

FIELDER JONES IS BACK IN GAME

Plays All Ball With Chehalis Doing Some Tall Fielding Work—Says He Does Not Intend to Go Back to Big League Work.

CHEHALIS, Wash., June 20.—There is only one ball player in Chehalis today.

The hero of the hour is Fielder Jones late of the Chicago White Sox, now a member of the State league, playing with Chehalis.

Jones made his first appearance with the Chehalis team Saturday, but Aberdeen won the game by a score of 4 to nothing.

Chehalis fans declare, however, that it was baseball luck and because Aberdeen's players were more scientific.

When Jones appeared at the plate he was given an ovation by the crowd.

He was at bat three times, made three hits and the fourth time flew out to right.

Jones played sensational ball in center, catching a drive at his shoe tops and stopping a score. In the fielding of the fly he rolled over on the ground.

Another splendid catch was made of a drive to left center, Jones taking it on the run over the left shoulder, running with the ball. He expressed himself as well pleased with the Chehalis team and the exercise of the game.

He says he does not intend to go back to the big league, but the three games a week series suits him. He says he is playing about 20 pounds over weight.

THEODORE JR. WEDS.

President and Mrs. Roosevelt. It was not a grand society event in the ordinary sense, and there was no lavish display, as could be seen at the Gould and Vanderbilt weddings, but it did not have to depend upon gorgeous decorations and other trills to attract attention. The mere presence of the former president of the United States at the ceremony was sufficient to make the wedding an event of more than ordinary interest and to attract thousands of curious people to the vicinity of Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church.

The church was handsomely, but not extravagantly decorated, and all appointments were rather simple but dignified. The bride, radiant in her beautiful white satin gown with trimmings of old lace, was assisted by her matron of honor, Mrs. Snowden Andrew Fahrenstock, an intimate friend of the bride, and herself only a bride of a few weeks. The bridesmaids, five in number, were Miss Ethel Roosevelt, second daughter of ex-President Roosevelt; the Misses Harriet and Janette Alexander, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Alexander and cousins of the bride; Miss Jean W. Delano, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Delano, Jr., and Miss Jessie Millington Drake of Paris.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Henry M. Sanders, a great uncle of the bride, assisted by Dr. Gordon Russell of Cranford, N. J. The church was well filled during the wedding ceremony, but by no means overcrowded, as only members of the two interested families, their relatives and friends, had been invited to the church, excepting a number of persons who had been part of the Roosevelt establishment at the White House, when the father of the bridegroom had been president. Several of the former negro servants of the Roosevelt household were interested spectators at the ceremony. Ex-President Roosevelt cordially shook hands with them at the church door after the ceremony. The wedding was followed by a reception at the house of Mrs. C. B. Alexander on West Fifty-eighth street, which was attended by many hundreds of guests, among them men and women of note and social distinction.

The bride, who made her social debut only two years ago, is the granddaughter of Mrs. Henry M. Alexander, who was Miss Susan M. Brown, and a niece of Charles B. Alexander of New York, of Mrs. John J. McCook, and of the Rev. Maitland Alexander of Allegheny, Pa. Her mother is Miss Grace Green, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Green of Ohio. Mrs. Alexander obtained a divorce from Mr. Alexander some years ago. The bride is also a granddaughter of the late Theron R. Butler. She is highly educated and a general favorite in society. She and her young husband were friends from childhood. The young benedict, Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., is the eldest child of the ex-president by his second wife, who was Miss Edith Carew, and a half-brother of Mrs. Nicholas Longworth. He graduated from Groton school in 1905 and entered Harvard university in the fall of that year. His father then being president, the young man attracted unusual attention, which, being extremely modest, he sought to escape as much as possible. Following his father's example, he went in for a strenuous life, and, although somewhat under weight, obtained a position on the freshman football team. He never became a member of the 'Varsity team, but played on his class teams with remarkable pluck. In his junior year he was duly initiated as a member of the Alpha Delta Phi and his father was present at the hazing which forms part of the initiation ceremonies.

Early in 1908, before being graduated, Mr. Roosevelt terminated his college work and in the following autumn began life as a wage-earner in a carpet mill at Thompsonville, Conn. He rapidly worked his way up and is to be the agent of the Hartford Carpet corporation in San Francisco. Aeronautics is his favorite recreation.

"HELLO BILL" GOES ON BOARDS TONIGHT

Athon Stock Company to Open Their Second Week's Engagement With Strong Farce.

The Athon Stock company opens its second week's engagement tonight at the Medford in "Hello Bill." This is a farce comedy said to be a "scream" from start to finish, enlisting the services of the entire company and filled with musical numbers and specialties.

This company is deserving of splendid patronage, as it proved itself worthy last week, and it is now up to the people of Medford to show whether they want this amusement during the summer, for, unless the patronage is increased very much over the last week it will be impossible to keep such an organization here.

Remember the dates for this week and the future—Monday, Tuesday and Saturday.

MOST BEAUTIFUL SCENERY EVER

Two Travelers Who Have Seen the Big Things All Over the Earth Regard the Scenery of the Rogue as Most Beautiful.

That the natural scenery along the Rogue river to the summit of the Cascades and from thence down Arua creek to Fort Klamath is the most beautiful they have ever seen, although they have visited European scenic wonders and the principal ones in the United States, is the verdict of M. M. Gillan and Fred Longdon, who have just returned from a drive both ways over the Rogue river route.

"I never saw anything like it in sylvan beauty," said Mr. Gillan. "The Mill creek falls cannot be surpassed in Switzerland, even, and the roads are so much better than we expected them to be we had no difficulty in crossing over to Fort Klamath from this side and less in coming back. We made no attempt to get to Crater Lake, knowing that we would be unable to reach it until later. But the Anne creek canyon, the falls of Rogue river, Mill creek falls and the other beautiful scenes along the route are sufficient for our trip. When we make the trip again we intend to see it all. We are reserving the best—Crater Lake—for the last."

Mr. Gillan and Mr. Longdon are looking for a mountain farm, and this was the reason of their trip across the mountain.

ONLY MINOR CASES IN POLICE COURT MONDAY

The cases for adjudication by Police Judge Canon Monday morning were all cases of simple drunk. James Burke had come to Medford from the MacKenzie river, where he had been logging, to go to work on the Upper Rogue. He carried by the wayside in Medford, "Looked upon the wine when it was red," and as a consequence was arrested. He was fined $5 and allowed to go out on the job, providing he paid the fine the first time he came in.

R. A. Beckman objected to being arrested and had a $10 fine plastered on him. He had no money and was ordered out of town, on penalty of working on the streets if he ever came back.

August Hartman was an old acquaintance of the judge. He had a balance of $2.50 on a previous fine hanging over him. August was fined $5 more, which he promised to pay by 9 o'clock or get out of town to his job.

Chas. Wilson and Joe McCormick were given the option of five days on the streets or seeking a job out of town.

Mike Swining, who is a semi-annual contribution to the city treasury, came over from Siskiyou county Sunday afternoon and was inebriated when he arrived. Mike was assessed $10, which he paid.

HARRY WHITNEY SAILS AGAIN TO HUNT IN FAR NORTH

BOSTON, Mass., June 20.—The steamship Boethic, chartered by Harry Whitney of New Haven and Paul J. Rainey of Cleveland, after being equipped at this port, is today bound for the Arctic. Huntig will be the purpose of the expedition. Captain Robert Bartlett, who accompanied Peary to the far north, has command of the Boethic.

A bountiful supply of candy and trinkets for the Igloo dwellers of the north was included in the Boethic's cargo.

Members of the party said they would not attempt to find the records Dr. Cook claims to have left at Etan.

CHAMPIONS DEFEATED BY JACKSONVILLE

Grants Pass Team Which Won Championship (sic) by Defeating Medford One Games Loses 5 to 2.

You can never tell when that old town of Jacksonville isn't likely to "slip one over." They came near doing it a week ago Sunday on the Medford team, and they put it over the "champions" from Grants Pass Sunday by a score of 5 to 2. McIntyre was in fine form and he had the support, which helps him a whole lot. The one trouble with "Mack" is that he gets discouraged when a team makes a few bobbles behind him, loses his head and does not pitch up to his standard.

At Medford when Medford and Central Point opened the game the wind was blowing a gale across the field and the people who attended showed a lot of sand—and also accumulated some on their clothes—by showing up at all.

The pitchers were handicapped by the cross wind and the outfielders had the worst time ever. A high fly would start for the left garden and by the time the wind got through with it the ball was likely to drop in right field as anywhere else.

Burgess started for Medford, but he couldn't make his near side curves work at all and was taken out after two innings. He did make a three-bagger in his only time up, however, which helped some in the scoring. Coleman, with his fast ball, overcame the wind and allowed only one hit for the rest of the game.

Lux for Central Point couldn't make his slow ball work in the wind and was batted freely. Ferguson
