

NATATORIUM BUYS JOHNSON PROPERTY

Pays $10,000 to Enlarge Grounds and Provide General Entrance to Park on South Side.

The Medford Natatorium & Amusement company has purchased the brick house of Carrie J. Johnson on Riverside avenue, paying $10,000. This will allow the company to make the general entrance to the park on the south instead of on the north side of the house.

Work is rapidly progressing on the new Natatorium and it is believed that by July 1 it will be ready to throw open to the public. A huge heating plant and two cars of lumber arrived Tuesday for the company.

THE OLIVER MEETINGS

Another stormy evening greeted the audience that assembled at the tabernacle last night. The gentle pattering of the rain on the roof mingled with the voices of the splendid choir and the musical instruments made rare music, indeed, reminding one of what John, the revelator, heard on the Isle of Patmos.

Dr. Oliver took his text from the sixth chapter of Isaiah. He dwelt largely on the subject of repentance and explained in detail the meaning of the term. Repentance is not simply sorrow, as some seem to think. The culprit is usually sorry when he has been overtaken by the officer and punished for his crime. There will be sorrow, plenty of it, at the day of judgment, but it will not be evangelical repentance. Neither is remorse repentance. Many a drunken wretch and profligate wreck is haunted by the demon of remorse from day to day and yet continue on in their sin and in their life of self-destruction. No one has truly repented until he has confessed and forsaken his sin.

When the lips of the prophet had been touched with the live coal from the altar and his iniquity had been taken away and his sin pardoned, he heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" The prophet answered, "Here am I; send me." No sooner does one turn from his sin and find peace and pardon than he hears the voice of God calling him to a life of service. As soon as the prophet heard that a messenger was wanted he immediately responded, "Here am I; send me." The Lord wants volunteers in his service. The volunteer usually makes the best soldier. If every soldier of Jesus Christ was always ready for action...

duty the church would march forward to the speedy conquest of this world, "as fair as the moon, as bright as the sun and as terrible as an army with banners."

Services were announced for every afternoon and evening of this week. On Saturday at 2:30 will occur the farewell service to women only, and on Sunday at 3 p. m. the farewell message to men only will be given. Sunday night will be the closing service of the campaign. The subject will be "The Unpardonable Sin."
