CLOSING HOURS OF HYDE TRIAL ARE STRENUOUS

Attorneys Wage Bitter War on Each Other During the Final Arguments—Case Will Probably Go to the Jury Tonight.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 12.—The closing hours of the Hyde murder trial were marked today by displays of bitterness between attorneys for prosecution and defense. The acrimony shown by the state's attorneys caused Judge Latschaw to caution them.

Assistant District Attorney Joost was summing up a portion of the evidence. In the course of his impassioned speech he said:

"When the defendant laid his murderous hand on the medicine—Attorney Walsh for Dr. Hyde sprang to his feet in excitement and voiced a strenuous objection.

Judge Latschaw ended a wrangle between the opposing counsel by cautioning the attorneys not to use opprobrious adjectives in the course of their arguments.

Attorney Walsh today began closing the case for the defense. He will be followed by two speakers for the defense and two others for the prosecution before the court begins his charge to the jury.

COMMUNICATIONS.

To the Editor:

On last Saturday morning, while asleep in his tent, A. Wines of Medford, Or., was attacked by a man named Rodgers and dragged from his bed and horribly beaten and kicked. After striking him in the head with steel knuckles and knocking him senseless he dragged him outside the tent and kicked him in the right side, leaving him for dead.

After laying in an unconscious state for about two hours, Mr. Wines revived, and, finding himself so chilled he could not walk, crawled into another man's tent until daylight, after which he walked to the hospital, weak and exhausted from loss of blood.

Mr. Wines had warned a young man by the name of McKay to have nothing to do with Rodgers, as he would get him into trouble. This had been told to Rogers. After getting a man named Nolan to ask Mr. Wines if he had a revolver to trade, and finding he had none, he went down to Gold Hill on Friday night and danced and caroused until the after part of the night, when he filled up on whisky, as was his custom, and went back to camp in a drunken condition and committed the cowardly deed, afterward boasting of what he had done. Sheriff Jones was sent for and arrested him, and afterward B. F. Mulkey, the prosecuting attorney, arrived. Afterward the two above-named gentlemen and a few others prominent in a fraternal order of which Rodgers was a member, gave him a secret hearing. He was fined $50 and turned loose. Mr. Wines is still lying in the hospital in a dangerous condition.

It is a disgrace and an insult to the decent people of Gold Hill and Oregon that there is no law to protect an honest, peaceable, law-abiding man. A murderous assailant is running at large while his innocent victim is lying in a hospital in a dangerous condition.

MRS. A. WINES, Gold Hill, Or., May 11.

WON PRIZE AT CHICAGO'S EXP'N

Twenty-Ounce Pippins From Eagle Point Orchard Captured Award at World's Fair Seventeen Years Ago—Purchasers Pleased.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Nuding left Thursday for Eagle Park, near Brownsboro, where they will spend the summer.

The doctor recently purchased this orchard and ranch of 300 acres, one of the most beautifully located in the valley. It is perhaps not generally known that 20-ounce pippin apples from this family orchard took first prize at the Chicago World's Fair seventeen years ago, when Rogue River valley was scarcely known outside of the state.

Eagle Park practically corners with the Bradshaw orchard; is within two miles of the famous Tronson & Guthrie orchard and on the tract adjoining is the largest apple tree in Oregon.

Doctor Nuding came here last fall, from Ohio, and is very optimistic as to the future of Medford and the Rogue River valley. He said:

"While I came from one of the best states in the Union, with its vast resources in agricultural products—coal, iron, petroleum and manufactured goods, and with a worldwide reputation for raising presidential timber, when it comes to climate, scenic beauty, fruit, timber and precious metals, etc., Ohio isn't in it.

"If the people generally knew the Utopia conditions in this valley, with its climatic advantages and opportunities for safe and profitable investments, in five years this valley would be densely populated, Medford a large city and the valley the largest fruit section on the continent. As it is, they are coming in daily and a more wide awake, intelligent and progressive people are not to be found anywhere."

CELESTIAL HOBO VIEWED.

Briefly the following table holds good for the comet to May 17 inclusive unless it fails to report for work:

Oregon and Washington—May 15, 2:42; May 16, 3:02; May 17, 3:26.

The comet crosses the sun's disk on May 18 and is invisible because it is outclassed by the sun in the matter of brilliancy. May 19 the comet become an evening star but goes early to bed and is hardly seen because of spring twilight.

Setting time: Oregon and Washington—May 19, 8:14 p. m.; May 20, 9:15 p. m.

From May 21, to about 28, the comet, if it does not slam us, will be visible long after sunset and will be a gorgeous spectacle. It hurries on its way, however, to play with little Mercury and charming Venus and fades from view except to those owning Lick telescopes, around May 29.

LAST CHAPTER WRITTEN IN LIFE OF M'CARTHY

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 12.—The last chapter in the death of Tommy McCarthy, prize fighter, who met his death in his bout with Owen Moran in this city April 29, came when Police Judge Conlan dismissed the manslaughter charges against Moran and the seconds who were in the ring on the night of the fight.

STOMACH DEAD MAN STILL LIVES

People who suffer from sour stomach, fermentation of food, distress after eating and indigestion, and seek relief in large chunks of artificial digestors, are killing their stomachs by inaction just as surely as the victim of morphine is deadening and injuring beyond repair every nerve in his body.

What the stomach of every sufferer from indigestion needs is a good prescription that will build up his stomach, put strength, energy and elasticity into it, and make it sturdy enough to digest a hearty meal without artificial aid.

The best prescription for indigestion ever written is sold by druggists everywhere and by Chas. Strang and is rigidly guaranteed to build up the stomach and cure indigestion, or money back.

This prescription is named Mi-on-an, and is sold in small tablet form in large boxes for only 50 cents. Remember the name, Mi-on-an stomach tablets. They never fail. They contain ingredients that give quick relief (other than strong digestors), but they are compounded for the purpose of making the stomach strong and energetic enough to do its work without the aid of harmful drugs.

OLIVER TALKS ON NEED OF HELL

Without a Hell, the Good and Pure Would Have to Mix With the Evil and Impure—Without a Law the Murderer Would Run at Large.

Dr. Oliver took as his text Psalms 68:1, "Let God arise, let His enemies be scattered." The subject upon which he spoke was, "The Necessity of Hell."

The Purpose of Law.

Dr. Oliver said in part: "Law is for the preservation of the right, the protection of the weak against the strong, the promotion of justice between man and man, in short, the bringing to pass of the best interests of the race. To the man who does right there is no restraint of liberty, but to the wrongdoer there comes the stern command of God, 'Thou shalt not.'"

"Paul, the apostle, in writing to the Romans, says of the one in power for the execution of law: 'If thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain; for he is a minister of God, an avenger for wrath to him that doeth evil.' What we need today is patriotism for the right. Over every school house in our broad land floats the Stars and Stripes, the emblem of our nation. This is altogether proper; for the man who loves the flag will love the nation back of the flag; and the man who loves the nation will reverse and respect the laws of the nation. An enemy to God is an enemy to the race.

"The men who debauch their fellow men with drink, the moral rakes who have no respect for purity, the red-handed murderer are all the enemies of God and our great nation. Moral man, until you give your heart to Christ, you stand on unredeemed territory; get over the line on God's side and humanity's side. Law demands that crime be punished. It is impossible for God to take the licentious, the d d bauched and the murderer and shut them up eternally with the just. There is as great necessity for hell as there is for heaven. May God help us to see things as they are. 'Let God arise, let His enemies be scattered.'"

The Ordinance.

The ordinance passed in January, 1910 by the city council of Medford making it a crime punishable by a fine and imprisonment for a minor to go into the licensed saloon was referred to by Dr. Oliver as intended to make a minor incriminate himself if he tells the truth.

"The purpose of the law is to give protection to the saloon and not to the boys of the community."

A Woman's Story. Dr. Oliver said: "A woman of a respectable family and the wife of one of your fellow citizens, came to me today and said that at Gold Hill her husband had been assaulted by a drunken rake in the night and beaten and kicked almost to death, and that he was now in the hospital in a critical condition. The man who did the deed was at large, having had a small fine imposed upon him, and that he was being shielded by a lodge.

"To let a man go at large who has made a murderous assault upon his fellow man is a disgrace to the law and to the citizenship of Oregon. God Help us to respect life, and law in our land.

The Situation.

"We cannot be indifferent to crime. We cannot make right wrong nor wrong right. God cannot treat sin with indifference and the sinner must go with the condemnation of the sin if he will not forsake it. Neighbor, get right with God. 'Let God arise, let His enemies be scattered,' and let Medford have a clean city, adorned with clean manhood and womanhood."

A big meeting is planned for tonight. The people are interested.

Mrs. Ross Painter went to Medford on Wednesday to visit her mother, Mrs. C. M. Cox, for a week or so.

Mrs. Drucilla Mee of Applegate is in the city the guest of her daughters, Miss Mary Mee and Mrs. Emma Bebb.

Work has been resumed on the Whiteside-Childers building. Lack of proper material for foundation has caused a delay but the work will, from this time on, move forward rapidly.

Water pipes are now being distributed along the streets where they will be laid, the big steam ditcher is putting in full time and the crew of men under Mr. Bades' direction is making every hour count. Even the most confirmed and bilious kicker, can no longer blink the fact that the Central Point is going to have city water right speedily.

Mrs. Maud Baker is ill at the home of her mother with what appears to be a nervous breakdown. Mrs. Baker has been for some time assisting at the Nash restaurant and confectionery.

Miss Esther Merritt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Merritt, will complete her first school year in Berkeley, Cal., next Friday. Before returning to her home in Central Point she will accompany Miss Isabel Curtis, a school friend, to Sacramento for a two weeks' visit. Miss Curtis is a daughter of the senior member of the well known wholesale firm of Curtis & Wood of Sacramento and is a social favorite in the most exclusive circles of that charming city. We are informed that she will accompany Miss Esther to Central Point for a visit, and some delightful little "affairs" are being planned in her honor.

Clarence Post of Caldwell, Idaho, reached here on Wednesday and is at present stopping with the family of H. J. Stewart. He likes the looks of the Rogue River valley and intends to remain.
