POSSES SURROUNDING BANDITS IN MOUNTAINS

SALT LAKE, Utah, June 28.—Posses are surrounding Little Mountain, near the shore of Salt Lake, today, as it is believed the three bandits who held up an Oregon Short Line train in the outskirts of this city Sunday night are hiding in caves in the mountain. A fight is expected if the bandits are located.

Tracks of the buggy in which they escaped have been traced to the marshes surrounding Little Mountain. A search of the marshes is believed to have driven the bandits to caves in the mountain. In this event there is no chance of their escaping. The lake is on one side of the mountain and the posses are closing in on the other sides.

Fourteen suspects are held in jail at Ogden.

Electric Flat Irons

need no recommendation to progressive housewives. Their use makes ironing a pleasure, relieved of all the drudgery of fires and changing of irons. The small General Electric flatiron is indispensable in the sewing room.

Children Use Them

not only as playthings but really in a useful way, helping with the little things and thus learning to aid in household duties. We have a very interesting way of introducing these new irons to users of electric light.

ELECTRIC CO. ROGUE RIVER

Crews in Good Shape. NEW LONDON, Conn., June 28.—The condition of the Yale varsity and freshman crews was improved following arduous trial spins in preparation for the Harvard-Yale regatta tomorrow. The encouraging reports from the Yale contenders cut down the odds, though Harvard is favorite today at 3 to 2. The Harvard supporters will be satisfied if the crimson eights win their respective races by a few feet. They admit that Yale is dangerous and that the condition of the blue undoubtedly has improved. Both crews devoted the day to practice spins, but did no hard work. Some animals multiply rapidly and some snakes are adders.
