KANSAS CITY FEARS EFFECT OF PICTURES

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 6.—Moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight probably will be barred in Kansas City. Mayor Brown and other city officials conferred today and it is believed they will take action to prohibit the exhibition of the pictures here.

CURTIS RECORD IS SMASHED BY LE BLANC

RHEIMS, July 6.—The record of Glenn H. Curtiss for a 20-kilometer monoplane flight was smashed twice here today. Le Blanc, in a Blériot monoplane, went the distance in 15 minutes, which was 50 3-5 seconds faster than the time set by Curtiss. Later Mermene, in a Blériot monoplane, made the distance in 13 minutes and 8 seconds, traveling at the rate of 60 miles an hour.

Le Blanc also covered 100 kilometers in 1 hour and 16 minutes, thereby establishing a new record. The aerodrome was flooded, a slight rain was falling and conditions for flight were poor.

PORTLAND PRONOUNCES IT MORAL HYSTERIA

PORTLAND, Ore., July 6.—There is little likelihood that an exhibition of the moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight would be prevented in Portland.

Chief of Police Cox expressed the opinion that the exhibition of the pictures would not be opposed.

"In fact," said he, "I do not see how such an exhibition could be stopped if we wanted to do so."

Various business men were interviewed, one declaring that agitation against the pictures was "an indication that a number of well intentioned persons were suffering from an attack of 'moral hysteria.'"

NEW YORK ALDERMEN SELLING CITY PERMITS

NEW YORK, July 6.—That politicians are making a practice of extorting money from persons seeking permits and licenses of various kinds is the substance of a communication from Mayor Gaynor before the board of aldermen today. EVEN SOUTH AFRICA CUTS OUT PICTURES

LONDON, July 6.—The Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures will be barred in the biograph halls of Johannesburg, South Africa, according to a dispatch received here today. The officials fear that the pictures would cause the smoldering race feeling there to burst out into flame and that fatal riots between whites and blacks would result.

IS BACK FROM RENO SUPREMELY DISGUSTED

Russell Hanauer is back from Reno, much disgusted. He had a return trip ticket. It is not known when the rest of the Medford delegation will arrive, as the way is long and the days are hot and walking is slow.

"There was no fight all," said Mr. Hanauer. "Jeffries just stood up and let Johnson hit him. Only struck back a few times. After the fourth round, Jack could have put him out any time. After the tenth Johnson said: 'Now for fighting. The moving picture contract is filled.' You could hear Jeff pant all over the arena. He had no strength at all."

BOSTON JOINS LIST OF CLOSED CITIES.

BOSTON, Mass., July 6.—Mayor Fitzgerald today barred the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures from Boston, declaring their exhibition would be degrading.

In deciding against the pictures Mayor Fitzgerald severely arraigned prize fighting and prize fighters.

AN EASY VICTORY.

How an Obstinate English Lord Was Outwitted in Naples.

Lord Charles Hamilton used to go about Naples attended by a large, ferocious bulldog. Having decided upon going to Rome, he proceeded to the station and took his place in a first class carriage, the "dawg" taking up a position on a seat opposite his master. The platform inspector, with many gesticulations, declared that the bulldog should not travel in a passenger carriage.

"Very well, then; take him out," was Lord Charles' rejoinder.

In vain the official expostulated. He merely reiterated his former reply, a piece of advice it is needless to say which was not followed, and Lord Charles, apparently master of the situation, threw himself back in his seat and calmly lit a cigar.

But the Italians were not to be outdone, and, quietly detaching the carriage in which the English "milor" was seated, they made up the train with another compartment and started it off.

Lord Charles sat quietly smoking for about a quarter of an hour and then, surprised at the delay, thrust his head out of the window and demanded when the train was going to start. His feelings when the situation was described to him may be imagined.—London Tit-Bits.

St. Patrick. St. Patrick cleaned the suld sod up. The devil had to give in. He made grand old Hibernia a bally place to live in.

So let us pluck a shamrock green In honor of his away. And plant the prathles for good luck Upon St. Patrick's day.

Kindness is the golden chain by which society is bound together.—Goethe.

VIOLENT DECLINES IN STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, July 6.—Following violent declines in the opening dealings in stock today, there was a general rally and the losses were about half regained. Nearly all the active stocks declined 1 to 1 1/2 at the opening and in Rock Island, Wabash, American Sugar and Union Pacific the fall was 2 points. Midday reports showed most of the issues recovered their losses. St. Paul rose a point. General dissatisfaction, commercial, agricultural and banking, caused the early declines.

Bonds were weak.

A STRANGE PLANT.

The Drinking Orchid and Its Fruitless Search For Water.

"The strangest orchids I ever saw," said a naturalist, "live on the edge of a lagoon on the Rio de la Plata—'live,' I say, for surely no animal is more alive than they, and among them I first realized the pathos of a plant's immobility, the cruelty of its roots that bind it forever to one spot."

"These orchids had each at the center or axis a long stem a half inch wide and a quarter inch thick. They grew on dead limbs overhanging the lagoon, and now and then when in need of water they uncoiled their axial stems, lowered them three or four feet to the stream and when enough water had been drunk coiled the stems up again as a tape measure coils up on its spool."

"A strange sight that still and tropical afternoon—a silent, sun drenched lagoon, a scarlet blaze of orchids and here and there those slim, supple tubes descending to drink, satisfying themselves, then coiling up again."

"But what impressed me most was a mass of faded orchids that continually and restlessly let down their tubes in vain, for the stream had fallen, and hence the tubes descended upon dry ground. It was pitiful. The orchids were dying, but with what strength was left to them they lowered and drew up their tubes. They felt feverishly and weakly for the water that wasn't there."

"A sad sight—a sight that brought home the pathos of the immobility of plants!"—Exchange.

BLAKE'S VISIONS.

The Curious Hallucinations of the Poet-Painter.

William Blake, the contemporary of Charles Lamb, was a man of visions. Blake dined with prophets and held converse with archangels. A friend of Blake called on the poet-painter "and found him sitting, pencil in hand, drawing a portrait with all the seeming anxiety of a man who is conscious of having a fastidious sitter. He looked and drew and drew and looked, yet no living soul was visible. 'Disturb me not,' said Blake in a whisper. 'I have some one sitting to me.' 'Sitting to you?' exclaimed the astonished visitor. 'Where is he? I see no one.' 'But I see him,' answered Blake haughtily. 'There he is. His name is Lot. You may read of him in the Scriptures. He is sitting for his portrait.'"

Blake's hallucinations, however, rarely took a malignant form. One of his most beautiful visitors was of a fairy funeral. "I was walking alone in my garden," he said. "There was a great stillness among the branches and flowers and more than common sweetness in the air. I heard a low and pleasant sound and knew not whence it came. 'At last I saw the broad leaf of a flower move, and underneath I saw a procession of creatures of the size and color of green and gray grasshoppers, bearing a body laid out on a rose leaf, which they buried with songs and then disappeared. It was a fairy's funeral.'"—Chicago News.

Merciful.

Mrs. A.—I do love lobsters, but I never have them at home because it seems so inhuman to kill them by putting them in a kettle of boiling water. Mrs. B.—Gracious! I never kill them that way—it would be too horrible. I always put them on in cold water and let them come to a boil.—Boston Transcript.

No Satisfying Her. "Women are hard to understand." "Think so?" "Yes; I told her she carried her age well, and she was offended." "You don't say?" "Yes, and then I told her she didn't carry it well, and she wouldn't speak."—Philadelphia Record.

Misnamed. Wife—I say, do you know the girl in the flat above us won a piano at the charity bazaar lottery yesterday? Husband—A piano? Great Scott! And that's what they call a charity bazaar!—Megdendorfer Blatter.

Ever Faithful. "He's always wanting to borrow money from me." "A fair weather friend merely?" "Oh, no. He has also borrowed several umbrellas."—Pittsburg Post.

ST. LOUIS REFUSES MOVING PICTURES

Display Would Be Grave Mistake, According to Authorities, Who Fear Renewal of Race Riots.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 6.—The board of police commissioners announced that the proposed display of motion pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight will not be permitted.

The police believe that with thousands of negroes in St. Louis eager to show their admiration for Jack Johnson and their belief that the big black can whip any white man living, would become riotous after viewing the pictures.

The display of the pictures in St. Louis would be a grave mistake, according to the authorities, and would result in arousing bitter race feeling that might result in bloodshed.

COLORADO GOVERNOR TO PERMIT PICTURES

DENVER, Col., July 6.—A movement is on foot in Colorado today to ask the governor and the mayors of all Colorado cities to bar the moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight.

Governor John F. Shafroth issued a statement today saying he would not attempt to bar the pictures. He declared that such action would be outside his province.

The supervisors of Denver will meet Tuesday to decide whether they will bar the pictures here.

WHITES AND BLACKS TO SEE PICTURES SEPARATELY

NEW ORLEANS, La., July 6.—The victory of Jack Johnson over Jeffries will be shown in motion pictures in at least one Southern city. The officials today decided that they would permit the pictures to be shown here but in order to prevent rioting whites and blacks will not be allowed to watch the pictures at the same place.

Precautions will be taken where the pictures are displayed to prevent any disturbances.

MAYOR OF ATLANTA FORBIDS ALL PICTURES

ATLANTA, Ga., July 6.—"I will certainly not permit the Jeffries-Johnson pictures to be shown in Atlanta," said Mayor Maddox today. "The pictures would inflame the anti-negro sentiment and the result would be disastrous."

The report of the result of the big fight caused clashes between whites and blacks in Atlanta and it is the opinion of the mayor that to permit the pictures to be shown would renew the trouble and perhaps arouse more feeling than the outcome of the fight.

CHICAGO MAY BAR SALE OF FIREWORKS

CHICAGO, Ill., July 6.—The success of the "same fourth," as shown by dispatches from many parts of the country, today inspired Fire Marshal Horan to recommend to the city council the prohibition of the sale or use of fireworks. The council is considering the passage of such an ordinance.

CONSERVATIONISTS INVITE PRESIDENT

Taft Will Be Asked to Speak From Same Platform as Roosevelt at St. Paul Convention.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 6.—President Taft will be invited to speak from the same platform as former President Roosevelt during the convention of the National Conservation association here in September, according to an announcement of Secretary Thomas R. Shipp today. It is believed by members of the association that the president will accept the invitation.

Roosevelt is expected to give his ideas on conservation and former Forester Pinchot will speak on the same subject.

Former Secretary Garfield will also address the association.

DETROIT'S MAYOR OBJECTS TO PICTURES OF FIGHT

DETROIT, Mich., July 6.—Referring to the fight between Jeffries and Johnson at Reno as a battle between a black stevedore and a white boilermaker, Governor Warner today said:

"I hope that the pictures of this degrading spectacle will not be exhibited in Detroit. I will surely use my influence to bar them throughout the state."

SPOKANE PREACHERS START AN AGITATION

SPOKANE, Wash., July 6.—Members of the Spokane Ministerial Association are preparing opposition to the Jeffries-Johnson pictures in this city. Arrangements are being made for a church mass meeting of all denominations to protest against the motion pictures.

Mayor Pratt said that he does not believe that any official action will be taken prohibiting the exhibition of the pictures, because no notice of intention to exhibit in Spokane has been received.

CINCINNATI BARS ALL FIGHT PICTURES

CINCINNATI, Ohio, July 6.—Declaring that it would be inconsistent to bar prize fights and permit the exhibition of fight pictures, Mayor Schwab today issued an order prohibiting the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures in Cincinnati. Prize fights are not allowed in Ohio.
