CHARLIE WHITE TO BE EMERGENCY MAN AT FIGHT

Tex Rickard Seems to Have Premonition That He Will Not Be Able to Referee Entire Battle if It Goes Any Distance.

MOANA SPRINGS TRAINING CAMP, Reno, Nev., June 30.—Tex Rickard seems to have a premonition that he will not be able to referee the entire battle if it goes any distance, being particularly fearful of the heat. He believes that he may be also called on to break the fighters, in which event he stands a very good chance of having his own roof torn off, as both Jeffries and Jack are exceedingly fast in snapping in on the break. All things considered, it behooves Rickard to have a man ready to step into his shoes.

The selection of Charlie White, the New York referee, has settled the question of the emergency man, and seems to have removed the last cloud from the fight horizon.

The official timekeeper has not yet been decided on, but George Harting, the San Francisco veteran, is most likely to be selected for this important position. He has officiated for both men and is known to be perfectly satisfactory to them. Harting's honesty and accuracy have never been questioned and if there is any reason why he should not officiate it has never been made public.

HARVESTING IMMENSE GRAIN CROP STARTS

SPOKANE, Wash., June 30.—Harvesting has begun in the valleys in the southern part of the Inland Empire, and ranchers predict that work will be well under way in from ten days to two weeks in harvesting the $100,000,000 crop of grains, grasses, vegetables and fruits, which bankers in Spokane and throughout the northwest say can be financed without calling upon eastern institutions for funds.

The first combined machines started heading this season on the ridges near Eureka, Wash., and at Culesean, Idaho. Others will follow between now and July 15 and thousands of men and horses and hundreds of machines will be drawn into service in various parts of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana, and when the products of the fields are housed many of the men will go into orchards to harvest what now gives promise of being the best crop of apples and other fruits in the history of the country.

The wheat crop in parts of Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana, comprising the Inland Empire, is estimated at from 35,000,000 to 60,000,000 bushels, of which between 34,000,000 and 34,500,000 will be harvested in 14 counties in Eastern Washington. Reports received by the Spokane chamber of commerce indicate that Whitman, Lincoln, Walla Walla, Adams and Douglas-Grant counties will lead in the order named. These five counties produced 27,250,000 bushels of wheat in 1909, Whitman county reporting 8,500,000 bushels.

Reports from many districts in Oregon, Idaho and Montana also show that prospects are bright for large yields of grain and hay; and it is predicted that the grain and hay crops of the four states will be greater than ever before. Much old grain is held in Eastern Washington, but growers believe prices will stiffen before the 1910 crop is ready for shipment and that the season will be active.

Big Prices for Mules.
KLAMATH FALLS, June 30.—C. Guy Merrill has returned from a trip through the north end of Klamath and a part of Lake County, where he was seeking horses and mules. He says saleable animals are very scarce, in this part of the country at present, although he succeeded in picking up forty head of mules and a few horses. Good prices are prevailing for mules, Mr. Merrill paying from $50 for colts to $200 for well-broke work mules. He is buying for the Eastern Oregon and California markets.

PATTON RETIRES FROM BUSINESS FIELD TODAY

CHICAGO, Ill., June 30.—James A. Patten, "king of the wheat pit," will retire from activity at 4 o'clock this afternoon, if he follows out his announced plans.

A firm of operators that will include H. J. Patten, youngest brother of the famous manipulator, will succeed James A. Patten.

It is said by old members of the board of trade that Patten feels that he has been misjudged and misinterpreted.

JEFF TO WEAR SPRINGS IN HIS FIGHT SHOES

RENO, Nev., June 30.—Jim Jeffries will wear springs in the heels of his fighting shoes when he enters the ring Monday. After trying the invention, which was recommended by Dewitt Van Court, Jeffries expressed great satisfaction with the effect to use the shoes on Monday.

The purpose of the springs is to make footwork easier. Jeffries says he is much lighter on his feet in the new shoes.

Kouts to Have Trial.
KLAMATH FALLS, Or., June 30.—J. G. Kleninger pleaded guilty in the circuit court today to the larceny of a suit of clothes and will receive his sentence tomorrow. Kleninger was one of the men against whom the grand jury returned an indictment.

Timothy Kouts, indicted on two charges of attempting life, and Robert Burns, charged with assault with deadly weapon, each pleaded not guilty and, while the dates for their trial have not been set, it is known they will come up for hearing some time in July. Kouts is the young man who attempted the life of C. Swanston, the Sacramento cattle buyer, and D. W. Hitchcock, stage driver, on the stage coming from Merrill to Klamath Falls last January while in a drunken frenzy.

Burns slashed the neck of Otto Gessi with a knife in a wood camp near Merrill a short time ago. The latter will attempt to prove self-defense. What Kouts' defense will be has not been outlined, as the assault on the two men in the stage was without apparent provocation.

Modern Life Would Be Too Hard On the Nerves if It Were Not for Want Advertising!

The pace of life has become tense. Worries, disappointments upset at home and office, losses, discouragements seem to multiply as daily life becomes more complex.

The property owner, who MUST have a steady income from rental loss his property, is "racked" by the untimely detection of a tenant. Some classified advertising quickly retrieves his loss—and quiets his nerves.

The salary earner unexpectedly loses his position—and his peace of mind. The train would shortly "break" something in his nervous system if, once more, want advertising did not find the better job—and restore to him his mental equilibrium.

In every phase of the city's life, every day, the want ads. play the part of the peacemaker. They serve you and me at some crisis in our lives—and keep the modern pace and tension from proving too fast and tight for us.

Truly, the want ads. are for service.
