SHRINERS HAVE GLEEFUL TIME

The fez was everywhere in evidence all day last Saturday, says the Tidings, in the afternoon especially the "doings" having assumed the proportions of a regular holiday. Southern Oregon localities were represented as well as those of Northern California, and citizens turned out in liberal numbers to welcome the visitors. The main feature available to the public gaze was the parade pageant in the afternoon, preliminary to the ceremonial of the evening, when nearly a score of candidates were initiated into the mysteries of shinerdom.

Weather conditions were ideal, and pedestrians, autos and all manner of vehicles were out in full force. Minus camels—for the leading potentates had to resign themselves to ordinary mounts—the caravan phase of the procession was an elaborate one, ably supplemented by the Arab patrol, all resplendent in the gayest of costumes. The grotesque features were the band and the group of malcontent candidates roped together for the sacrifice, whose habiliments defied description. The main stunt of the afternoon was the "high dive" from the roof of the Elks' building, the vicinity of which was the head center of a group who waited eagerly as well as long for the expected, which happened in the form of a dummy hurled from dizzy heights and landing at least in close proximity to the receiving tank, fulfilling the spirit if not the letter of the sportive contract. The afternoon was given over to mirth on a generous scale, while as to the program for the evening, it is only necessary to state that, veiled as it necessarily was from "profane" eyes, the ceremonial session was not devoid of the main features for which Shriner doings are notable.

The class of novices which crossed the burning sands to Mecca at the ceremonial of Hillah Temple of the Shrine Saturday evening was made up as follows: Harry C. Stoddard, Medford; John L. Childs, Crescent City, Cal.; Joseph Poor, Ashland; W. H. Stewart, Medford; Ed N. Warner, Medford; David Marshall Horn, Hornbrook, Cal.; Fred W. Weeks, Medford; M. F. Chester, Ashland; F. M. Wilson, Medford; B. H. Harris, Medford; L. A. Gregory, Medford; Frank C. Routledge, Ashland; Loney L. Stanford, Ashland; Walter E. Newcombe, Ashland; Floring Breitmayer, Grants Pass; Lorenza L. Truax, Bonanza; Oliver C. Boggs, Medford, and James E. Hosmer, Ashland.

Hillah Temple, Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, chartered only one year ago, now has a membership in excess of 150, showing a growth which has been surprising even to the enthusiastic members of the order who were instrumental in the organization of the temple at Ashland.

WEDDING BELLS RING OUT THRICE

Spencer-Archibald.
Donald Spencer and Miss Hazel M. Archibald were married by Rev. J. A. Lemery at his residence Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. The groom is a native of Ashland and is now one of the city letter carriers. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald, residents of East Main street. The happy young couple will soon be at home on Iowa street.

Rose-Churchill.
A quiet home wedding took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Churchill, 614 Willamette boulevard, St. Johns, Portland, Tuesday, June 7, when Lorenzo E. Rose and Flossie W. Churchill were united in marriage by Rev. Kuhlman of the Estacada M. E. church. The bride was gowned in white silk and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was attended by Miss Edith Trowbridge of Currinsville. Floyd Churchill, the bride's brother, acted as best man. A wedding supper was served, after which they went to their newly completed home, 610 Willamette boulevard, St. Johns. The bride is the sister of Mrs. Harris Dean of Ashland and a '08 graduate of the Ashland high school.

Frank Whitney Weds.

Frank Whitney, son of Mrs. P. B. Whitney of Ashland, and May Mitchell of Grants Pass were married at the home of the bride's parents in Grants Pass on June 5, the Rev. Frederick Bartlett officiating. The ceremony occurred in the presence of immediate friends and relatives at 7:30 p. m. Miss Fay Hill was bridesmaid, while the groom was attended by his brother, Don Whitney of Ashland. The happy young couple left on a honeymoon trip to Portland, after which they will make their home in Grants Pass.—Tidings.

A Wonderful Discovery for Medford.
"Cleanliness is next to Godliness." Mr. Allen's Portable Bath Apparatus is a marvel. It combines in one simple, inexpensive apparatus all the advantages known to modern bathing. Heats sufficient water within six minutes at the cost of only 1 cent. A bath can be taken in any room without the possibility of soiling carpets or rugs. Only one can understand the real merits of this bathing apparatus by having it demonstrated to you. Mr. H. Fox, who has the exclusive agency for Jackson county, will visit the homes of Medford and vicinity and demonstrate it. When he comes to your home, invite him in, and he will show you the merits of this 20th century invention. It is on exhibition at Strang's drug store. GO AND SEE IT.
