

WANT EXHIBIT AT VANCOUVER

Rogue River Valley Asked to Display at Canadian National Apple Show - $25,000 in Prizes, $11,000 for Carload Exhibits Alone.

Levi G. Monroe, former secretary of the Spokane chamber of commerce and the man who first fathered the Spokane Apple Show, writes that he is engaged in promoting the Canadian National Apple Show to be held at Vancouver, B. C., October 31 to November 5, 1910, at which $25,000 is offered in cash prizes.

Vancouver, B. C., July 21, 1910. I have written to several of the Rogue River valley fruit growers who were exhibitors at the Spokane show last year relative to the importance of making an exhibit, at least a collective exhibit, at the Canadian show, for the reason that the exhibition here is going to be extensively exploited in England, which as you know is a desirable market for the surplus output of northwest apples, and a good buffer to keep up prices in the American markets.

I believe this of sufficient importance for the Commercial club of Medford to take hold of. Why not make a comprehensive exhibit for the entire Rogue River valley? You might get the Ashland Commercial club to join with you. Anyhow, if the Medford Commercial club would take the initiative I believe that you would be able to interest a sufficient number of the growers to make individual exhibits at Vancouver. This may be the only national apple show which Canada will hold, and is therefore of paramount importance to you as an advertising medium. Again let me call to your attention the fact that the management of the first Canadian Apple Show is offering $11,000 in cash for prizes in the carload exhibits alone, which is more cash money than was ever paid out for an entire premium list by any other national apple exposition.

SUGGEST COB PIPE FOR ALICE

Pittsburg Society Leaders Attack Alice Longworth, Who Finds Defender Who Recommends a Return to the Custom of Ancestors.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 23—Mrs. Alice Longworth, daughter of Ex-President Roosevelt, today has to thank an elderly lady, whose name is kept "sub-rosa," for defending her before a meeting of the Pittsburg Playgoers' club last night, when the question of whether or not Mrs. Longworth smoked cigarettes came up.

The club's membership is confined to Pittsburg society leaders. The cigarette question was launched incidentally, but before it had been under discussion long the meeting was turned into a debating society.

When Mrs. Longworth's name was mentioned the unknown elderly lady pointed to the fact that many of our grandmothers smoked.

"Alice might do worse things than smoke—if she does smoke," she said. "But supposing she does smoke, why not let her get a corncob and smoke as our grandmothers did?"

POLICE CAPTURE EUGENE BOOTLEGGERS

On telegraphic information from Eugene, Leslie Gordon was arrested by Policeman Hinton Friday on a charge of selling liquor without license in a dry town at that.

Gordon had been conducting a rooming house, which is alleged to have contained a "blind pig." In the recent raid made by the police, in which several places were found where the stuff that inebriates were found, Gordon's place was included, a warrant was issued for him, but he had left town. He was finally located here and arrested.

Deputy Sheriff R. M. Pratt arrived Friday night and Saturday morning took his prisoner back to Eugene.

The soon-to-start vacationists may finally settle as to where to go by studying today's want ads.

PARTY PRIMARIES IN TEXAS OPEN TOMORROW

DALLAS, Texas, July 23.—The final spellbinding of the Texas Democratic primary campaign ends today. Tomorrow the polls open for the party primaries and a thousand democratic speakers in automobiles are hustling through the state in behalf of the respective candidates.

The most general prediction is that W. C. Poindexter, a friend of Senator Bailey, probably be nominated for governor. There are three other candidates for the nomination.
