HARVARD TRAINER WILL TRY AND LOWER WESTERN RECORD

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., July 18. Though he is 61 years of age, Chas P. Daniels, until recently a Harvard trainer, is today working with the weights and on the padded track in a local gymnasium. Weston's transcontinental record, Daniels believes, should be lowered, and he proposes to accomplish the feat.

Daniels has not said when he will start on his trip.

STRENGTH SHOWN IN CATTLE MARKET

PORTLAND, Or., July 18,-Recelpts at this market for the week ndeing today are as follows: Cattle 736, calves 293, sheep 3211, hogs

There has been a surprising amount of strength in cattle values and the market spread in price be veen poor and today (Wednesday) 14 cars of quality and good quality cattle is steadily growing wider. One load of Top quality steers brought $5.65 and thin and poor quality steers sold 1.175 as low as $3.80, some of that quality having been taken by feeders.

The sheep market has been poorly 1.00 supplied and the demand has been strong. Good lambs sold for $6, and buyers have been eager for more.

In sympathy with the big decline on the eastern markets, hog prices here went off 5 cents per hundred, buyers the opportunity to take off bunches. more than that amount, Good top quality hogs sold for $10.25 and > of his faculties and his limbs. Upon leaving the hospital a harness to support his head was fixed up for Dermond and he wore it most of the time up to a year ago. Since > then he has worn it very little. Dermond takes long walks in Fairmount Park, but he has to be strapped to his bed at night to check any sudden movement which might dislocate something. He never sleeps, but lies in a kind of stupor, hearing distinctly the slightest sound near him.

Probing Transfer Frauds.

ALBANY, July 18 .- Unable to se cure favorable action by the legislature at its regular session, and later at its special session, for the enactment of laws which would prohibit the fraudulent use of stock transfer stamps, Comptroller Williams, it is understood, is making an investigation in New York City which may result in the prosecution of many persons. Comptroller Williams regards as serious a condition which is said to exist in New York, where stock transfer stamps for several years have been sold illegally, with a loss to the state annually of at least $1,000,000.

It has been discovered that mes senger boys in brokers' offices have been induced to exchange good in addition a sum less than the face them at a slight discount. Scores of

Useful Things Should Be Used --- By Someone

How many really valuable things do you own that are useless to you?

How many things are simply in your way that other people would be willing to pay a fair price for? Take an "account of stock" among your chattels and "things."

Privately, if you wish, sell the SUPERFLUOUS things-through a classified ad. The cost is small so keep it "there" for a while, and your buyers will materialize.
