PLANNING FAT STOCK SHOW

Beef Cattle, Sheep, Hogs and Draft Horses Constitute Classes—Summary of Market Conditions at Portland—Strong Selling Market.

PORTLAND, June 4.—"North Portland" is the postoffice address of the Union Stockyards company, the various commission firms doing business here, and Portland Livestock Reporter. The postoffice is located in the exchange building at the stockyards.

Plans are under way looking to the giving of a fat stock show in March, 1911. Beef cattle, fat sheep, hogs and draft horses in harness will constitute the classes. Save out something good for this show—it will be worth while.

Receipts at this market for the month of May were 7452 cattle, 18,052 sheep, 10,057 hogs and 152 horses. As compared with the receipts of a year ago, there was an increase of 1430 cattle, 7139 hogs, 5073 sheep. There has been a decline in prices all along the line, but it has been slight, and compared with the central markets on the Missouri river, North Portland shows up to a big advantage.

Cattle have gone off 50 to 75 cents during the month. The bulk of the supplies have been from California points, and the quality has been good. It has been a seller's market and buyers have had to pay stronger prices than would have prevailed if quantity or quality had permitted.

The sheep market was fairly steady at the end of the month at the heavy decline that took place in the beginning days. There was a feeling of uncertainty as to sheep values, but prices were tobogganed about $2 per hundred, and at this writing price and demand are steady.

The hog market is slower in comparison, but the demand is brisk, and while prices are off 15 to 25 cents, this market is $1 to $1.25 higher than Omaha. Livestock shippers of this country can be congratulated on the general strength of their market at North Portland.

The market has grown in strength each day since it opened for business, and the system of grading livestock, selling on a fill instead of a shrink, and the competition afforded by the presence of a number of regular buyers, have met with the approval of a great majority of the livestock shippers of the Pacific Northwest.

The business of swine-raising has received a great impetus since the establishment of this market, and all over Oregon, Washington and Idaho the farmers are realizing that their best possible opportunity for money-making lies in an increased production of hogs. Field peas, root crops, milo maize, kaffir corn and other forage crops are coming in for attention and the assurance that for years the supply cannot catch up with the demand is a great incentive.

CENTRAL POINT NEWSLETTER

Sam Holt, the proprietor of the Central Point hotel, made a business trip to Medford on Friday.

J. J. Gay has gone up to Big Butte for a two weeks' vacation. He plans to spend most of his time fishing and will have the fisherman's usual stock of stories to tell when he returns.

Mrs. Simpkins and her sister, Miss Frances Shields, went to Medford on Thursday, returning in the evening.

S. A. Pattison, wife and three children went to Portland on Thursday evening for a visit of a week or two. They may remain for the rose show.

John McHenry, who was so terribly injured here several weeks ago by being thrown from his buggy by a runaway horse, and was afterward removed to the Medford hospital, is to be placed in the hands of San Francisco medical experts. The man's injury was such that he has been absolutely paralyzed from the neck down to the feet ever since, the back having been practically broken. Last Wednesday the father of the afflicted young man arrived from San Francisco and, receiving the assurance that such cases had been cured, immediately made arrangements to have his son removed to that city and placed in the care of specialists. He was accordingly removed from the Medford hospital Thursday afternoon and placed on board the train for San Francisco.

David Grim is having a cement retaining wall and cement steps put in front of his home property on Pine street, in addition to the sidewalk that he, in company with the other property-owners in that block, are having laid in front of their residences.

Rev. M. E. Coen and family of Woodville moved into town on Friday and will occupy Mrs. N. P. Thompson's house, in the north part of the city. Rev. Coen is pastor of the Presbyterian denomination in Central Point, and his presence here will enable him to give more attention to the interests of the recently organized church than he could otherwise do.

C. W. Jeffers went to Roseburg Friday morning to file on his timber claim up in the Big Butte territory. Friday evening J. E. Boswell, Will Scott and E. E. Emmerson went to Roseburg on a similar errand. J. H. Downing intended to accompany them to file on his own land, but was detained on account of a slight illness and will make the trip at another time.

Central Point has a young live attorney in the person of Charles E. Walker, who arrived here from Louisville, Ky., last Sunday. Mr. Walker has located, intending to remain, his present headquarters being in the same building as the Globe office, old Freeman & Wiley building.

He professes himself pleased with the appearance of Central Point and favorably impressed with her people, and it is to be hoped that he will find it to his interest to take root here and build up with the town.

Rev. Johnson preaches another sermon to "men only" on Sunday afternoon. The meeting on last Sunday was attended by a very large proportion of the men of Central Point and vicinity, and the evangelist called them to account for their sins in no uncertain language. Although Mr. Johnson is a man of pronounced views and expresses his opinions with absolute fearlessness, he has thus far made no enemies. He does not deal in personalities, but he hates shams and hypocrisies and he has a dozen different ways of showing his contempt for empty social forms and for the silly votaries who worship at that gilded shrine—society. He is no less scathing in his rebuke of that other large class of people who call themselves children of God, but don't show any family resemblance.

Mrs. Belle Pleasant will spend Sunday in Ashland with her daughter, Mrs. Emil Brophy.

The completion of the water system is being held back by the non-arrival of material that was expected many days ago, but Mayor Leever has been assured that all material will be on hand in a few days and that the work will then be rushed to completion.

KING'S DAUGHTERS HAVE ENJOYABLE SESSION

The King's Daughters, a large and progressive class of the Christian Sunday school, met on Tuesday evening at the home of their teacher, Mrs. C. J. Mizer, 1103 North Riverside avenue. The evening was spent with games and music. Dainty refreshments were served.

The class presented to Mrs. Mizer a beautiful lunch cloth and napkins with hand-embroidered monogram, Miss Lenore Godlove making the presentation with well-chosen words. The gift was very highly appreciated by Mrs. Mizer, the work being done by the members of the class. The members of the class are: Agnes Robinson, Gertrude Shultz, Lenore Godlove, Ruth Woodford, Emma Peil, Lillian Pierce, Dorothy Baker, Iva Martin, Edith Robinson, Nellie Corum, Phyllis Grazier, Caroline Leaders, Louis Robinson, Ella Wood, Elsie Waters, Cora Gorham, Violet Caskey, Florence Herbage, Marie Seely.

SECOND ANNUAL CONVENTION OREGON THRESHERS' ASSOCIATION, ALBANY, ORE., JUNE 2 AND 3, 1910.

Round trip rate of one and one-third fare on the certificate plan will be made by O. R. & N. and S. P. companies. Tickets on sale May 29th to June 3d, inclusive, good for return until June 10th. Important subjects will be discussed, including an address by a special representative of the U. S. government.

NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS. Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of stockholders of the Pacific and Eastern Railway will be held at the office of the company, in Medford, Oregon, on Monday, June 6, 1910, at 10 o'clock a. m. By order of the President, G. P. HUMPHREY, Secretary.

PORTLAND AFTER LARGE CONTRACT

Organized Business Interests Endeavoring to Secure for Portland a Contract to Repair the Transport Thomas.

PORTLAND, Or., June 4.—Organized business interests of Portland have joined with the Vulcan iron works of Portland in a strenuous effort to secure for Portland a contract from the government to repair the transport Thomas, which is to be overhauled at an estimated cost of half a million dollars. The Thomas is lying at San Francisco.

It is expected that the bidding for the contract will be sharp, as it is understood that the Puget Sound and San Francisco yards are working to secure the contract.

"I am confident that we will secure the contract," said Charles F. Maehen, of the Vulcan Iron Works, who just returned from San Francisco, where he submitted a bid in behalf of his company.

REWARD

$5 REWARD WILL BE GIVEN TO THE BOY OR GIRL WRITING THE BEST ESSAY ON "WHY THE MERCHANTS DON'T ADVERTISE."

Instructions. Choose some merchant or firm in Medford who does not advertise in this paper and write a story of from 100 to 500 words. Give as many reasons as possible—tell everything you can about WHY you think that merchant or firm does not advertise. Write only on one side of the paper and plainly.

Below are a number of questions which may help you in writing your story.

Remember, the essay which in our judgment best defines the non-advertiser will receive a reward of $5 as pay for services performed and will be printed in the paper.

All essays must be in not later than Friday, June 7.

Who are some of the merchants and firms who don't advertise? Do you think they are progressive? Do they care whether there is a live daily in town? Do they take a daily paper? Is it a local paper or foreign? Are they hustlers in business? Are they crowded with customers? Do they carry the best qualities? Do they sell for the lowest prices? Do they believe in boasting the town or are they knockers? If they don't advertise, do they show any special desire for an increased business? Who would you prefer to deal with —a merchant hat asked for your business or one that didn't?

Do you think that a merchant who spends money advertising will advertise a poor article?

Here are some facts which may help you in writing your story:

The majority of users of largest advertising space conduct the largest businesses.

Persistent advertisers most all increase their business (if the advertisements are truthful).

The newest newspapers are as a rule the ones patronized most liberally. A newspaper cannot exist without a liberal patronage. The community's best booster is the live newspaper. No store could exist in Medford or any other town if everybody sent away for goods—the same principle applies to newspapers. A good, live paper, filled with up-to-date advertising, denotes a live, progressive, wide-awake, hustling town.
