SOME OF THE ODDITIES FOUND IN THE WIRE NEWS OF THE DAY

Illinois Suffragettes to Make a "Whizz" Campaign—New York Hens Laying Black Eggs—Woman Has Had Her Shroud Ready 68 Years—Takes Chilly Ride to Baptism—Breaks Ankle and Record.

CHICAGO, May 12.—Handbills of women suffragists in automobiles will descend on every city, town, village and hamlet in Illinois before the legislative primaries next September. The suffragists are determined to make "votes for women" a leading issue in the campaign and to render very unhappy those candidates who would deny them the ballot.

Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCullough, justice of the peace, lawyer and leading suffragette, said today: "We plan to have five women in each party—a matron as chaperon, a college girl, a working girl, a singer to draw the crowd, and a woman lawyer. We will go into a town, get a permit to speak, hold meetings in two or three different places and present our cause to the voters."

Every woman who sympathizes with the cause whose husband owns an auto will be asked to lend the auto for the whizzing campaign. While it lasts the husbands can walk, of course.

contain particles of coal dust. Experiments are now being made to determine their value as fuel. Dedrick has several of the hens setting. He has signs in his henery: "No smoking." "Do not strike matches here."

Broke Ankle and Record.
CHICAGO, May 12.—Mrs. Sarah D. Clarke, a retiring little woman, broke a record of 16 years when she fractured her ankle and had to stay away from the Pacific Garden mission. For 6900 successive nights she has attended the mission, devoting her energies to reclaiming boys and young men. Besides her efforts for young men, she has established a home for homeless girls.

"The physical pain I endure," said Mrs. Clarke, "is not as great as the worry of my absence from the mission and the girls' home. I have never left Chicago for one night during 16 years and 4 months. Every night during that time I have passed at the mission."

Her Shroud Ready 68 Years.
WABASH, Ind., May 12.—Mrs. Eva Semon, 95 years old, was recently buried in a shroud which she prepared for her funeral 68 years ago. She was a pious woman. The shroud looked as good as new.

Knocked Out by Cupid.
SAN MATEO, Cal., May 12.—David Caldwell and Otto George, freshmen in the high school, were in love with the same girl. To decide who should claim her they stripped to the waist and fought with bare knuckles today in the school basement. Caldwell knocked out George in the eighth round and the vanquished did not recover consciousness for several minutes, but he has challenged Caldwell to another combat Saturday.

Chilly Ride to Cold Baptism.
WINSTED, Conn., May 12.—Mr. and Mrs. William F. Johnston were shivering even before they were baptized as Adventists by immersion in the Blackberry river today. The couple, scantily clad, were driven from their home to the river by Henry Wessott, who weighs 250 pounds. Under the combined weight the horse crawled; the Johnstons were chilled through. The Rev. F. Andrews of Providence baptized them. All the village of East Canaan looked on.

A Jersey Eel Story.
NEW YORK, May 12.—Frank Tomski of Bloomfield, N. J., swore out a warrant yesterday for the arrest of John Fritz.

Tomski says while he was fishing in the Morris canal Fritz pushed him into the water.

This happened, Tomski says, just as he was hauling in a big eel. The fish struck him in the face as he was falling and almost blinded him. Then the unhappy man got entangled in the line and the hook caught in his thumb. When he got out of the water he found the eel in his coat pocket.

Hens May Lay Felt.
NORWICH, N. Y., May 12.—By sprinkling fine coal dust in their food, Frank J. Dedrick of Oxford has developed a breed of hens which lay black eggs. The shells have been analyzed and are found to

WOMAN FLEES FROM CONSTABLE WITH PAPERS
OAKLAND, Cal., May 12.—Constable Weigle doesn't want totty to try to serve any more summonses on Mrs. Louise Coward. Weigle returned to Justice Quinn's court after the first attempt and reported that the woman had climbed to the top of a water tank in her back yard, closed the trap door so he couldn't follow and then shouted to him that she would stay up there a month rather than be served with the papers.

The summons was issued to compel Mrs. Coward to appear in court and show why a judgment of $71.25 awarded to Dr. James A. Blunkett, a dentist, in October, 1904, had not been paid.

When Weigle appeared at Mrs. Coward's residence he was compelled to make known his mission through a closed door. A minute later he heard retreating footsteps and a flutter of skirts and suspected that Mrs. Coward was going to leave by way of the rear door.

Dated at Jacksonville, Or., this 7th day of May, 1910.

UNCLE SAM PASSING OUT CHECKS TO CHEROKEES

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Distribution of the $5,000,000 recently appropriated by congress in settlement of the claim of the Cherokee Indians was begun by the treasury department the other day. It involves drawing 30,850 treasury warrants. Each claimant will get about $133. The warrants are being signed and issued at the rate of 1000 a day, so that the distribution will occupy the whole of the present month.

The claim dates back to the beginning of last century. Originally its amount was only $1700. The amount which the government is now paying to the Indians is four-fifths interest on the original claim. Of the persons who will get the money, it is said that 23,000 live west of the Mississippi river.

99 Per Cent of the Real Bargains

Go To Those Who Read Ads

You can't afford to align yourself with the one-chance-in-a-hundred people—with those who "haven't time" to read ads, and who, therefore, spend hours of useless "looking" for the bargain, to which the advertiser has found the straight road!

The "100th person" who finds a genuine bargain that was not advertised, may succeed now and then. All of the "99," who read and answer ads, may find real bargains—BUYING OPPORTUNITIES. So that bargain-hunting and bargain-offering adjust themselves to this law.

Ninety-nine per cent of the bargain-hunters being ad-readers, 99 per cent of the bargain-offers are advertisers! And—not less important—99 per cent of the real bargain offers made by advertisers in this paper are "accepted" by the value-knowing readers of this paper!

CLASSIFIED ADS—ONE CENT A WORD.
