THE DEBUTANTE.

Charming Frocks She May Wear to Dinner and Dances.

Costliness need not be a factor of the debutante's gowns, but instead fresh and perfect neatness are far more essential. Her wardrobe should include at least six evening gowns. If she happens to be very popular and goes to five evening entertainments a week the six gowns will not take her very far unless continually freshened and made over, for the debutante evening gown must not be made of heavy materials. The lighter and daintier and more perishable it is the better, chiffons, tulle and laces being used to the exclusion almost of silk, satin or velvet. And if costly laces and chiffons are employed the effect ought still to be simple. Two crush dances often practically demolish a tulle gown.

PARTY CREATION IN PINK.

Perhaps the hardest time of all for the mother of a debutante is when the coming out party successfully accomplished, invitations begin to pour in for the debutante. At first these are easily managed, coming, as they do, mostly from close friends, but as the debutante goes to one and another affair, meeting many strangers not known to her parents, the invitations are not so easily managed and left to herself, the girl would inevitably make decisions of which her mother would not approve. There will be a tempting invitation to a house party, an automobile party, a theater party, and so on from one and another person not on her mother's calling list, but whose daughter may have attended school with her. This is all right and proper enough for the sender of the invitation, and the debutante would be quite right to accept provided her mother likes to add the sender of the invitation to her visiting list; otherwise the invitation, no matter how alluring, must be regretted. But, to come back to the question of the debutante's evening frocks, the illustration shows a charming model in pink mousseline de sole with gray knot decorations as the principal trimming. It is simple and exquisitely dainty.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY.

After a trying day nothing is more restful to the head than a cloth saturated in toilet water and laid across the temples. A good toilet water can be made at home with lavender water, rosewater and acetic acid.
 Bicarbonate of soda when taken before meals will reduce flesh. Take a small spoonful to a glass of water. Many physicians recommend soda, but the treatment must be persevered with and not taken for awhile and then dropped.
 Many women have a wrong understanding of the bang, believing it is only for children and young girls. In this they are mistaken, as the bang softens features that are hard, conceals the little wrinkles about the temples and acts as a sort of veil to the heavy lines across the forehead. All women of mature appearance should wear the bang, but it must be treated artistically.
 Since the days of Cleopatra rain-water has been considered the best of cosmetics for the complexion, and a walk in the rain is of more aid to the face than a quantity of medicine. Not only the contact with the fresh water, but also the dampness of the atmosphere, thoroughly cleanses the tissues, effacing from the skin all the wrinkles formed by heat or worry. Long naps and walks are also beneficial.
 Sufferers from insomnia should avoid sweet desserts at night as well as tea, coffee and greasy foods. Whether it is better to retire with an empty stomach can be determined only by experiment in each individual case. One of the best ways, says the same authority, to draw the blood from the brain before retiring is to take a moderate swift walk. If there is still difficulty in getting to sleep, a tepid bath and a gentle rub will bring the blood from the brain to the surface of the body. If the cause of sleeplessness is susceptibility to sound, stuffing the ears with medicated cotton will be useful.

FUEL COMPANY SELLS B. C. LANDS TO BRITONS

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 21.—The properties of the Western Fuel company of San Francisco, embracing 35,000 acres of coal bearing lands near Nanaimo, have, according to generally credited reports, passed into the hands of a British syndicate, the deal having been put through by John L. Howard, the president of the company, during a recent visit to London. The purchase price of the property is put at $3,500,000.
 The Western Fuel company was incorporated on December 12, 1902, with a capitalization of $1,500,000, and has, during the intervening years, carried on an extensive business in California, acquiring the reputation of controlling the market in that state. It is said that the price paid by them for the property involved in the present deal was approximately $650,000, thus showing a magnificent profit apart from what was made by operation.

WANTS MONEY DAMAGES FOR DETECTIVE'S DEATH

NEWARK, O., July 21.—Liking county today has an opportunity to make remunerative amends for the lynching of Carl Etherington the Anti-Saloon league detective hanged by a mob in Newark after he had shot and killed a cafe owner during a raid on alleged "blind tigers."
 George Bohn, administrator of Etherington's estate, has made formal demand on the county for $5000 damages.

EXPRESS SCHEDULE FOR YAKIMA FRUIT TRAINS

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., July 21.—The Northern Pacific will undertake to provide a five-day schedule for fruit trains out of the Yakima valley to St. Paul through the rush of the peach season, provided grovers ship thirty cars per day for Fargo and beyond. This decision was reached yesterday at a conference between officials of the railroad and the shippers of this valley.

Itching Skin Quickly Cooled.

Itching skin troubles some people as soon as the hot weather comes. There seems to be no preventive, but when the trouble does break out it is a very simple matter to stop that itch, and to stop it instantly.
 Just a few drops of gentle winter-gren lotion mixed with thymol and washed over the eruption will soothe and smooth the skin instantly, giving that cooled, refreshing sensation. Try a 25-cent bottle of this lotion, D. D. D. Prescription. It will stop the itch, not in half an hour, not in ten minutes, but in five seconds. If you will call at our store, we will tell you more of this D. D. D. compound. Medford Pharmacy, near Postoffice.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 21.—Mrs. Annie Sholes of Los Angeles and Joseph H. Lucas have been arrested, charged with the alleged theft of $5000 worth of diamonds from the home of Mrs. J. C. Jones, wife of a prominent St. Louis attorney. Lucas was arrested in St. Louis and Mrs. Sholes in Detroit.

Wedding Ring on Right Hand.

In Denmark a widow is always known by the hand on which she wears her wedding ring. Instead of wearing both engagement and wedding rings on the same finger, as we do, Danish brides wear only one plain gold band on their left third finger, which is the wedding finger in that country. When the husband dies the widow changes her ring to her right third finger, and then everybody knows that she is a widow.

NO "BEST SELLERS" TO FIND PLACE IN MINNEAPOLIS

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 21.—Minneapolis today is preparing to take a seat on the exclusive bench of literature. Lest the tastes of aesthetic citizens be lowered, hereafter the Apollos and Venuses that romp through the pages of the "best sellers" will find no place in the Minneapolis library.
 Robert W. Chambers and Robert Herrick are included among the authors on whose books the ban is placed.
 The librarians propose to instill "serious" knowledge into the minds of readers.

NEURESTHENIA.

John had neuresthenia— Cannot tell you why— Knew there was no hope for him; And so went home to die.

John announced his tragic fate, And said unto his chums, "I might as well enjoy myself Until the summons comes."

And then he went a-fishing Every morning for a week, Took a swim each afternoon And then, in manner meek, Began to take an interest In work—heard nature's call; But, instead of mooring around, He whitewashed the house, the Barn, the garage, the chicken house and the corn crib; hauled Gravel from a gravel pit in The woods and made paths Where paths were necessary; Chopped wood, carried water; Did more fishing, more swimming; More driving; ate large Quantities of plain food; Drank large Quantities of water and Buttermilk; And didn't die at all!

Blood For Bread.

Hunger! To what lengths will it drive men! Here is a passage from "Force," a tale of Napoleon's days describing how ten veteran hussars under a young officer, after two days without food, fought like fends for a loaf of bread stolen from a woodman: "He trembled with covetousness, but he did not move. He was starving, but he was an officer."
 "The foremost rider speared the loaf up with his saber, clutched it and began to eat. The others quickly closed in on him. He was gripped from behind and half strangled. The bread fell into the mud. The men then began to fight in bitter earnest, and their sabers flashed dimly in the falling rain. One of them reeled under a saber stroke and fell back on his horse."
 "He (the officer) flung himself in the melee and was thrown from his horse. As he crawled along the mud out of the way of the trampling hoofs he put his hand on the bread. His fears at once vanished. He bent over his prize, hiding it from view of the struggling soldiers, and lowered his head and got the loaf under his teeth and ate it."

One of the places advertised for rent would make your kind of a home perhaps.
