THE FARMER TALKS.

Here's a letter from John in th' city. Ain't heard from him now for a year;

Yes, his handwritin's stylish an' pretty. An' rounded and wonder'f'y clear;

Says he hopes we are all well an' thrivin'. Remarks that June's been rather cool.

But I know jes, at what he is drivin' When he adds that the kids have done school.

Don't hear much from John through the winter. 'Excep' when I go into town,

An' then he don't even begin ter Warm up or git rid of his brown;

Guess he ain't fond of much entertainin'. An' thinks mebbe I am a fool.

Yet, I know jes why he's explainin' The kids will be soon out of school.

Poor John ain't got much excep' trouble. A mortgage or two an' some debts,

An' I sell one hog for jes' double The weekly amount that he gets,

But still John is given to braggin' In the city that's often the rule;

An' his wife is eternally naggin'— So the kids will be soon out of school.

Well, I guess that I'll send for 'em, Jenny, Though I ain't got much use for John,

An' I wouldn't favor him any, But now that th' summer is on,

Those youngsters need sunshine, I'm thinkin' An' air that is fresh an' is cool;

I'm writin' him—darn me, I'm blinkin'. To send 'em when they're out of school.

NEGRO GOES MAD OVER VICTORY OF JOHNSON

CHICAGO, Ill., July 15.—Gone mad over his excitement caused by Jack Johnson's victory, a negro giving his name as James Goldsmith today entered a colored bank and was fatally wounded while trying to escape with $300.

Shouting that Jack Johnson had told him "to get all the money in the world," the negro smashed a window with a brick and leaped into the bank. He made straight for the money counter, and holding the employees at bay with a razor, seized $300 and started to run.

Meantime a crowd had gathered. It set out after the negro. Overtaking him, his pursuers stabbed and beat the robber and fatally wounded him. He was rescued from the mob by police and taken to a hospital, where it is said he will die.

FOREST SERVICE IS TO AID BUILD RAILROAD

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 16.—The forest service announced today that the government would do everything in its power to aid in the development of Northwestern California. The first step was taken this afternoon when the forest bureau authorized a statement that it would sell 1,000,000,000 feet of timber in the Trinity forest reserve on condition that the Humboldt & Eastern railway is completed and operated as far as Wildwood within the next five years.

Promoters of the road have represented that this action by the bureau would be necessary to insure the success of the road.

The terms of the bureau are that the timber shall be removed within ten years after sale. A minimum price of $1.50 per thousand feet for the first five years and $2 per thousand for the second is set. The timber will be auctioned off and reselling and speculating will be prohibited.
