ENGLAND TO SEND BIG FLEET AROUND WORLD

WASHINGTON, May 10.—England will be the next country to assemble a battleship fleet for a trip around the world. The trip will not take place until autumn of next year. This will make it possible for the 26,000-ton battleship of the Princess Royal type—the largest in the world—to be at the head of the naval procession.

The boats will stop at various foreign ports, and the trip will consume two years. Two hundred ships of all classes will be included. About 15 submarines are to accompany the Dreadnoughts. This will be the first time in naval history that the little craft will be tested by the severe strain of ocean service. The fleet will be subdivided for visits to Chinese and Indian ports. At the conclusion of these visits the fleet will assemble in the Yellow sea, where long stops will be made in Japanese ports. Thence they will go to San Francisco.

THE WATER WAGON NOT ON A STRIKE

"The water wagon is not on a strike," said one Scott this morning. "It has simply quit because I could not make collections of the money due me. Former patrons refused to 'come through,' under the impression that the city was to do the sprinkling out hereafter, and as a consequence, out of $217 due for six weeks' work I collected $80. It didn't look good to me, and I quit. Didn't strike for more pay at all—just quit."

ENRAGED FATHER SHOOTS TO KILL; IS ARRESTED

SEATTLE, Wash., May 10.—Ethan A. Morrison, shot and severely wounded yesterday by Luke A. Miley, has an even chance for life the doctors at the general hospital say today.

Enraged at the sight of his wife and six-year-old son walking hand in hand with Morrison, Miley leaped from a street car, pulled an automatic revolver and fired at Morrison.

The latter dropped to the sidewalk with a bullet wound just below the left eye. Another bullet grazed the side of his head. Putting the revolver back in his pocket, Miley rushed up to his little boy and seized him in his arms and caressed him. The boy was still in his arms when a policeman came.

"I am the man who did the shooting, arrest me," said Miley, and he and the boy were put in a patrol wagon and taken to the police station while Morrison was hurried to a hospital.

SENATOR STONE CHARGES ABUSE FRANKING PRIVILEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 10.—Senator Stone of Missouri today introduced a resolution demanding that the senate investigate what he declared was a gross violation of the franking privileges. Stone declared that political matter is being sent through the mails without postage.

He mentioned particularly a book called "The Story of the Tariff." This, he said, had been widely circulated. "This book is purely a campaign document," the senator declared. "I have been told that it was compiled by the American Protective Tariff League of New York."

Senator Bacon of Georgia, speaking on the resolution, also referred to the "Story of the Tariff," saying that he had been grossly misquoted by its authors and compilers.

assault. Nothing is missing from the house to indicate robbery. The motive for the crime is a deep mystery.

Japanese employment bureaus have no record of having sent anyone to the Wilson home Saturday, but neighbors say they saw a strange Japanese man enter the house.

Mrs. Wilson was preparing the house for the return of her husband, who arrived yesterday from Hot Springs. While on his way home, Wilson met Mrs. Galland and together they went to the residence.

They found the house locked. Obtaining entrance, they found no trace of Mrs. Wilson and began a systematic search, which ended when they found her crumpled body in the packing house in the basement.

tee of the whole, in spite of the efforts of the regulars to have it killed, and it is understood that the insurgents will be able to secure enough Democratic votes to keep the amendment intact when final consideration is taken.

Taft's speech at Passaic, N. J., last night, in which he discussed the administration legislative program, is being discussed here today. The fact that he has given his virtual approval to the bill as it has been backed and slashed by the insurgents and Democrats are being quoted by the insurgents as presidential indorsement of their action.

CENTRAL POINT NEWSLETTER

Mrs. M. J. Frederick returned from her visit to Portland and other northern points on Sunday evening. E. J. Brown and wife of Medford registered at the Central Point hotel on Sunday.

C. J. Perry of San Francisco made this city a brief business visit on Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Mary Mee spent Sunday in Ashland, a guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Mee.

Mr. Faber, manager of the firm of Faber & McDonald, has enlisted the services of a new clerk, a measure made necessary by the demands of a business that is growing astonishingly. Mr. Faber believes in a liberal use of printers' ink and he has sprinkled it pretty thoroughly over Jackson county with excellent results.

Dr. E. J. Bonner and wife of Medford were in town Monday. Dr. Bonner is an eye and nerve specialist and has a number of patrons here. E. H. Maddux, who sold his orchard last week to L. H. Smith of Hood River, will give immediate possession of the property, and will remove his family to some point in the northern part of the state.

The Degree of Honor, at its meeting on Wednesday afternoon last week elected Mrs. J. E. Boswell as delegate to the grand lodge to convene in Portland in July. Mrs. Lorna Neff was elected alternate.

Mrs. W. D. Fry of Portland is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. W. Moon, of this city. J. H. Williams, father of Mrs. Fry and Mrs. Moon, ran down from Grants Pass to spend Sunday with his daughters, stopping also at the same home.

The Presbyterians have secured the temporary use of the lodge hall over Sam Moore's confectionery store and during the summer their Sunday services will probably be held there. A church edifice is being seriously considered by them, and now if some local John D. Rockefeller would step forward with a lot, the rest would be easy.

The contest between the Central Point Cubs and the Medford H. S. team Sunday afternoon was not exactly "one grand sweet song," considerable feeling being displayed on both sides during the course of the game. Roy Wilkinson, playing first base, got badly spiked by one of the Medford boys, and while the injury was a very painful one and a substitute had to be secured to take his place, the accident did not deter Central Point from getting the game, which at the close showed 14 to 4 in favor of the Cubs.

Miss Pearl Pankey, the young lady who fills your order so smilingly at the Central Point bakery, was ill the fore part of the week, and her place was filled by her sister, Miss Esther Pankey. Her illness, however, is not considered serious, and she will soon be at her accustomed duties.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall de Gez of Seattle are guests at the home of their son, Harry, a young orchardist of this locality. Mr. Hall de Gez will return in a day or two, while the mother will remain some weeks. The young bachelor housekeeper knows all about cooking, of course (?), but we venture to say that mother's pies and doughnuts will not go a-begging.

The residence being erected by W. A. Cowley is now nearly inclosed, and when completed will make one of the handsomest and most imposing homes in the city.

TERRIBLE CROP.

One Who Knows Recommends a Remedy to Anxious Mothers.

My little boy, who is four years old, has suffered a lot with croup. On several occasions we thought he was gone.

After trying all the old time remedies and most of the new, I came home one night at midnight, and my wife said: "The boy has the croup again—suppose you get a bottle of Hyomel." "More junk," I said, "but we will circulate our money so they all will get some."

I hastened to an all night drug store, brought it home. In five minutes he was breathing easier. In fifteen minutes he was sound asleep. It broke the croup so quickly it scared me.

Anyone wishing to cure the croup of a child I hope will give Hyomel a trial.

Wishing you the best of success, which you surely deserve, I remain, Jos. E. Clark, 204 6th St., S. E. Washington, D. C., Oct. 7, 1909.

Hyomel is a remarkably effective remedy in case of croup and it should be in every home where there is a croupy child. Full instructions how to cure croup comes with each outfit.

Complete Hyomel outfit including inhaler costs $1.00 at druggists everywhere and at Chas. Strang's. It is guaranteed to cure catarrh, coughs, colds and sore throat.
