FOREST FIRES CONTINUE

WALLOWA, Or., Aug. 5.-Reports of forest fires keep pouring into the local forestry office. Up to today ten serious fires and many small ones have been reported, either ernment inspector free of charge. within the boundary of the forest reserve or dangerously near to its boundaries.

Practically all other national forest work has been suspended and supervisors and rangers alike, with large crews of men, are combatting the flames. A big fire on Gumboot creek, in the Imnaha district, is bevond control and Ranger N. V. Downs and a crew of rangers are fighting it night and day.

A terrific fire on the west fork of Eagle creek is burning in the crowns of Three Forks and is beyond control.

The other blazes are incipient now, but may at any time get beyond the control of the forestry service.

NO EVIDENCE TO PROVE MURDER

That Murder Was Committed Has Not as Yet Been Proven by Scotland Yard in Crippen Case-Body Not Identified.

LONDON, Aug. 4 .- Attorney Newton, representing Dr. H. H. Crippen has won his fight with Scotland Yard over the production of evidence they alleged they found recently tending to establish fully the identity of the body found in the cellar of the Crippen house in North London three weeks ago.

The police were compelled to admit today that they had found nothing new to aid in ascertaining the identity of the body, and that they spread the report in hope that Crippen would break down and confess.

"So far as I can sec, no evidence caused the eattlemen of the country exists that there has been a murder; therefor I am not discouraged," said Newton
