

GREAT STRIKE IN ENGLAND IS NOW AT AN END

Factories and Mills Are Gradually Reopening—Railroads Begin Running Their Trains Again—Situation Is Greatly Improved.

NEWCASTLE, England, July 22.— Trains on the Northeastern railroad are running again today and the great strike which tied up a large part of England and spread to Scotland, throwing thousands of men out of work, is over.

Factories and mills, closed down because of their inability to get coal and handle freight, are gradually reopening. Mines which closed down because the mined coal could not be shipped away will open as soon as the railroad can take away the excess at the mines. In a few days things will be running normally again.

The railroad today is congested with freight, which for two days has been accumulating in the railroad yards. Passenger traffic is being handled as usual.

TATTERED FLAGS SHOW GOVERNMENT ECONOMY

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 22.— A striking example of the economical reform in the running expenses of the government was shown the other day in the form of a "patched" United States flag floating from the roof of the department of commerce and labor. This demonstration of the methods which the officials in the departments are instituting to reduce the current expenses has attracted widespread attention.

A general reform from the methods of the "days of plenty" is in progress and has resulted in the retrenchment in pens, pencils, paper and all office necessities. Some officials in the government service are growing so cautious that in order to eliminate the careless use of such articles they take the name of each applicant and date on which the pen, pencil or whatever it may be, is issued.

Numerous other little checks are noticeable throughout the departments, and it looks at present as though other flags, patched and wind-beaten, may appear at the mastsheads of the various buildings at least until New Mexico and Arizona are admitted officially, when all departments will be supplied with new flags of 48 stars.

BOY RECOVERS FROM CASE OF HYDROPHOBIA

PORTLAND, July 22.—Five months ago 15-year-old Paul Lefur, of Maygers Station, Oregon, was bitten by a mad dog. Last Friday he suddenly developed symptoms of hydrophobia, and to day he is at St.
Vincent's hospital suffering from a full developed case of rabies in an advanced stage.

Until yesterday forenoon the boy was so violent when seized with the convulsions that he had to be confined in a straightjacket and guarded all the time by nurses. He frothed at the mouth, while droppings of white foam fell from his lips. He barked like a dog, growled and tried to bite those who came near him. He moaned piteously for water, but when it was brought him he could not drink it. This is considered an almost unerring sign of hydrophobia.

Yesterday forenoon, after having been confined to a straight jacket all the previous night, young Lefur suddenly ceased his struggle, his stiffened muscles relaxed and he became quiet and normal. For the first time since he was brought to the hospital he was able to comprehend where he was at. This surprising and entirely unexpected development which physicians frankly admit that they are unable to explain, has given hope that the life of the suffering lad can be saved.

This perplexing condition of deceptive half recovery is the only thing in which young Lefur's case differs from other cases of hydrophobia on record. It is one symptom that is different from ordinary cases of rabies.

So far as is known the first case of hydrophobia that has ever occured in Oregon. Not even a dog has had rabies here in the knowledge of local physicians.

The bite occurred five months ago and little attention was paid to it.
It was a long time in healing and a few days ago the symptoms of rabies broke out.

ROBBERS OF CHINA-JAPAN MAIL CONFESS

FAIRFIELD, Calif., July 22.— Telling a story which in detail corroborated that told by his companion, Charles Dunbar today confessed to the robbery of the China-Japan mail near Goodyear in April.

Dunbar made his statement before Sheriff McDonald and District Attorney Raines and other witnesses.

His story was similar to that told by Carl Bishop, alias J. C. Brown, who confessed a few days ago.

After the confession was made, Dunbar signed a written statement.

The two robbers will be given a preliminary hearing tomorrow.
Both told stories that they were both willing to plead guilty and that they would do so tomorrow.

According to the story told they fled in a buggy that they had stolen.
They went to Los Angeles and were driven to Sacramento where they were captured.

A cool customer will buy with less palaver.

He—or she—will be better natured, less cranky and easier to sell to; and you know it.

Moreover, you yourself, and your employes, will be in a better selling mood—if your store is cool and pleasant than if it is sticky and suffocating and savors of a boiler-
