FARMERS ARE TO FIGHT BIG TRUST

Oregon Wheat Growers Subscribe $400,000 to Break Grip of Flour Men in Umatilla Country-To erect Two Mills.

PENDLETON, Or., July 21 .- To break the grip of the "milling trusts" over $400,000 has been subscribed by wealthy farmers of Umatilla county and the Walla Waila valley toward the construction of two flour mills, according to H. H. McLean, president of the local Farmers' Union. McLean says the new "farmer combine" will likewise cause to be constructed a power plant to supply electricity to operate the mills.

The movement was started by the farmers to break the power of the so-called milling trust in the north-

McLean declared that the farmers will not bleach their flour.

Y. M. G. A. ASSURED FOR CENTRAL POINT

CENTRAL POINT, July 21.-An A. was held in the opera house this afternoon when H. H. Tuttle of Medspeakers from other places will deliver addresses in line with the regular Y. M. C. A. work.

A meeting of the board of directors was held Tuesday evening, which was devoted in most part to threshing out details of the coming campaign. The soliciting committee reported that 160 members have now been secured and as soon as the 200 mark has been reached attention will at once be given to the matter of erecting a building.

The project now seems to have gone far enough that its consummation is assured and the men who are behind it seem to be of the type who do not know how to quit.

70 MEN FIGHT SANTIAM FIRE

Three Lose Lives in Surging Forest Fire-Much Timber Is Destroyed on Government Preserves-Mills Are Threatened.

ALBANY, Or., July 21.-Seventy med are fighting a forest fire along the North Santiam river, at the terminus of the Corvallis & Eastern railway, that has taken a toll of three lives already. The fire is reported to be beyond control, and rain is the only hope of the fire-fighters.

Undertakers left Albany today for the scene of the fire to bring back the bodies of three men who were burned to death Tuesday.

The dead men are: PHILIP RICHMOND of Salem, Or. JAY M. BROOKS of Crawford-

FRANK M'GOEY of Clearfield, Pa All were employes of the Hoover Lumber company.

The timber which was destroyed was on the government forest reserve and on property owned by the Hoover ter. The first match is to be with

When the fire threatened the mill Tuesday night three victims climbed a hill to secure some tools that they enthusiastic meeting of the Y. M. C. had left exposed. At the time the wind was blowing the fire away from the hillside. They had hardly started on their way, however, before the secretary at Grand Forks, N. D., addressed the meeting. Similar meetings have been arranged for each at racehorse speed. The men were Sunday afternoon, when excellent overtaken before they could reach the summit of the hill. Their bodies were recovered late yesterday afternoon. Until then it was believed they had escaped.

Early today the fire had burned over an area of more than two miles. There is a quantity of valuable timber directly in its path.

Another fire is reported to be dothe extent of the blaze.
