LYNCHERS FEAR MOB VIOLENCE

Guards With Rifles Protect Men Accused of Stringing Up Ollie Snyder at Prairie City Last Christmas—Trial Begins Today.

PRAIRIE CITY, Or., May 26.—Fearing that mob violence might be attempted on the persons of five men who go on trial today for the lynching of Ollie Snyder here last Christmas, armed deputy sheriffs guarded the county jail at Canyon City during the night. Several guards with loaded rifles are on duty in the sheriff's office to protect the prisoners. The men charged with being responsible for Snyder's death are Deputy Sheriff Joe Casaday, Emmett and Earl Shields, Ben Hinton and Bert Green. The charge will be murder in the first degree. A special jury list of 100 names has been drawn, but this undoubtedly will be inadequate if each of the defendants demands a separate trial.
