

BIG APPLE SHOW FOR PORTLAND

Plans Are Laid for Holding of Greatest Fruit Display Oregon Metropolis Has Ever Seen—All Sections to Participate.

Portland will have a big apple show in November. Former apple shows held here will fade into insignificance in comparison, says the Oregonian.

The show will assume national importance, because of the prominence of Oregon as an apple state. While the display will not be in any way a rival, in a competitive sense, of the National Apple Show at Spokane, it is expected that in a few years it will equal even that event in importance, for it is intended to add to the scope of the show and make it an annual affair.

The Oregon State Horticultural society planned the coming apple show, but the hearty co-operation and backing of all the business interests of the city, the Commercial club, the hotel men and others have been secured and all are working with enthusiasm.

The Commercial club has offered a $100 trophy for the best showing of 50 boxes of apples. The Hotel Oregon has offered a $50 trophy. Other offers of financial assistance are being made and even thus early there is no doubt of the success of the affair, judging from the general enthusiasm and liberal backing.

The November apple show will mark the quarter centennial of the Oregon State Horticultural society, and special exercises will be held on that account. It is thought nothing could be more fitting to celebrate the completion of the 25th year of the society's existence than the launching of a big apple show that will be held each year, spreading the fame of Oregon's fruit.

Fifty-box exhibits from the apple districts of the state will be arranged for and in this way the whole state will enter into the show and participate freely in the competition for prizes.

The hotel men of the city have named a special committee consisting of Phit Metchan, Jr., C. J. Kaufman, E. D. Jorgensen and M. C. Dickinson. This committee was busy yesterday and the hotels are already lined up for the apple show. The well known hosts of the city are vying with each other in offering trophies for the best apples and a good-natured rivalry has been engendered in this way that will go far toward making the show a great success.

Commercial bodies outside of Portland, it is believed, will donate trophies for county displays. They will be invited to do so soon, so that the promoters will know what to depend upon.

President Atwell of the Horticultural society leaves Saturday for the east, but will return a full month before the apple show opens, and meanwhile will be busy with plans for its success.

TROUBLE FEARED IN GOTHAM

fold since July 4, and citizens who at first were only amused are now viewing the matter in a more serious light.

The police say that pawnshops and hardware stores have done a bigger business in the sale of revolvers during the past four days than at any similar period in recent years. Most of the purchasers are white persons.

A really serious situation has developed at Hammerstein's, where Johnson is scheduled to open Monday night. The management has always barred negroes from the boxes at the roof garden. As a result of their clean-up on the fight, all of the sporty colored people are apparently in the millionaire class and nothing but boxes will do them. So far trouble has been averted by the management stating that all boxes are sold but this subterfuge is not believed to suffice permanently.

Broadway restaurateurs are also worried over the certain attempt which will be made by negro theatre parties to invade their places. Admission will not be granted them and a batch of damage suits are expected to result.

JUSTICE FULLER LAID AT REST

Every Chicago Court Closes and Entire Bar Does Honor to Memory of Aged Jurist Who Recently Passed Away.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 8.—With all Chicago courts closed and the Chicago bar doing honor to his memory, the body of Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller of the United States supreme court was buried in Graceland Cemetery today.

Preceding the burial a brief and simple ceremony was held at St. James Episcopal church at which the Rev. James E. Freeman officiated.

Justices McKenna, White, Holmes, Day and Burton of the supreme court and Governor Hughes of New York, whose nomination to the supreme bench has been confirmed, attended the funeral. Most of the judges and well known members of the Chicago bar were present.

A salute of seventeen guns was fired over Justice Fuller's body.

The active pall-bearers were: Hugh C. Wallace, Nathaniel L. Francis, Samuel L. Moore, sons-in-law of the late chief justice; Melville C. Aubrey and Melville Wallace, grandsons, and Stuart Shepard.

A memorial service in honor of Justice Fuller was held by the Chicago Bar Association July 14.

MAY USE AIRSHIP IN CANADIAN WILDS

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 8.—Word was received here today that capitalists engaged in the promotion of a colonization scheme in the new Caribood district have sent an agent to Berlin to investigate the dependability of the dirigible balloon with the view of installing a commercial airship to operate out of Fort George.

The necessity of securing of immediate and convenient transportation in the district is great and the airship is looked upon as offering the best facilities.

MARSHALL TO TRAIL COLONEL

by Governor Marshall, who will plead the cause of John W. Kern, Bryan's last vice-presidential running mate and the man who aspires to Beveridge's toga.

To an outsider this may sound like attacking a battleship with bow and arrows, but to Hoosiers, it is a different matter. Marshall was forced into the governorship against his own wishes by the Indiana Democratic machine which was in desperate need of a compromise candidate. Marshall responded by ignoring and almost disrupting the Indiana Democratic machine and giving the state a splendid non-partisan administration. As a result he has achieved tremendous popularity and has been mentioned frequently as a 1912 presidential possibility.

He has studiously avoided the limelight but it is believed that if he sets on the trail of Col. Roosevelt, to many of whose policies he is violently opposed, the fire will fly.

Despite this, the announcement that Roosevelt is to enter the lists here was most unwelcome news to the Democratic organization. The colonel has a tremendous popularity in Indiana, where the insurgent movement is rapidly gaining in strength, and the fact that he has apparently decided to come out flat-footed for the progressive movement will intensify his popularity, it is said. The issue here this fall is the election of a legislature which will either return Beveridge or choose a Democratic successor to him. John W. Kern, the announced choice of the state Democratic convention for the senatorship is looked up on as something of a chronic candidate and is also said to be a close ally of Thomas Taggart, the erstwhile state boss, who has been practically unhorsed by Governor Marshall. Kern has repudiated this idea, and his statements will have weight added to them should Governor Marshall enter the lists in his behalf.

Indiana is undoubtedly in a state of political revolt. Even the regular Republican leaders admit this frankly. It is also said that a number of the old line Fairbanks organization men are out to knife Beveridge. Whether the revolt will be capitalized by Beveridge under the insurgent banner or by Kern under the Democratic is a question admitted to hinge largely upon the ability of Roosevelt as a political prestidigitator.

WOMAN AVIATOR DASHED TO EARTH

Judge Gantenbein, While Addressing Spanish-American War Veterans, Gives as His Belief That We Will War With Japanese.

RHEIMS, France, July 8.—Baroness de La Roche, a noted woman aviator, fell from an aeroplane at the international aviation meet at Bethany Plains today and was fatally injured.

The baroness fell 80 feet. When taken from the wreckage of her Volzin biplane she was dying.

The accident is the first that has ever happened to a woman in the history of aviation.

The baroness sustained minor injuries last January in a flight at Mourmelon. Her previous experience, however, did not daunt her, and as soon as she was able to enter an aeroplane again she took up the dangerous sport of aviation.

In February she went to Egypt and engaged in flights at Heliopolis, near Cairo.

Besides being an aviator, the baroness excels in other sports, being automobile driver, motor cyclist and horse woman.

the state of Oregon, and for my district. Among other things that I secured was an appropriation of over $400,000 in the rivers and harbors bill, including $300,000 for the locks at Oregon City, $60,000 for the Willamette above Oregon City, $56,000 for the Coquille River, $50,000 for the Siuslaw, and in the public buildings bill $110,000 for Medford for a postoffice building, courthouse and site, $10,000 for a site a Roseburg, and to the extent of $20,000,000 I furnished all the assistance possible.

"In addition, I took up with the Secretary of the Interior the allotment of money out of the old fund for the Klamath project. I also secured the promise of a soil survey in the Rogue River Valley from Ashland to Grants Pass, and got through the House a provision for the payment of what Oregon expended during the Civil War.

Why Siletz Bill Died.

"Had my Siletz bill passed the Senate earlier than it did, it would not have been vetoed. I saw the president the morning the bill went to him and was confident it would be signed and knew nothing of an adverse report which was to be sent from the department of the interior. If I had had a little more time to see the president, I am sure the bill would have passed."

JOHNSON MAY MEET BURNS IN SEPTEMBER

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—Jack Johnson's next bow in the squared circle will be before the National Sporting club of London in a match with Tommy Burns for the championship, if the Australian promoter Hugh McIntosh succeeds in the mission which took him east today. He already has Burns' signature to a contract for the battle, which he hopes to pull off about September 1, and is very hopeful of getting the negro to agree to the match.
