

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

John H. Carlin, attorney-at-law, over Jackson County Bank.

Mrs. Lulu Shepherd will speak at the tabernacle at 8 o'clock tonight. Every one is especially invited to be present.

J. C. Hall and C. E. Young returned Wednesday to their camp on the upper Rogue, where they will remain for the next two weeks or more.

A change in menu each day and valuable instructions on cooking given free by Professor Becker on the Majestic range at the Medford Hardware store.

H. A. Thieroff left Tuesday evening for Portland to purchase machinery for the extension to the Big Pine Lumber company's plant.

Ladies, do not fail to attend the cooking demonstrations of the Majestic range by Professor Becker of Berlin, Germany, at the Medford Hardware store each day this week.

Frank W. Hooper of Yreka, Cal., made a trip over to Medford for the purpose of having Dr. Goble fit his eyes with glasses. Mr. Hooper is a candidate for prosecuting attorney of Siskiyou county, California.

He was very much surprised at the phenomenal growth of Medford, as he has not visited Medford before for ten years.

Cooking demonstration each day of the Majestic range by Professor Joseph Becker of Berlin, Germany, at the Medford hardware store.

Mayor Canon's report for July was a model of brevity, probably the briefest ever made officially by an executive officer. It consisted of just 32 words, outside of the introduction and signature, and ran as follows: "I beg leave to report that the fines collected in the mayor's court for the month of July, 1910, amounted to $135.50."

Ladies, do you know how to brown your cakes perfectly? Professor Joseph Becker of Berlin will show you. Cooking demonstrations on the Majestic range every day this week at the Medford Hardware Co.

Elmer A. Hicks of the Oregon Granite Co. was in Grants Pass on business Tuesday evening.

C. A. Webster of Roseburg was in Medford on business Tuesday.

W. H. Swank was here from Canyonville Tuesday looking after business matters.

Miss Lillian Gillmore of Ashland was a guest at the Moore Tuesday.

Thomas Horn of Cottonwood, Cal., was in Medford on business Tuesday.

Nicholas Jerry returned Tuesday evening from a business trip to Portland. He was accompanied by B. F. Gadsden, one of the purchasers of Mr. Jerry's mining property in the Willow Springs district.

Miss McDonald Stine of San Francisco is registered at the Nash. Frank W. Hooper of Yreka, Cal., was in Medford Tuesday on a business visit.

C. H. York of Pittsburg, Pa., is spending a few days in the valley visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Johnson near Central Point.

Henry P. Wiley of Ashland was a recent visitor in Medford.

Inquiry reveals that ten cases (5000) shotgun shells have been sold during the past few weeks in Medford. As this is closed season for all kinds of shotgun shooting, there is an evident intention on the part of campers to break the game laws.

Dr. L. Bundy and wife leave for a vacation on Big Butte Thursday.

Blaine Klum returned from a trip through the east and Canada a few days since. Blaine is not only a baseball fan, but one of the original Medford boosters. He noticed that when he would mention Medford in many eastern cities there would nearly always be someone who would say, "I remember that place in Oregon, because there were so many automobiles in sight from the train."

Mr. Klum also saw Johnny Evers lose the game for Chicago against Philadelphia by a hard hit ball to short running up his sleeve, and before he could shake it out the batsman was safe on first and the winning score had been made.

Mrs. H. L. Pelton of Sams Valley was a Medford visitor Wednesday.

Harry Carlton of Eagle Point was a Medford visitor Wednesday.

C. E. Evans of Weed, president of the Medford Hardware company, is in town looking after business interests.

CITY OF ASHLAND AGREES TO HELP COUNTY OUT

ASHLAND, Aug. 3.—The common council of Ashland have appropriated $300 out of its street fund, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for raising the piers of the new county bridge over Bear creek at the foot of Oak street. The bridge is outside of the city limits, but as it will be of particular benefit to Ashland the council thought they were warranted in helping out the county to the extent named in defraying the cost of the construction of this bridge.

Disappearance a Mystery.

SANTA ROSA, Cal., Aug. 3.—News of the disappearance of Thos. Kendall and his parents from their ranch near Cazadero has caused the authorities to investigate the case because of the suspicion that the Kendalls have been murdered. The ranch apparently has been deserted for several days, but there are said to be many evidences of a hasty departure.

The Kendalls have been involved in litigation over their ranch for some time. It is thought their disappearance may be connected with this trouble.
