

Newsy Notes from Rogue River Valley Towns

Butte Falls Items

Ben Fredenburgh has been to Jacksonville having taken his daughter, Miss Edith, to attend the Teacher's examinations. He has returned bringing her back with him.

The many friends of John Obenchain will be pleased to learn that Mr. Obenchain has received his patent to his homestead and has now a spot to call "Home" for himself and family during his later years.

We are pained to chronicle that Mr. Winger, our former stage driver, has been painfully hurt in an accident, but are glad to know that his injuries are not serious and that he is doing well.

It is not generally known that we have a fine quality of brick and tile soil hereabouts and in a few years may have a Klin yard etc. established.

Jean Stowell and family, who have for the past month been camping at Blue canyon, have returned to Butte Falls bringing with them many jars of delicious wild Huckleberries. They had a most enjoyable sojourn and all look and appear better in health than formerly.

We are still suffering from forest fires hereabouts and it seems as if these fires are not of accidental or camp original, but are deliberately set out by designing parties and some of whom are known and others strongly suspected of knowing about them. It is either a case of pure malicious cussedness evidencing personal spite against the owners of the timber or else in the interest of stock we do not know which, but there is quite a talk about the fires and their origin and steps will be taken to ferret out the guilty parties.

Howard Boughton, who has been in Texas for the last three months, has returned to the Falls and will, with his mother and other members of the family go back to Texas, to join Mr. Mell Boughton who has purchased a farm near Houston, and hereafter will reside in Texas.

The Mail Tribune is rapidly sought after hereabouts, the local features being especially attractive, as our people delight in neighborhood gossip and the Mail Tribune is the only county paper in which they can get reliable and intelligent news.

Misses Leta Lilian Peeler, Blossom Morris, Mrs. Etta Wharton, and Charles Elmer Johnson, who have been in attendance at Jacksonville, taking the teacher's examination have all returned and report success in their efforts.

Antoine Dupray has been bound over to the Circuit court upon the charge of retaining a spirituous and malt liquor without a county license.

Engineer Beveridge has gone to the valley on Railroad business, but will soon return to his work.

Mrs. Jennie Wright and Arthur, who have been summering here, have left for Grants Pass and other valley points, after which they will go back to Redding, California, and then come back here to permanently reside. Mrs. Wright owns considerable real estate here and elsewhere and is kept busy looking after her interests.

John Edsall and Monroe Baldwin left on Saturday for several weeks trip to Blue canyon.

The boys of the engineer crew compliments some of our citizens on Friday night with a most excellent musical serenade.

Judge Pentz has been elected vice-president of the southern Oregon Chautauqu assembly for Butte Falls and other points.

We have found fires very comfortable morning and evening for several days last week and now if we would have a good rain, clearing the atmosphere of smoke and washing vegetation it would lend additional charm to our town.

Mrs. Frank Wilson, Gladys and Loyd Wilson motored, in their car, to Butte Falls on Sunday and spent the day, returning to Medford in the afternoon.

Dr. Bundy was hastily summoned to Medford, on Thursday, owing to the sudden sickness of a member of his wife's family.

Will Warner, Mrs. W. Warner and a lady friend are in camp at Nick's and about the only ones there now.

Major Mose Alford and family have returned to Medford from their two weeks outing at Butte Falls.

Miss Dollie Parker has accepted a clerical position in merchant Hugh's store.

Beulah Hildreth and family accompanied by Miss Bernice Edmonson have returned from a two weeks trip to the mountains.

There is quite a noticeable difference manifest in law and order of our town and the character of our male visitors on Saturday nights and Sundays since the closing up of one of our public places, yet we hear of no decline, but rather of an increase, in business among our merchants and the social tone is much improved.

Henry Daley, with a party of ladies and gentlemen from Eagle and Jacksonville, toured in their cars to Butte Falls on Sunday and Henry went on taking some of the persons to camp Nick.

Our Mill is fast approaching a condition of completion, being nearly equipped with new and modern machinery and large addition made and many other improvements added so that we can furnish building, railroad and other hard materials. Superintendent Netherland and manager Mills have worked hard and diligently to complete the plant and deserve great credit for the way they have advanced work.

It is very cool here and we have first morning and night. There was a heavy frost on Sunday night. Zach Maxey has left the Falls to there is some attraction.

STANFORD LIST FULL; NO MORE PRETTY GIRLS

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Aug 18.—Anticipating a gay social life with a membership of some exclusive sorority, and the possibility of becoming a "campus" queen, many a sweet high school graduate will be unable to register here this fall, because of limited number of girls allowed. Already the 500 mark, which is the present limit, has been reached, and there are now over one hundred on the waiting list. Unless the number allowed to register is raised, many promising young maidens will have to go to other centers of social and educational activity.

Although the number of men students is not placed at any figure, in reality the number is limited by the strict entrance requirements. Scores of prospective collegians find that upon inquiry that they are short the desired number of entrance units, and they have to spend another year at some social preparatory school before being granted the coveted matriculation card.

Central Point Items

Sam Hodge killed a magnificent buck while hunting on Evans creek last week. The animal carried eight points and measured 28 inches between tips of horns.

T. J. Williams, who lives at the mouth of Little Butte creek, on Rogue river, caught a 45 pound salmon last Friday morning. The big fellow measured 48 inches in length and is the finest specimen taken from Rogue river in many years. Mr. Williams says the river is full and good sport may be had anywhere along the river now.

John Albert is preparing to erect a business building on his corner lot at Fifth and Pine streets, adjoining the building now occupied by M. R. Englund.

Sage & Elliott, contractors, have secured the contract for the new school house at Willow Springs the price being $2775. The same firm is now completing a fine building for the Table Rock district.

W. E. Kähler returned Tuesday from a pleasant trip to Newport, Corvallis and other Willamette valley points.

Dr. Anderson and James Cline returned Tuesday from a trip through Klamath lake and Harney counties. They report having seen a world of fine country and expect to return and secure a body of land.

Mrs. and MMs. C. W. Jeffers have returned from a pleasant outing at Dead Indian springs.

Mrs. Fiero and daughter returned Sunday from an enjoyable visit at Gearhart park.

Col. George P. Mims, democratic warhorse of Tolo, was a Medford visitor Tuesday.

Miss Pearl Ross, the popular central Point telephone operator, has recovered from a severe attack of poison oak poisoning.

Mrs. Parkeppie, who recently sold her home to Lee Evans, is building a new dwelling on lots adjoining her former home.

A painter and paper hanger named Eric, who blew into town last Saturday from Butte Falls, created a disturbance at the Y. M. C. A. meeting in the opera house Sunday evening by interrupting the speaker and attempting to make an address on his own account. He was promptly ejected from the building and made himself scarce the following day. He appeared to be either drunk or crazy or both.

The Rogue River Plumbing company was awarded the contract for plumbing the school building at a meeting of the school board a few days ago. This firm which only entered this field a short time ago has already landed some of the best contracts in the neighborhood and their work is giving universal satisfaction.

Girl Drugged

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—Edna Moore, 1007 West Madison, who ran away from home three days ago after her father upbraided her for keeping late hours, was found lying in the street, drugged, by Detective Mulvihill and Cullett. She was taken to Grave hospital. The girl met a handsome well-dressed young man of dark complexion, in Garfield park. He took pity on her after hearing her story, and invited her to dine. That was the last she remembered, she says, until she awoke in the hospital. The police are searching for the man.
