FAGAN-HAGAN FIGHT IS STOPPED BY SHERIFF

REDWOOD CITY, Cal., May 23.—Eddie Fagan's head scarcely had hit the padded stage of Coffroth's Mission Arena today before Sheriff Chatham and his deputies had jumped into the ring and placed the principals and James W. Coffroth, promoter of the Fagan-Hagan twenty-five round bout under arrest. The fight was planned by Coffroth to provide material for a test of the state law governing boxing matches.

The fight had gone only a few moments when "Red" Hazen felled his opponent with a stiff right. District Attorney Bullock, who was present with perhaps a dozen spectators signalled to the sheriff and the officials interfered.

Shortly after Seyler's arrest the police attempted to extort a confession through the "third degree," but their methods aroused such a storm of protest that the United States senate determined to investigate police methods in questioning accused persons.

The prosecution charges that Orvis Seyler, a brother of the accused man, took Jane Adams and her sister, Alice, to a dance at Youngs Pier, Atlantic City, on the night of February 4. William met them and the four walked out on the pier.

Alice became frightened at the darkness and made Orvis escort her back to the hall. William is alleged to have called out that he and Jane would follow soon. The girl's body, bruised and frozen, was taken from the water February 13.

Hundreds of spectators from Atlantic City came today on special trains to attend the opening of the trial. Prosecutor Clarence Goldenburg will represent the state and Attorney Edmund C. Gaskill, Jr., the defendant.

Inspector looks up routes which is run out of Medford west to Jacksonville and then north to Central Point and return. Announcement is expected in a few days.

Assistant Postmaster Ralph Woodford is working at present upon the proposed Eagle Point rural route, but he states that several roads will have to be created before such a route will be established.

Mr. Woodford states that he is having considerable trouble with people who are under the impression that the two-cent rate of postage applies to more European countries than it does. Consequently a great many letters to foreign countries are being forwarded to their destination with double the deficiency collection upon delivery. The two-cent rate applies only to England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales and Germany.

Preparations have been made to receive several thousand visitors, and it is confidently expected that there will be the largest crowd ever assembled in our little mountain town.

Through the courtesy of the Bohemian club of San Francisco, the Golden Gate quartet, composed of Harry Perry, Carl Anderson, Frank Onslow, J. de Teller, will head the program.

Hon. H. A. Melvin, one of the supreme court judges, will give the 11 o'clock toast.

LONDON, May 23.—England is pining to send the greatest fleet of warships ever assembled to her colonies in Southern and Far Eastern waters and up the Pacific Coast to Vancouver.

The armada will consist of fully 200 battleships, armored cruisers, gunboats, torpedo boats and destroyers. It is said the main object of the cruise is to give the British colonies the spirit of imperialism.

Although plans for the tour have been under discussion at the admiralty office for several months it was not until May 4 that a decision was reached to dispatch the fleet on its cruise. The subject has since been kept a secret.

The fleet will first go to Gibraltar, then to the New South African federation, India and Australia. Several Chinese ports will be visited by subdivisions of the armada, which will then reassemble, visit Japan and head across the Pacific to San Francisco, and then sail Northward. The cruise will take place in 1911.

SEYLER MURDER TRIAL COMMENCES

Accused of Having Thrown Girl Into Sea After Assault—Third Degree Methods Invoked Congressional Inquiry.

MAYS LANDING, N. Y., May 23.—William Seyler, charged with the murder of his alleged sweetheart, Jane Adams, at Atlantic City, February 4, was placed on trial before Judge Thomas Trinchard today.

The case has attracted considerable attention because of its dramatic and legal features, and it is believed that the selection of a jury will be difficult.

Shortly after Seyler's arrest the police attempted to extort a confession through the "third degree," but their methods aroused such a storm of protest that the United States senate determined to investigate police methods in questioning accused persons.

The prosecution charges that Orvis Seyler, a brother of the accused man, took Jane Adams and her sister, Alice, to a dance at Youngs Pier, Atlantic City, on the night of February 4. William met them and the four walked out on the pier.

their preparations and get guards stationed. The two fires were both on Ashland creek.

Mr. Erickson has placed the following men:

W. C. Fruit, assistant ranger, Hut-ton.

H. G. Whitney, assistant ranger, Thompson creek.

J. S. Stimmerkille, assistant ranger, Dead Indian.

Herbert Peachy, guard, Big Elk.

E. S. Kerby, guard, Middle Fork Rogue.

Henry Koontz, guard, Brown's cabin.

An additional force of men are clearing trails and repairing telephone lines. Within two weeks the force will be organized.

Mr. Erickson holds an enviable record in forestry circles in the great reduction he brought about in the total fire loss each year in the Crater forest, and it is evident that he intends to keep his record intact.
