desires that the case may be thoroughly investigated.

Reports received from Washington say that a number of senatorial conferences have been held regarding the Lorimer matter. The senators, it is declared, have been considering the advisability of forcing Lorimer to resign and seek vindication before resuming his duties in the senate.

The friends of the senator here intimate that as a compromise the Chicago senator may retire from active duties pending the present investigation and secure investigation by the senate as well.

There is much speculation here as to who would be named should Lorimer be forced out. It is generally believed that Governor Deneen favors former Senator Hopkins, defeated for re-election at the last legislature on the ground that the people of Illinois nominated Hopkins at the primaries held before the senatorial election. Deneen was a staunch supporter of Hopkins and refused to become a candidate for the senate himself, although urged to do so by way of compromise during the long deadlocked session of the legislature that finally elected Lorimer.

King George V was formally proclaimed king of England at 9 o'clock this morning. The pomp of medieval ceremony was adhered to and the trappings of high officers of the kingdom who carried out the ceremony contrasted in a vivid manner with the sombre black in which the city is draped in memory of the late king.

Every person in the vast throng that heard the proclamation wore a badge of mourning. There were many wet eyes when the York Herald called for cheers for the king.

According to custom the proclamation and the officials who bore it wore no mourning. Flags were at full staff today in honor of the king but will be lowered to half mast tomorrow in memory of Edward.
