

A Real Genuine Bonafide CLOTHING SALE

Legitimate Price Reductions

Best Apparent Values

When you can go into a store during a sale and buy a suit that is marked $18.50 for $8.50 you can make up your mind that there must have been a very long profit in the first of the season. Think of a profit of $10.00 or over on a suit that cost $8.50 or less. We don't believe in marking goods at enormous profit in the first place in order to make a flash later on. We mark at small profits at all times—give you the best values possible for your money and when we put on a sale it means actual savings to every customer.

We mark our clothing fully 25 per cent less than most dealers to start with.

SAYS JAPAN IS LOOKING FOR WAR

Pastor Returns From Orient and Declares Japan is Narrowly Watching United States and is Preparing to Fight.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 18.—"Japan expects to have a war with the United States and is preparing for it," said Rev. H. C. Morrison, pastor of the Methodist church at Louisville, Ky., who is here today after an extended trip to the Orient. "Japan is watching the United States narrowly," said Rev. Mr. Morrison. "She has spies in the Philippines to keep the Japanese government well informed about the American fortifications and improvements. There is an evident intention in Japan proper to prepare for war with the United States. Japan is not yet ready to fight with any power, but she is considering war with the United States as inevitable. The completion of the Panama canal will cause America to become aggressive," think the Japanese.

TO WAGE WAR ON CIGAR TRUST

New York Cigar Merchants Have Formed Organization to Fight the United Cigar Stores Company Over the United States.

NEW YORK, June 18.—A movement is on foot today to give opposition to the United Cigar stores company all over the United States. About 200 New York cigar merchants have formed an organization to fight the so-called cigar trust and they plan to establish a chain of stores throughout the United States. Letters are being sent to independent cigar merchants in many cities asking them to join the new organization. It is eventually planned by the new corporation to manufacture all kinds of smoking and chewing tobacco.

CHEERING THOUSANDS GREET TEDDY

tee advanced over the platform to the receiving stand. This 200-foot walk was raised six feet in the air, so that Colonel Roosevelt passed above the heads of the assembled thousands, giving them all a good look at him.

As he came from the pier house and advanced toward Mayor Gaynor, who was waiting for him with outstretched hands, Colonel Roosevelt was given the noisiest vocal greeting it had ever been his fortune to hear. From massed bands there came the roar of music, the thousands of throats came one hurrah that lasted for several minutes.

In addition to the reception committee which escorted Mr. Roosevelt to the stand were Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, Secretary of the Navy Meyer and Captain Archibald Butt, the president's personal aide, the latter bearing a personal letter to Colonel Roosevelt from his successor in office.

As soon as the terrific cheering ceased sufficiently for his voice to be heard, Mayor Gaynor, in the name of the people of New York, speaking as a representative of the American nation, welcomed Colonel Roosevelt back to his home.

Colonel Roosevelt responded extemporaneously and was given close attention, though few of the thousands could hear a word he said.

The Land Parade.

Immediately following the speeches the police formed a cordon about Colonel Roosevelt and the reception committee and had literally to fight their way to Broadway, where the land procession was formed. The parade was a small one. First came a company of mounted policemen, picked officers who rode magnificent horses and rode them like centaurs. They were followed by the mounted band of Troop C of Brooklyn. Then came 100 of the Roosevelt Rough Riders, clad in the uniforms they wore at San Juan Hill. They were mounted on the horses of Troop C and received a continuous ovation as they rode past in the cavalcade. Following came the Seventh Regiment band, on foot, preceding the open carriage in which sat Colonel Roosevelt, Mayor Gaynor, Chairman Cornelius Vanderbilt. Behind came the 50 open carriages containing the members of the reception committee.

The vista up the avenue that greeted the former president's eye brought him to his feet, hat in hand, the Roosevelt smile broadening almost into a laugh of delight. For miles ahead, as far as the eye could see, was packed such a gathering as never assembled on New York streets. Uniformed organizations, with bands blaring, stood at attention. Here and there flowers were thrown into the street as the president passed. Thousands of men and women waved flags and cheered. This hearty ovation continued the whole length of the drive up Fifth avenue. It was noticeable that the homes of the "predatory rich" along society's boulevards were all thrown open, every window framing a crowd that gathered to witness the triumphant procession.

At Fifty-ninth street and Fifth avenue the procession halted and disbanded, and America had, for the day, completed its welcome to its foremost private citizen. It is estimated that 150,000 persons had packed into Battery Park, that 250,000 had lined Broadway and Fifth avenue and that another 230,000 had filled the windows along these thoroughfares.
