GREAT DISPLAY OF SCHOOL WORK

Domestic Art Classes of Public Schools Have Great Display in Windows of Deuel & Kentner—Is Really Good.

(MISS GENEVIEVE WORTMAN.)
The domestic art classes of the Medford public schools have an interesting exhibit in Kentner & Co.'s show window. The girls have made the smaller garments wholly by hand, and they show careful work and good teaching. Members of the freshmen art class made a complete shirt waist suit. The girls deserve high praise for their neatness. Their cooking as well as serving gives evidence that the addition of this course to the schools was the right move.

ARTS AND CRAFTS

(MRS. H. C. STODDARD.)
Why not establish a summer school in Medford, where various sorts of handicraft might be taught? With the unusual array of local talent in this valley and the great number of people who are interested in the subject of handicrafts, such a school, or even a permanent one, should thrive.
Those who have seen the beautiful jewelry carved out of solid blocks of silver by Miss Spink, who was for five years a student at Pratt institute, or who have observed the beautiful tooled leather handbags, lamp mats, magazine covers, etc., done by Mrs. Root at her country home near Jacksonville and on display at the Medford book store; or who are familiar with the work of Miss Margaret Hubbard or the beautiful china painting of Mrs. H. E. Morrison, or the exquisite needlework of many Medford ladies can not doubt that this valley is favored with unusual talent. While the public in general is awakening to an appreciation of the real beauty of things made by hand, and evincing a corresponding distaste for things artificial.

A lady may not be a success as an editor but any lady can run an Overland automobile. It's the simplest car in the market.

A woman is driving an Overland from New York to San Francisco. It's easy with an Overland. Cars on exhibition, Medford Auto Co., opposite Opera House.

If you have beauty, come; I'll take it. If you have none, come; I'll make it. H. C. Mahey, 7th and Central.
