

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS
By A. C. Howlett

Earl Resceland and R. P. Bailey are at work repairing the telephone line between Butte Falls and Central Point via Eagle Point.

Miss Maggie Daley has been installed as hello girl at this point.

Since my last, which was sent by Friday's mail, I have spent a few days in the vicinity of Trall. As was announced in the Mail Tribune, Rev. M. C. Davis and myself held an all day meeting at the Central school-house and had services on Saturday night. The congregation was good and the people seemed to appreciate the preaching and Sunday school exercises.

I noticed a decided improvement in the county roads along the route. The crops are looking fine. While I was up in that region I had the pleasure of meeting some of my old time friends. Among them was Joseph Hannah, an old timer, Jack Huston and family and his father and Mrs. Huston's father, E. Hammond. When we compared ages we found that the sum of them was 246 years, or an average of 82 years. I also met W. P. Morgan and wife, old pioneers of Central Point, and they are near the octogenarian line. Jackson county must be a good place to find old people.

James Ringer is engaged in painting P. H. Daly's house.

M. M. Hamlin, recently from Washington, came in and engaged a room at the Sunnyside Monday, waiting for Jud Edsall to come out from the surveyors' camp at Fish Lake to take him out to the camp. He is a civil engineer and is going to work on the survey for the P. & E. railroad.

Mrs. F. M. Thompson sends with this issue a card of thanks to her friends and neighbors for their kindness during her affliction in the loss of her husband recently.

A. B. Zimmerman comes out with another advertisement calling attention to a number of tracts of land he has for sale, in and end outside of the town of Eagle Point.

Jesse Fredenburg of Butte Falls has been hauling out a lot of shakes for the Sunnyside hotel to cover a new barn.

Scott Claspill and wife and Miss Lottie Peters were guests at the Sunnyside Sunday and Monday nights. They came out from their homes in Butte Falls to replenish their stock of goods.

B. F. C. Edmondson came out Sunday for two spools of wire rope for the Butte Falls mill.

George H. West, one of the forest rangers, came out Saturday to visit his family, returning on Sunday to his camp near the headwaters of Big Butte.

Gus Rosenstahl is engaged digging a well for Professor P. H. Daly. Thomas Abbott is helping him.

John McIntyre brought out a load of lumber from Hawk's mill last Monday for Mr. Wilson.

W. B. Chance, deputy commissioner and factory inspector, called on us Tuesday while on his way to Butte Falls to inspect lumber mills.

Edward Welch and Sam Rollens called for early dinner Tuesday while on their way to the Big Butte country to select a location for a sawmill. Mr. Welch informs me that they, his father, J. B. Welch, and his brother, intend to move at least one of their mills up onto the railroad right of way near Butte Falls.

George Garret, wife and family and Attorney Phipps and wife came out last Sunday to visit Mrs. Howlett and the ladies. Mesdames Garret and Phipps are two of our old neighbor girls (nee Frances and Clara Rader), having been raised near this place.

Israel Patten, who recently moved to Butte Falls, came out Tuesday night and stopped with us over night.

There is a Wonderful Difference between the light afforded by an ordinary carbon incandescent and the brilliancy of our new General Electric MAZDA lamp. The latter radiates two and one-half times as much light with the same amount of electric current.

A 40-Watt MAZDA Affords Twice the Light of the 50-watt carbon lamp now in general use and costs one-fifth less to burn. We recommend its use to our customers as it more than cuts their light bills in two, making electric light so inexpensive that no home, however humble, and no store, however small, can afford to be without it.

Ask us to show you the new General Electric MAZDA lamps and clusters.
