Eagle Point Eaglets

—By—
A. C. Howlett.

I. Whitley, who has been engaged running a donkey engine at Butte Falls, was doing business in Eagle Point recently.

Ira J. Dodge, George Trace and F. Morais were here last Thursday looking for hogs and chickens.

Frank E. Carpenter, a concrete contractor of Ashland, who has been stopping at the Sunnyside for several days, with his wife, started for home Thursday morning. He is so favorably impressed with Eagle Point that he says he is coming back.

Benton Bowers and two brothers by the name of Farmer, one from Iowa and the other from Oklahoma, with the wife and little son of one, called Thursday for dinner and returned for supper. Mr. Bowers was taking them over a tract of land he bought recently of C. C. Beckman, also showing them some of the attractive features of the Butte creek country. They seemed to be very much pleased with our rattle valley along the banks of Little Butte creek.

The P. & E. Railroad company are putting a force of men on now and have commenced to lay the track. They also have a gang of bridge carpenters at work on the desert north of Eagle Point, where they have unloaded the timbers to be framed ready to be put together as they are needed for bridges. They are also establishing two camps along the route, and from all appearances are going to have the cars running into the big timber this fall.

Elder J. P. Moomaw, who moved to Josephine county a short time ago, was smiling on his friends here again the past week. He came after a load of household goods.

George W. Daley, Sr., is taking his

Indictments Against a Number of Members of State Legislature Are Sure to Follow Session of Grand Jury Which Meets This Week.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 1.—Indictments against a number of members of the state legislature, it has been learned, are sure to follow the session of the Sangamon County grand jury, which will meet for deliberation this week. A Republican member of the Illinois legislature is said to have confessed to State Attorney Edmund Burke all the details in connection with the big "jack-pot" which the Republican members are alleged to have divided last session.

Both legislators and business men, some of the latter Chicagoans, are named in the confession and at least a dozen subpoenas have been issued for them to appear before the jury. Burke refuses to give out any of the details but it is learned that the member confessing is from the farming district and that his act in accepting money has so preyed upon his conscience that he was forced to talk. It is declared that eight separate and distinct bills have been named as paid for, together with the amounts, the amounts, the persons who put up the money, those who collected it and those who received it.

THIEVES RANSACK HOMES OF PEOPLE ON VACATION

EDGEWOOD, Cal., Aug. 1.—The home of Jack Scott, about two miles south of this city, was entered and robbed some time during the past week while the Scott family was absent on a visit. About $50 worth of silverware was the principal loss.

When Mr. Scott returned home he found that the interior of the home had been thoroughly ransacked. The thieves had gained entrance by breaking a pane of glass from a rear window, undoing the window fastening and raising the sash.

Mrs. Woolley's home was also entered and articles of small value were taken. It is presumed that the same parties are guilty in each instance.

Instead of making an occasional sale of a particular article carried in stock, do some special advertising and make a run on it.

annual outing and hunt in the Umpqua hills.

Messrs. Wamsley and Smith have about completed the annex and steeple in the church and as soon as the bell arrives and is put in position then the good people of Eagle Point will not have to guess at the time to go to church or Sunday school.

Madames J. J. Tryer and A. N. Thomas have been spending a few days visiting friends and relatives in Central Point and Medford.

E. Turner, one of Medford's carpenters, stopped here Thursday night on his way from Butte Falls. He had been up to that place to look for a location to open a restaurant, but did not succeed, as he could not secure a suitable house.

Messrs. Powers and Wheeler and Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Claspill, all of Butte Falls, stayed here Thursday night and the next morning S. H. Harnish, the mail contractor, took them up in an extra rig, as the regular stage coach was full—in fact, the stages are all well patronized from here to the different points in the country.

Mr. Long of Peyton called for dinner Friday and reports that he had just sold a tract of land on the northwest side of Rogue river to a Portland syndicate, and that they are going to take water out of the Rogue river at that place for a large irrigating ditch so that they can irrigate a large tract of land on that side of the river.

Von der Hellen Bros. are putting an addition to their hardware and drug store two stories high. The upper story will be used for the furniture department, as they expect to carry a line of furniture in connection with their other business.

HAMILTON TO FLY AT FIESTA

Aviator is Leading Feature at Sacramento Frontier Days Show and Annual Tournament of Pacific Association of N. A. A. U.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Aug. 1.—An aviation meet, with Charles K. Hamilton, who recently flew from New York to Philadelphia and back, as the leading feature; the big Frontier Days show, with its wild horse riders, champion steer ropers and bucking horse experts; the annual tournament of the Pacific Association of the National Amateur Athletic Union, with probably 200 athletes competing for track honors; and last, but not least, the magnificent fireworks display by the Paine Pyrotechnic company, the big program for the fiesta of the Dawn of Gold is at last complete in all its essential details.

Thousands will journey to Sacramento to see Hamilton fly, and they will be well repaid for their trouble. The contract for his appearance was closed after extended negotiations following Curtiss' telegram announcing that he would not be able to keep his engagement. Curtiss is known the world over and has a reputation as an aviator second to none, but Hamilton is conceded to be a more sensational performer, and so rapidly has he forged to the front during the last few months that his services are in constant demand at all the big meets in the east. He has also been honored by being selected by the government to make a series of experimental flights for the war department.

One of the conditions insisted on by Hamilton before agreeing to fly for the fiesta spectators, was that the fiesta committee should put an $2000 to be awarded any aviator breaking world's records. This money reward will undoubtedly attract other aviators to the fiesta, and some interesting contests may be expected.

Eden Precinct Items

Rev. T. F. Rawlins and wife were up from Phoenix calling on friends in North Talent last Friday afternoon.

J. E. Roberts was delivering berries and vegetables in South Phoenix Friday.

Mrs. F. E. Furry is confined to her bed the last week, nervous trouble being her ailment.

Tom Beckett, one of the Phoenix merchants, had some watermelons Thursday that had been shipped from California.

The camp meeting of the Christian Church has commenced at Phoenix and will continue for several weeks. Many from Grants Pass and Medford will camp on the ground.

Mrs. William Fern of Fern Valley was visiting Mrs. Fern's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Patterson last Thursday.

John Friend of Louisville, Ky., arrived in Phoenix one day this week to visit his old acquaintance, Mr. and Mrs. John Graffes, of North Phoenix.

A party of men from Phoenix, Mr. Lloyd Colver, C. Cate, Milt Anderson, W. S. Stradcliff and Jim Smith, have gone to Dead Indian for a camping and hunting trip.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Cate & Brownsville, Ore., arrived in Phoenix last Wednesday, where Mrs. Cate will visit with her mother, Mrs. L. A. Rose, while Mr. Cate will join in a hunting trip with several other Phoenix boys.

Mrs. G. A. Hover was up in North Talent after vegetables for the camp-meeting boarding house last Thursday morning. Mr. Hover is the live wire of the Christian Church at Phoenix and no mistake.

A. G. Croy and family, former North Talent residents, left for an extended trip to Bandon beach last Wednesday. After this trip they expect to go back East to reside.

Dr. Frank Roberts, formerly of Medford, but now of Myrtle Point, visited his father and brother of North Talent last Wednesday.

Mrs. John Graffes of North Phoenix informs your correspondent that she gathered ripe tomatoes on July 17. This is quite early for tomatoes in Rogue River valley.

C. Carey considers himself a lucky man that he has a water right upon a living stream. He is the only gardener in North Talent, formerly called String Town, who has water for his yard and berry vines just now. His supply comes from Anderson Creek.

Glendale 8, Medford 5.

It was terrific, that ball game Sunday afternoon. Every man in both teams seemed to have a ten-pound weight on each foot and they needed glue on their gloves to hold the ball. Both Burgess and Irvine were hit freely but many a ball fell safe which should have been gathered in.

Although the game was tied up to the seventh, it was slow and uninteresting. There was no ginger in any of the players. Once in a while some one would temporarily wake up but invariably returned in a few seconds to a somnolent state. The final score was: Glendale, 8; Medford, 5.

The Medford team was not the full team which won the pennant, and even the regulars were not in form.

Central Point Items

W. M. Patterson, special agent for the London and Globe insurance companies, was here in the interest of his companies Saturday.

W. E. Jones and family, John F. Williams and T. F. Neff have gone for an outing of several weeks in the coast range between here and Crescent City.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weston left Saturday morning for Riversaid in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of Mrs. Weston's aged mother.

Ell Pones, who has the contract for the erection of Frank Weston's new dwelling, commenced work on the structure Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Gant are spending Sunday at Gold Hill, Woodville and Grants Pass. Mr. Gant is compiling data for his social story, "Ewauna."

The hours for irrigating seem to cut no figure with some Central Point citizens and the faucets are kept going morning, noon and night. In some cases the hose are used for playthings for kids and the water is wasted on sidewalks and street, doing no earthly good to anything. This mode of procedure will soon lead to the meter system and then there will be walling and gnashing of teeth.

A number of English sparrows, in preparing for the fall crop, have built nests in the gables of the old jail. Central Point is determined to have "jail birds" of some variety regardless of vigilant police and a tight lid.

The most meager, undersized advertisement you ever print will impress some people, will remain in some minds, as the measure of your store—as representing your store.

Double Your Business--- Let In The Sunlight

Suppose you knew a man who kept his shades drawn tight all day and burned kerosene instead of letting in the sunlight. Suppose you knew a man toiling along a dusty road who would not accept a lift—when there was plenty of room in the wagon; Suppose you knew a miller—with his mill built beside a swift-running stream—who insisted on turning the machinery by hand. All foolish, you say? And yet look around you—how few retailers take advantage of the great advertising campaigns run by food, textile, cloth and every other manufacturing line that you can name. Think a moment! What was the last advertisement you read and wondered just which store in town would be progressive enough to have the goods in stock so you could see them—and purchase them? More goods are sold under the evening lamp at home than you dream of. Practically every live retailer advertises in his local papers. Put up your lightning-rod! Let your customers know that you can deliver to them the goods which great advertising, paid for by manufacturers, has interested them in. They will get the habit—and you will get the business. Practically every manufacturer stands ready to help you help yourself. Ask them for electrotypes suitable to run in your own advertising. Hook their trade mark to your store. Consumer demand for advertised goods is now divided broadcast among all the stores in town. Use your advertising in local papers to focus this demand upon your store—And don't forget to send for those helpful electrotypes. Read this again, for it means money to you.
