MUST SHOW WHY PRICES ARE HIGH

Southern Grocery Trust Has Been Brought to Account by Uncle Sam and Its Officers Must Tell of Inside Dealings.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—At last the cry of the housewife has been heard. The government has come to her relief and has taken steps to see that the prices of groceries shall be lowered.

There has been much talk about the higher cost of living, and no one has appreciated it more than the women who have noticed the lightening of their pocketbooks and of their market baskets at the same time.

It is all very well for the men that the government should pursue the tobacco trust, the Standard Oil, the plate glass, the plumbers' and all the other trusts, but these things interest the women but little, when they see the prices of practically everything they want on their breakfast and dinner tables steadily climbing higher and getting out of reach.

So now the Southern grocery trust has been brought to account and its officers are to be forced to explain the reason for the high prices which it is alleged their combination has maintained. It is believed that the effect of the action will be felt by other sections and will result in restricting the activity of other similar organizations.

Besides appealing to the court to dissolve the association itself and declare it illegal, the government asks that every one of its 500 members or more be forever prohibited from entering into any agreement among themselves as to the prices at which they should sell the necessities of life. The officers of the association who are to be brought into court at Birmingham, Ala., are:

President Jos. H. McLaurin of Florida, Vice-President L. M. Hooper of Alabama, Second Vice-President F. E. Hasbagen of North Carolina, Treasurer C. W. Bartleson of Florida and Secretary Robert Moore of Alabama, together with nine others, constituting the advisory board. Officers of two big grocery concerns in Birmingham are also to be hauled to the bar.

They are alleged to be wholesale grocers dealing in interstate commerce in sugar, flour, cakes and crackers, soap and washing powders, cereals, soda and baking powders, salt, milk products, canned goods, sirups and other necessities of life. They are charged with being engaged in a conspiracy to maintain prices. It is alleged that hundreds of thousands of dollars have been distributed to members of the association by its officers as a reward for maintaining prices and other sums have been assessed as fines and penalties for underselling the price list.

The association is a close corporation and no outsider could get in without the consent of the other members.

WIFE SOLD FOR 50c BEATEN FOR REVOLT

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 28.—Sold by her husband for 50 cents and then beaten and kicked into unconsciousness when she refused to go with her purchaser was the revolting tale related by Mrs. Covenski, a Polish woman, age 56, to Magistrate Noble Matthews. The woman was arrested and allowed liberty on forfeits. The police are now looking for the husband, Steve Covenski, who is 60 years old. His wife has been under the doctor's care for a week and not until today did the police discover the cause of the trouble.

NO SANE FOURTH FOR WOODVILLE

The Baby Municipality Purposes to Rip Things Wide Open and Make the Eagle Scream as Never Before in History of the Town.

No, Sir! We all expect to go crazy on the Fourth and some one facetiously remarked some of us would not have far to go.

But who would think of enjoying a Fourth of July without having a rip-roaring time—fire crackers and pink lemonade—nigger babies, greased pole, etc. Why, otherwise, one might as well go to a camp meeting.

Yes, sir-ee, you can stand your pants to climb the pole, but spikes are prohibited.

Three drilling teams, a brass band—not the one mentioned in this paper a few days ago—but the Central Point band of 23 pieces; also a first-class string band for the dance pavilion.

Good speaking and fine vocal music. So come along to Woodville and if you don't enjoy yourself it will be because you "ain't built right"—that's all.

ASSASSIN OF PREMIER HANGED

Extreme Precautions Are Taken to Prevent Demonstration by Sympathizers—"I Die for Egypt's Liberty" Are Last Words.

CAIRO, Egypt, June 28.—Ibrahim Wardani, assassin of Boutros Pasha, late premier of Egypt, was hanged here today following extreme precautions on the part of the British administration to prevent any demonstration by the condemned man's sympathizers.

"I die for the cause of Egyptian liberty" were the last words of the premier's slayer.

The hanging took place in the yard of the government prison here and outsiders were jealously excluded by the authorities. Newspaper men were barred from witnessing the execution and strong detachments of troops patrolled the streets about the prison. Many soldiers and police in uniform mingled with the crowds that gathered early.

Later the order was issued that no large gatherings would be permitted and the crowds were dispersed. The nationalists wearing their colored fezz were in evidence, but they made no attempt at a demonstration.

Cat Dog Ends Life.
PADUCAH, Ky., June 28.—Walking into the Fraternity building and up to the third floor, a cur dog deliberately committed suicide by jumping from the office window to the pavement below. After alighting on the pavement the dog walked about fifty feet and fell dead in the gutter. Its neck was broken.

Modern Life Would Be Too Hard On the Nerves if It Were Not for Want Advertising!

The pace of life has become tense. Worries, disappointments, upsets at home and office, losses, discouragements seem to multiply as daily life becomes more complex.

The property owner, who MUST have a steady income from rental lose his property, is "racked" by the untimely defection of a tenant. Some classified advertising quickly retrieves his loss—and quiets his nerves.

The salary earner unexpectedly loses his position—and his peace of mind. The train would shortly "break" something in his nervous system if, once more, want advertising did not find the better job—and restore to him his mental equilibrium.

In every phase of the city's life, every day, the want ads. play the part of the peacemaker. They serve you and me at some crisis in our lives—and keep the modern pace and tension from proving too fast and tight for us.

Truly, the want ads. are for service.
