DAMROSCH HERE SOON TO ENTERTAIN

New York Symphony Orchestra Is Noted Over Entire Country as the Most Marvelous Organization.

Walter Damrosch's appearance in our city May 16 with the New York Symphony Orchestra, brings naturally to mind the number of times which Mr. Damrosch has visited each city with his orchestra, as well as with opera, in the past.

The circumstances of this event were dramatic. Contracts had been made by Dr. Leopold Damrosch to take the opera company to Chicago, Boston and a few other places when the eminent conductor suddenly died.

The singers, as well as the directors, seemed to think that Walter Damrosch could carry out these contracts and finish the season; so in February, 1885, a copy of 23, he started out with an opera company of about 150 people on a Baltimore & Ohio train, bound for Chicago.

The company was to have arrived on Sunday evening, but a blizzard and other incidents stalled the train for hours, and it was 8:15 on Monday evening before the company arrived, tired and hungry. A huge audience had gathered at the Columbia theater at 8 o'clock to hear "Tannhauser." It was a little before 9 before the company reached the theater.

Scenery, costumes and properties were literally hurled onto the stage. The audience showed the greatest kindness and forbearance and waited patiently and good-naturedly until Damrosch raised the baton for the "Tannhauser" overture a little before 10 o'clock.

The confusion behind the scenes was beyond description. Costumes were found at last, scenery put in place and the performance went on amid great enthusiasm and without a mishap, the curtain falling on the final scene at 1:30 a. m.

The encouragement which Damrosch derived from this reception by the Chicago public was one of his great incentives and inspirations to further effort.

Sent sale for this great attraction will begin at Haskins' Friday at 10 a. m. First come, first served, as there will be no reservation.

This Year, In This City Want Advertising Will Build a Lot of New Business!

While it remains simply a PLAN, you needn't want-advertise it. But when you are ready to WORK OUT the plan, to "get it going," your want advertising campaign should have attention a-plenty.

If your plan is good, want advertising will help you put life into it. There is a faulty adage that "The good die young." Here is a truer one: Good Plans, Not Well Advertised, Die Young.

And, it may be added, they die while they're still PLANNED, before they are strong enough to walk—before they grow into businesses, into "going concerns."

A lot of the business successes of one and two years hence are now PLANS. They will survive the plan-age chiefly because they will be well advertised—because their fosterers know how to make want advertising a pushing and helping force.

You may make your plan one of the near-future business successes, if it's a good plan, and you're a good want advertiser.
