

ONLY ONE GAME TO BE PLAYED

Lineup of Both Teams Strong—
Medford Will Have to Play Ball to Win—Will Be Great Game.

Instead of a double-header Sunday between Medford and Eugene, only one game will be played owing to the inability of the Eugene management to get their extra players in time to reach here for the morning game.

The lineup will be the strongest Medford has yet had, with "Curley" Wilson of Jacksonville, admittedly the best receiver in the league, behind the bat and Coleman or Burgess on the mound. The infield will be the same as last Sunday, except that Henselman takes his old place at third and Hopkins goes to the outfield. The outfield will be John Wilkinson left, Isaacs center, Hopkins right.

The Medford band will furnish music at the ball game Sunday. There is where the crowd will be. Come out and see the southern Oregon champions put it over the Willamette organization—or otherwise. It will be a game worth seeing whichever way it goes.

DISCIPLES OF NEW FAITH ARRIVE IN MEDFORD

There arrived in this city today two men who call themselves simply Thomas and Henry. They are middle-aged men and are quietly dressed, quiet in manner and by no means could they be classed other than they are. These are two men of many others who are running over every part of the known world. They have a message. They are preaching the advent of a new and all-prevailing dispensation. They are not orators nor do their words indicate that they have received a very ornate education, but they give their message in a pleasing manner.

These men are members of a congregation in Benton Harbor, Mich., which believe in the divinity of labor, and to manifest it they have built their own homes and places of worship. They do no harm. They honor their own bodies. They do not believe in death. Black is the emblem of death, hence their newspapers and all their publications are printed in blue on white paper.

It is something impressive to think of this little congregation sending missionaries all over the earth. They go without money in their purses; they do not beg—indeed, they are not eager to accept anything. They ride from place to place on their bicycles, holding services on the streets, conform to the laws, do no evil and think no evil.

You will see them on the streets this evening. Listen to them a moment. They are not barnstormers.

Congressman Dead.

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn., July 9.—Arrangements are being made today for the funeral of Congressman Walter Preston Brownlow, who died at his home here from Bright's disease. The dead man was one of the few Republicans in congress from the southern states. He was first elected to the house in 1896 and was re-elected each time with an increased majority.
