THE ADVISOR.

(Mr. Roosevelt will assume the role of an advisory publicist.—Current guess.)

Teddy will tell us the things we should do.

The things we should drink and the things we should chew;

He'll tell us the way

We should preach and should pray

And the reason our hens are refusing to lay,

And the time to cut corn and the time to cut hay,

And just who has the shuffle

And who has the deal,

The place for a ruffle

And how to roast veal,

And how to build bridges, and how to make bread,

And how to remember the things we have read,

And how to write headings,

And what kind of pants

Are worn at noon weddings,

And how to kill ants,

And how to peel onions, and what's good for bunions,

And how to can berries and care for canaries,

And how to make fences,

And how to set hens,

And what are the tenses,

And how to fix dens,

And how to raise babies,

And how to make kites,

And how to cure rabbits,

And how to run fights,

And how to run trolleys and cook hot tamales and what to feed colliers,

And how to stuff pillows and when to trim willows and what causes billows,

And how to keep cool,

Cure balks in a mule,

Store eggs so they'll keep,

House cattle and sheep,

Heal burns on the hand,

Make chests to expand,

Embroider a monogram, repaint a chair,

Retrim an old bonnet, and what will grow hair—

Oh, Teddy will tell us the things we should know,

Just as he's been telling since long, long ago.

Sometimes a girl pretends to whistle for the purpose of calling a young man's attention to the lovely pucker she can get on her lips.

Economy on your part would be stinginess on the part of your neighbor.

THE COMING OF HILL.

OFFICIAL announcement from John F. Stevens that the Pacific & Eastern will be extended to a connection with the Oregon Trunk confirms statements printed by the Mail Tribune a year ago.

When President Louis Hill of the Great Northern was in Medford this spring he announced that the Pacific & Eastern would not be extended over the mountains, and that Medford would have to look Salem-way for an outlet to the east.

The extension from Butte Falls will in all probability be up Willow creek, through the Fish Lake pass to the Klamath country, where a junction with the Oregon Trunk will be effected.

Mr. Louis Hill's statement caused no small rejoicing in neighboring towns, who were so short-sighted as not to see the advantages accruing to this entire region by the construction of a transcontinental road, no matter where its terminus was located.

The advent of the Hill line means more to southern Oregon than any single event in its history since the completion of the Southern Pacific. It ushers in an era of intensive development and growth far surpassing even the phenomenal development of the past few years.

Like the Harriman lines, the Hill lines conduct an immigration campaign on a large scale that results in the rapid settlement of vacant areas. They help create homes for the multitude and enterprises giving employment to thousands.

A second transcontinental road means a second outlet to the east for the thirty or forty thousand cars of fruit the valley will soon be producing annually. It means the manufacture of lumber upon a large scale, the opening up of mines, the starting of factories, the building up of a distributing and jobbing center at Medford—in short, the utilization of the many natural resources, the dense population of the country and the creation of a city at Medford.

DENY THAT OFFICIALS ARE MERELY SCOUTING

BEVERLY, Mass., Aug. 10.—Reports that Oscar Lawler, assistant attorney general, is in California on a political scouting mission, while Fletcher Maddox, solicitor in the internal revenue bureau, is performing a similar mission in the northwest for President Taft, were vigorously denied today at the executive offices.

WANTED BALLINGER TO RUN FOR SENATE

BEVERLY, Mass., Aug. 10.—That the real mission of Senator Murray Crane of Massachusetts was to ask Secretary Ballinger to become a candidate for the United States senate from Washington is the story that is going the rounds here today.

NO SERMONS WITH DANCES IN SEATTLE

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 10.—Chief Wapenstein has ordered that the combination religious terptacorean entertainment inaugurated at Dreamland rink last Sunday night be discontinued.

FISHERMEN LEAVE FOR OUTING ON ROGUE RIVER

CENTRAL POINT, Or., Aug. 10.—If any steelhead, rainbow, salmon or other piscatorial denizens of the turbulent Rogue are left to tell the tale this morning, it is certainly not the fault of A. J. Dunlap and party, who went to the river Monday afternoon to show the funny folk what sort of barbed steel may be hidden in the flashy fabric of a factory-fashioed fly.

Mystics Are Married.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Aug. 10.—Taking their nuptial vows under the rites of a new occult order, Arthur Lee Mungger and his bride, who was Miss Freida Matilda Hanswirth, have returned from Arroyo Grande, where they were married in the recently established temple of the people.

The Candidacy of Mr. Mulkey

(Salem Capital Journal.) The people of the first congressional district are going to have a chance to vote for some one for congressman besides W. C. Hawley at the primaries.

Hon. B. F. Mulkey has announced himself as an anti-Cannon and direct primary candidate against the assembly candidate, W. C. Hawley.

Furthermore Mr. Mulkey declares himself a champion of the Statement No. 1 plan of electing United States senators until the federal constitution can be amended.

He invites Mr. Hawley to a joint debate of the issues, which Mr. Hawley, who is under direction of the assembly bosses, will very likely decline to engage in.

Mr. Mulkey is a born orator, a man of great energy and a sterling Republican who will contest every inch of ground with the present congressman. His announcement follows:

"I hereby announce myself a candidate for congress, subject to the will of the Republican voters of the first congressional district of Oregon at the coming primary election. A number of letters from the Willamette valley and the Umpqua and the Coos Bay sections, urging me to run, as well as many personal solicitations by friends in Jackson and Josephine counties since the state assembly of July 21, this year, together with the evident general demand for some candidate to represent the principles I hereinafter announce, impel me to this step.

"If nominated and elected to congress, I will not vote for Joseph Cannon for speaker of the house, and, to the end that legislative power may not be concentrated in the hands of a few men, I will vote to take away from the speaker the appointment of the rules committee and all other committees, and return it to the house, whence it originated.

"I shall vote to give the interstate commission power to regulate railroad rates upon the basis of the value of the physical property of the railroads and to give the commission power and authority to limit the issuance of stocks and bonds of railroads to actual investments made.

"I will vote for a revision of the tariff with the interests of the mass of consumers constantly in the foreground, and shall insist that, on all trust manufactured articles the revision be downward until the tariff schedule shall cover the difference in the actual cost of production in the United States and foreign countries only, as was promised by the last national Republican platform.

"I will vote for a constitutional amendment providing for direct election of United States senators, and shall give my moral support to the Oregon plan, known as 'Statement No. 1,' until such time as an amendment to the federal constitution shall render it no longer necessary.

"That the issues raised in the foregoing statement may be developed and tested before the people, I respectfully and cordially invite the assembly nominee, Congressman W. C. Hawley, to a joint discussion of the same, to be held in every county of the first congressional district.

"Respectfully submitted, "B. F. MULKEY."

ILLINOIS MAN BUYS 60 ACRES Brother of Central Point Councilman Has Purchased Byrum Place, Near Table Rock—Price Paid Was $18,000.

A deal has been closed whereby the Central Point section of the Rogue River valley wins another excellent resident without losing anything by the transaction. On that day W. R. Byrum, of the Table Rock neighborhood, sold his fine 60-acre farm to H. W. B. Dunlap, a recent arrival from Illinois, the consideration being $18,000.

Mr. Dunlap, who is a brother of Councilman A. J. Dunlap of Central Point, arrived here two weeks ago on a visit to his brother as well as to look at the country, and was so favorably impressed with general conditions that he quickly decided to become a permanent fixture. After closing the details of the deal, Mr. Dunlap left yesterday for the east, where he will close up his affairs and bring his family here, arriving about October 1.

The farm is one of the best in the favored Table Rock section. Seven acres of it is now set to commercial apples and pears, and the new owner will place a large portion of the remainder under orchard next season.

Mr. Byrum will not leave the valley, but will probably buy a smaller tract close in to town.

This sale is the first made in this vicinity within several weeks and shows that the midsummer slack in realty transactions has been broken earlier than usual. It may be taken as earnest of what may be reasonably expected during the coming fall season. Everything now points to the greatest activity in orchard, farm and city real estate transactions in the Central Point section this fall ever before known.

TECHNICITY MAY SAVE DR. CRIPPEN

QUEBEC, Que., Aug. 10.—The fact that Dr. H. H. Crippen and Miss Ethel Leneve were arrested by provincial authorities aboard a vessel which is territory under federal jurisdiction, may prove to be a serious technicality in the way of the trial. The point was raised by attorneys representing Crippen and his typist, who may demand the prisoner's release on the ground of illegal arrest.

WICKERSHAM IS LEADING IN RACE

Probably He Has Been Re-elected Alaska's Territorial Delegate to Congress—Is an Insurgent Republican.

JUNEAU, Alaska, Aug. 10.—Jas. Wickersham has probably been re-elected as Alaska's territorial delegate to congress, defeating Ed Orr of Cordova and William O'Connor, the labor candidate, Wickersham was the insurgent Republican and anti-Guggenheim candidate, while Orr was nominated by the regular Republicans.

Returns are still incomplete. The vote of Valdez and the reservation was: Wickersham 196, Orr 84 and O'Connor 73. The vote at Seward was: Wickersham 62, Orr 60 and O'Connor 31. Cordova gave Orr 187, Wickersham 163, O'Connor 32.

All of Orr's majorities in his home neighborhood, where his personal popularity is a strong asset. The returns from the Nome and Fairbanks district are not in. The campaign has been a bitter one and excitement is intense.

BRICK LAYING STARTS CENTRAL POINT BLOCK

CENTRAL POINT, Or., Aug. 10.—Bricklaying began Monday morning on the Whiteside-Childers block at Fourth and Pine streets, and is being rushed to completion. Work on this block has been delayed for several weeks since the foundation was completed because of delay in the delivery of brick from the Jacksonville yards. This emphasizes the need of a brick manufactory in or near this city.

An excellent body of clay for the purpose is known to exist near the city limits and the outlook for future building operations promise well for the success of such an industry if established.

It is expected the new building will be ready for occupancy within 30 days, when M. R. England will occupy the corner room.

ATTRACTING WIDE ATTENTION

Any one passing the office of the Oregon Orchards Syndicate could not help being attracted by the crowds looking over the new Hippobole.

Some of the best-posted automobile men of Medford have pronounced this car a big success and predict a great future for it in this city.

THIRD FACTOR IN TURKISH POLITICAL EMBROGLIO

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 10.—Discovery by the members of the Young Turks cabinet that the Chefket Pasha, minister of war, was not among those who were to be assassinated, had the recently exposed Islahat plot against the present administration succeeded, has introduced a third factor into the political situation in Turkey.

Along with Chefket Pasha, Prince Ahmed, son of Abdul Hamid, the deposed Sultan, one of the daughters of Abdul Hamid and Prince Afis Hassan, the khedive's cousin, are mentioned as being implicated.

WANTS DELEGAETS TO FIGHT PINCHOT

Governor Hay of Washington Addresses 1000-Word Letter to Governors of Pacific Coast States Asking Men to Scrap Conservation

OLYMPIA, Wash., Aug. 10.—Governor Hay has addressed a 1000 word letter to the governors of the Pacific coast states, asking them to send delegates to the St. Paul conservation congress, to fight the Pinchot forces. Hays' letter is literally a call to arms.

He says in part: "The attitude of certain eastern conservationists is alarming to many of the people of Washington, of whose area between one-fourth and one-third is included in federal forest reserves. It looks to me like a deliberate attempt to rob the western states of the control of their natural resources and have them administered from Washington by bureau officials for the benefit of the public at large instead of those in the states in which the forests are located."

"That there is a deliberate attempt on the part of some of the leaders of this movement and of less distinguished persons behind them to bottle up our water-powers, coal and timber areas and to retard their development seems patent to us."
