

HUNTERS MAKING READY FOR DEER

Season Opens on August 1—Many Women Apply—Deer Reported to Be Plentiful in Foothills—Many Nimrods Prepare for Sport.

In three short weeks the crack of rifles will be heard throughout the mountains of southern Oregon where the fleet-footed deer is found, for the season will open on August 1 and already preparations are being made by local people to take advantage of the law and, judging from the great sale of hunters' licenses, the antlered game will be given a warm reception. The women as well as the men will take to the hills at the first of the month and will spend days in quest of bucks. In fact, the army of hunters who are securing licenses is large enough to exterminate all the deer in Oregon if they all were successful. Fortunately for the deer family, most of the hunters will return with new experience only.

Reports from different sections of the country indicate that deer are plentiful and the sportsmen should have a good season. Large bucks have been seen in the various districts, especially by tourists visiting Crater Lake.

ROOSEVELT NEUTRAL

be adopted by the various republican state conventions this fall," the statement added.

This statement is considered by politicians the most important the former president has made since his return from his African hunt. They declare it shows that Roosevelt will fight for the insurgents, but that his fight will be a general one for insurgent principles and not for individual candidates at least until after the nominations have been made.

Roosevelt said his talk with Kinkead was general and that politics were not discussed.

Congressman Cocks after his visit in the Outlook office, said that he had discussed the New York political situation in a general way with Roosevelt.

"We discussed the chairmanship of the state committee and the substitution of certain committeemen for men now holding the places," Cook said. "We debated state political conditions generally. There is no definite attempt under way to control the state committee or depose Chairman Timothy L. Woodruff if he does not resign in favor of some progressive."

Congressman Foelker today said that Roosevelt would not seek reelection.

"I told the colonel I was an insurgent," said Foelker, "and pointed out to him that the one thing aiding the democrats is Cannonism."

EXPLOSION DESTROYS ZEPPELIN GAS PLANT

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Germany, July 19.—The hydrogen plant of the Zeppelin balloon house exploded today and a number of employees were severely injured. The house was practically destroyed and buildings near by in which the workmen lived were badly wrecked.

The cause of the explosion is not known. The gas exploded during the morning when the workmen were about the big workshop in which Count Zeppelin is carrying on his experiments in aeronautics.

That none of the workmen were killed is considered remarkable.

FOLK DESCRIBES GOVERNMENT WAR

guiding principle of private life. Comparisons Faulty.

The most conspicuous fault of state and city governments in the United States today is that they are governments by the few and not by the people. There has been improvement in the last few years, but there remains much to be done in the direction of better things.

There is still too much aggressiveness, selfishness and avarice, and too little aggressive patriotism. If the patriotism could be made as aggressive as the rottenness the problem of good government everywhere would be solved by the people taking the government in their own hands. If corruption exists anywhere the people are to blame. If corruption is to be eradicated the people alone can do it. What is needed is more of the kind of patriotism that fights for city, state and county every day; the kind of patriotism that will go into battles of peace as readily as into battles of war.

Evil Forces United.

When the lawless get a bad man in office they support him in all the evil that he does; but when the law-abiding get a man in office too often they are ready to criticize him, and leave him to fight the battles without their active aid. That is the trouble. Good men are divided and bad men are united. If good citizens could only be induced to join hands in patriotic endeavor before the election and stay joined after the election, the forces of error would be vanquished like evil spirits at the dawn of day.

A government is good as the average morality of the average individual is progressive, and a government is bad in proportion as the average morality is low and lethargic. When good citizens attend to their civic duties their civic energy is represented in good officials. When they are careless their slothfulness is represented by corrupt officials.

Public Indifference.

Our government in theory gives more rights than any other, but some think so little of their obligation to the general welfare that they are indifferent to being robbed so long as they do not feel the effects directly, and are among the many. The sin of republics is lawlessness. In a monarchy the government is maintained by the power of the crown. In a republic the government rests entirely on the law which a majority of the people make for themselves. The reign of law means the rule of the people. The moral revolution that is now sweeping over the land is merely a revival of the rule of the people.

The welfare of the city or state should always be the first and highest consideration. Some of you may belong to this party—some may belong to that party, but all should be patriots. Be patriots before you are anything else. The people—the average voter, you and I, are responsible for the future of this government. If the American republic is to survive it must be saved by the efforts of the patriotic citizens who want nothing for themselves but the advantages that accrue from the general public weal. If the public learn to appreciate this, learn to know the dangers that threaten our future and learn the strength that rests with the voters, the future of this government is assured.

Greatest Menace.

Too many are indifferent, and this indifference of voters is the greatest menace to a Republican form of government. Arouse the voters to an understanding of the danger, convince them that they are personally and directly concerned, get them moving once and they are invincible. But while most people are honest, they are inactively so, while the vicious minority are perniciously active. It is not enough to be merely honest, the good citizen should be aggressive in his opposition to graft and corruption. Lawbreakers have nothing to fear from passive opposition, but they must yield to active and aggressive fighters. We need more fighters in the army of peace. We must fight for everything that is worth having; we must fight against everything bad. The farmer must not only be personally opposed to weeds, but he must cut them down and make an active warfare against them, or his crops will be ruined. In governmental affairs the same relation exists between the useful grain that must be sown and cared for and worthless thistles and weeds that will spring up of their own accord anywhere. A government neglected will no more become good than a neglected field will grow corn and wheat.

The future of our government rests upon the integrity of the citizen and upon his activity in public

CUTHBERT & CO. INCORPORATED

Organization of New Furniture and Household Goods House Is Completed—To Occupy Building Now Being Erected.

Incorporation papers for G. F. Cuthbert & Co. have been filed with the secretary of state. The new company is capitalized for $25,000 and its officers are: J. D. Cuthbert, president; G. F. Cuthbert, vice-president and manager; H. W. Grunski, secretary and treasurer.

The company plans to open a large department store in the new building being erected at Central avenue and Sixth street for them by A. A. Davis. They will handle complete lines of furniture and household goods and other departments.

J. D. Cuthbert is father of G. F. Cuthbert, a member of the firm of W. J. Sloane of New York and San Francisco. He is at present in Medford, but will leave soon for New York. He has just returned from one and one-half years in Europe.

SOLID WEEK WATER SPORTS

From August 15th to 22d, inclusive, Coos Bay will be the scene of continuous merriment.

During that week there will be motor boat races of the class of "General II," "Seattle Spirit," "Wolf II," and other fast boats of 30 miles an hour or better. A large prize will be hung up for this event, also a valuable loving cup, by the Coos Bay Motor Boat club, which association will have charge of the water sports. The club has a large program of small races daily.

A magnificent water parade daily, both in the afternoon and evening, a pageant of floats worth going miles to see.

There will be clam bakes, barbecues, beach rides, sea bathing, hunting and fishing parties, automobilizing, carnival attractions, receptions, conventions, and a general good time for all.

The auto road from Roseburg is in fine shape, the trip being made daily in seven hours. Auto parties may go there in perfect confidence of reaching the place without mishap, as there have been many thousands of dollars spent on the road, putting it in fine shape.

At this season of the year, while the people of the Willamette valley are sweltering with the heat, Coos Bay is at her best, enjoying a cool and refreshing sea breeze, which to believe fully one must experience personally.

A novel s on foot and the committee has assurances of obtaining two or three battleships or cruisers, to appear in the offing during the week. This will afford an opportunity to go on board our great gunboats, a privilege rarely extended the average civilian.

Information regarding the carnival and regatta may be had by addressing the secretary of the Coos Bay Deep Water Carnival and Regatta.

Good government must begin at home, in cities and towns, and proceed from there to state and nation. This government rests not on the wealth of a few, but upon the character and integrity of the average individual.

HIBERNIANS IN NATIONAL MEET

Forty-Seventh Convention Opens at Portland With Twelve Hundred Delegates and Two Thousand Visitors in Attendance.

PORTLAND, Or., July 19.—The 47th national convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians opened here today with the celebration of pontifical high mass at the Catholic cathedral. Most Rev. Archbishop Christie officiated, Right Rev. John Carroll of Helena, Mont., preached the sermon.

Twelve hundred convention delegates and 2000 visitors attended the mass.

Immediately after worship the delegates marched to the Masonic Temple, where the convention was formally called to order by E. Sullivan of Portland, the chairman of the national program committee.

At noon the ladies' auxiliary was scheduled to be called to order at the Knights of Pythias hall.

Approximately 5000 members of the order are in Portland today and as many more are expected before the convention is brought to a close Saturday evening. This is said to be the largest number that attended any convention since the order was created.

It was announced the delegates would be the guests of the Portland Commercial club for a sightseeing trip around the city this afternoon. This evening a buffet luncheon will be tendered the Hibernians by the Commercial club at the Commercial club building.

Later in the evening the Hibernians will hold their convention, banquet and ball at the Masonic hall.

HOT WEATHER AFFECTS THE SKIN.

Tender skins are bound to be affected by the increased amount of poison in the copious perspiration thrown off during hot weather. Rashes, lites, blotches, pimples, prickly heat result. Often, too, serious skin troubles begin this way. To wash away the poison entirely, to clean and cool the skin, make an application of a simple solution of wintergreen with thymol, known as D. D. D. Prescription for eczema. It is sold for the purpose in dollar bottles, but we can give you for 25 cents enough D. D. D. to keep your skin fresh and clean from summer blemishes.

If there is any itch this wintergreen lotion will take it away instantly, the very second it is applied to the skin. We assure you of this, for we have seen the result with D. D. D. Medford Pharmacy, near postoffice.
