

RACE WAR IN SACRAMENTO

White Fisherman is Murdered by Japanese and Threats of retaliation Alarm Authorities—Serious Clash Expected.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., June 10.—Race feeling which developed into a serious clash between the whites and Japanese along this section of the Sacramento river is running high today as the result of the murder of J. R. Gould, a fisherman of Walnut Grove, who died last night of wounds alleged to have been inflicted yesterday by one of a band of unruly Nipponese while the murdered man was attempting to defend a river ferryman from assault by the crazed aliens.

ANSWERS CRITICS.

Replying further to Mr. Moore's objection as set forth by him in paragraphs one, two, etc., will reply to his first objection as follows: The franchise is a blanket one in a general way, but is not to be used as broadly as its reading may sound, although it does specify exactly what shall be given in return. Replying to Mr. Moore's second objection in which he states: "In a general way it purports to be a street car franchise, but by careful reading it can be plainly seen that it is designed to be an interurban line." Mr. Moore's remarks are misleading and evidently made for a purpose, because I have always stated both privately and publicly and it has been published in all the newspapers of the Rogue River valley, that the main object of the entire enterprise was an interurban railroad and that the franchises granted in towns were in a way of minor importance. At the same time, they were necessary, making the enterprise complete and one in which the residents of Rogue River valley would be greatly benefited.

FIVE MOUNTAIN LIONS KILLED IN FOUR DAYS

L. F. Boyce, living in the Big Bend of Pit river, killed five mountain lions in four days recently and received $125 for the scalps. That made pretty good wages, says the Searchlight. Boyce gives the credit to his valuable hound, which treed the animals so that he could shoot them. The dog was raised by George Cochran, city poundmaster, and he has seven descendants of the hound-chasing dog.—Yreka Journal.

ROLLER THROWN BY POLANDER

Seattle's Champion Wrestler Out-classed by Big Foreigner Named Zbysko—Crushing Strength and Weight Did the Work.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 10.—Last night for the first time in his home town, with the exception of his match with Goteh, Dr. B. F. Roller was vanquished in straight falls. Zbysko, a dreadnaught flying the Polish flag, did the work. Crushing strength and superior weight wore Roller down, and when the physician's speed was gone he crumbled under the Pole's offense. Zbysko won the first fall in 1 hour and 52 minutes after the most terrific struggle ever seen on a local mat. Roller came back for the second fall exhausted and was tossed in 19 minutes.

UNION PACIFIC PLANS WIRELESS OPERATIONS

NEW YORK, June 10.—That the Union Pacific railway is preparing to use wireless telegraphy in the operation of its line is the statement of Frederick H. Hilliner, experimental engineer of that company. Stations are now being equipped at Cheyenne, Wyo., and at Sydney, 103 miles from Cheyenne, and practical tests will be made between these stations.

Milliner has been experimenting in the Union Pacific laboratory at Omaha, Neb., for four years, and considerable money has been spent in developing what Milliner claims is a new wireless system.

Pay dirt has been found in shallow ground on Five creek, but only in spots, the letters say. However, a vast area of country remains to be prospected.
