POLICE FORCE OYSTER BAY APPEARS IN NEW DUES

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., June 21.—Following the complaint of the postmaster of Oyster Bay that he is swamped with tons of mail for Colonel Roosevelt since the colonel's return home, the police force of Oyster Bay today appeared on the streets in his new uniform. The force's uniform is a gaudy affair of blue with white stripes, a shiny helmet and a big star. He expressed himself as pleased with the action of the Oyster Bay residents in permitting him a new outfit in honor of the colonel's return.

The force was on head early today to escort Secretary H. M. Hobson of the Hamilton club of Chicago to Sagamore Hill, where Mrs. Hobson had breakfast with Roosevelt. Following the meal Hobson announced that Roosevelt will meet the club's committee soon. The committee plans to ask the colonel to address the club next fall.

HARMON CONTROLLING FACTOR IN CONVENTION

DAYTON, O., June 21.—Governor Judson Harmon and his presidential hopes are the controlling factor in Democratic state convention scheduled to open today. It is expected Harmon will be the single exception of a split between the executive and Tom Johnson, former mayor of Cleveland. Johnson wants to transfer the plan of Governor Marshall of Indiana to Ohio and have the state convention indorse a candidate for the senatorial nomination. Harmon doesn't want the Democrats to indorse any one unless it be a candidate for the presidency, whose name the Harmon supporters are modestly withholding.

Diaz Locks Up Rival Candidate For President.

EL PASO, Tex., June 21.—President Diaz of Mexico has ordered the deportation of the liberal leader and presidential candidate, Madeiro, who is at present in prison charged with inciting riot, according to a report received here today. It is asserted that followers of Madeiro are being urged to assassinate government authorities if they are not allowed to vote for their leader Sunday. One hundred Madeiro men are under arrest.

JOHNSON LEAVES FOR RENO ON THURSDAY

SEAL ROCK TRAINING CAMP, Cal., June 21.—Champion Jack Johnson, who will leave Thursday night for Reno, N. V., in his automobile. Since the camp to Reno, his trainers say the official decision was no surprise to the champion.

Johnson, besides his roadwork on foot is paying considerable attention to his road work in the big car. Automobiles will be tabooed for him at Reno and he is indulging in his favorite pastime of toying with the speed laws as much as he can before he starts for the sagebrush.

McGraw Very Ill.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 21.—Former Governor John H. McGraw, who has been seriously ill for the past three months, was reported very low today. It is believed death is a matter of hours only. His physicians offer no hope for his recovery.

Every day in this city a few more people join the lists of those who buy advertised things—who patronize advertised stores!

LOST DOG FOUND AT OAKLAND MOLE

Collie Advertised in Tribune Is Found in Baggage Car at Oakland—Supposed to Have Jumped—Simply Hid.

LOST—Year-old Scotch collie, white breast, white legs, brown hair; jumped from 11 o'clock train Wednesday morning north of Medford; reward. Dr. Baillie, Phoenix, Or.

Friday afternoon the above advertisement appeared in the Medford Mail Tribune and Monday night the dog returned.

It appears that the dog, like all young collies, was quite timid, and, being chained in the baggage car with strangers, some time in the trip slipped its collar and crept behind other baggage in the car. When Dr. Baillie's baggage was unloaded at Medford the chain and collar were there, but there was no dog. The conclusion was arrived at that the pup had leaped from the car somewhere north of this city while the baggage man's attention was otherwise engaged, hence the advertisement and reward offered.

When the baggage car arrived at Oakland Sunday and the baggage was unloaded, in the far corner was found a very weary, hungry, thirsty and sorry pup. Tracers had been sent out and there was much rejoicing in the baggage department when the dog was found. He was immediately started back for Medford and was delivered safely Tuesday morning to his owner. It is said that one or the other of the baggage handlers kept their "eye on the dog" all the way from Oakland to Medford.

NEW PARTY SEEKS TO CONTROL LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 21.—A union labor party which will seek control of the municipal government of Los Angeles will be launched at a mass meeting next Sunday. The party will be formed along the lines of the union labor party of San Francisco. It probably will make its first bid for power in the next municipal campaign.

The organization of the new party, according to National Organizer Stuart Reid of the American Federation of Labor, has been forced by the attitude of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' association of Los Angeles during the present strike of metal workers and brewers. The union men are indignant over what they term the high-handed methods of their employers to end the strikes.

Reid said today: "Things have been brought to Los Angeles to put an end to the strikes. Union leaders have been followed about the streets by fellows hired by the employers' association.

"The labor party seems to us to be the best way out of the difficulty."

PIONEER OBSERVES HIS 86TH BIRTHDAY

Elijah Emerson Gore, a native of Vermont and an Oregon pioneer of '52, celebrated his 86th birthday yesterday, June 20, at the Gore home, two miles south of Medford, with a family gathering at which were present his four sons and one daughter, with their families and other relatives and friends, numbering 30. Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gore were host and hostess. Gathering early in the evening, the hours were spent with birthday congratulations, reminiscences of early days and music, after which food and cakes were served in the dining room. The table was decorated in honor of the occasion with broad pink streamers carried from the electrolite to the four corners of the table, and the centerpiece was a bowl of choice Maman Cochet roses, presented by Mrs. L. B. Warner. While Mr. Gore is enfeebled by advancing age and one by one he has laid aside the active duties of a long and busy life, his interest in those about him, as well as in the industrial progress of the valley, which has been his home since early manhood, continues unabated. At noon he enjoyed a birthday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wortman, esteemed neighbors, living in the old J. G. Van Dyke place.

TO OUR READERS!

By special arrangement we offer you a great opportunity to read

"Chantecler"

EDMOND ROSTAND'S wonderful "Chantecler" is the dramatic sensation of the world. In it Rostand proves himself to be one of the greatest dramatists of all times. "Chantecler" is not only the greatest play of the century,—it is the one great play of the last hundred years. It is an exquisite story, palpitating with human sympathy and interest. It warms the blood—stirs the emotions—arouses every commendable sentiment. "Chantecler" sparkles with wit—counsels with wise philosophy—entertains with fascinating idiom—while the tones of the hour bell of today, and today's problems, are heard through the medium of "Chantecler's" deliciously up-to-date slang. No language contains sufficient superlatives to describe it. Only reading and study will enable you to appreciate it. It has aroused all France—London has gone mad over it.

The Only English Translation

Rostand has chosen HAMPTON'S MAGAZINE as the medium through which to present "Chantecler" to the English-reading world. The publication will be in four instalments, one act to each instalment, beginning in the June number. The translator is the same who helped to make "Cyrano de Bergerac" so fascinating to American booklovers.

We have made special arrangements with the publishers of HAMPTON'S by which our readers may get "Chantecler" and the many other fine features published in HAMPTON'S in connection with our own paper, practically without cost. Read our offer below.

OTHER EXPENSIVE FEATURES

HAMPTON'S MAGAZINE every month contains the most costly, most important, and most interesting contents ever put between the covers of a general magazine. "Peary's Own Story" of the discovery of the North Pole, a $50,000 feature, is now in its most interesting stage, giving the positive "proofs" that Commander Peary and no other man discovered the North Pole. "The True History of the Southern Pacific Railroad" by Charles Edward Russell is one of the greatest magazine serials ever published. Mrs. Rheta Childe Dorr's articles on the "Power of the Women's Clubs" are without an equal in their appeal to women everywhere. Fiction contributors include the foremost story-tellers of the world: Arthur Stringer has a new series called "The Adventures of an Insomniac"; James B. Connolly describes in several stories his Trip Around the World with the American Fleet; Frederick Palmer is contributing a series of airship stories of which Danbury Rodd is the central character. The only new idea in detective fiction since Sherlock Holmes is provided in the second series of stories about Luther Trant, the psychological detective, written by Edwin Balmer and William G. MacHarg. Other Short Stories are by such favorites as O. Henry, Gouverneur Morris, Charles Belmont Davis, Rupert Hughes, Josephine Daskam Bacon, Harris Merton Lyon and many others.

Special Offer to Readers of This Paper

By special arrangement with HAMPTON'S MAGAZINE, we are able to make the following remarkable offer to our readers. The publishers of HAMPTON'S advise us that the demand for "Chantecler" is tremendous. We therefore advise you to order on the attached coupon now.
