

SUICIDE WAS CRIPPEN'S PLAN

Was to Jump Overboard on Evening of Day He Was Arrested—Had Written Note Saying Goodbye to Miss Leneve.

LONDON, Aug. 30.—That Dr. H. Crippen planned to commit suicide and that his thoughts of the future led to a dramatic meeting and farewell meeting between the man and Miss Ethel Leneve, was the testimony today of Inspector Dew before Magistrate Marshall at a preliminary hearing of the couple.

Dew said that when Crippen was arrested aboard the liner Montrose at Father Point, a note was found in his pocket, written on a business card and addressed to Miss Leneve, reading as follows:

"I cannot stand the horror through which I have gone every night any longer. I have made up my mind to jump overboard tonight. I see nothing ahead of me. My money has run out. I know I have spoiled your life and I hope some day you will forgive me. Yours—H."

Crippen did not expect arrest when he wrote the farewell message. "To-night" means for him the time the Montrose would be plowing through the St. Lawrence river from Father Point to Quebec. That day he was arrested and the "tonight" he had named for jumping overboard found him in the clutches of the law.

On the homeward voyage, Thursday, aboard the Megantic, Dr. Crippen begged his captors to permit him to see Miss Leneve.

"I may never see her again," he pleaded. "She has been my only comfort in the last three years."

Dew exacted a promise from the prisoners that they would not try to converse. On an upper deck, accessible only to the officers of the liner, the accused man and the girl met. Both were overcome with emotion and Crippen could scarcely speak a word of greeting. With his guards within earshot, he briefly bade her good-bye. Miss Leneve was led fainting to her stateroom and Crippen spent the rest of the day in moody silence.

"HIGHER UPS" SAY THAT WAYNE IS MOST UNFAIR

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—Following allegations of unfair methods on the part of States Attorney Wayman in introducing evidence before the jury in the trial of Lee O'Neil Browne, charged with legislative bribery, the defense announced today that it would ask the court to appoint a prosecutor to investigate Wayman's office for the purpose of ascertaining the truth of charges that illegal methods were used on witnesses.

Wayman today subpoenaed several officials of the Pullman Palace Car company to appear before the grand jury. He said he believed they were withholding evidence of benefit to the prosecution. When the Pullman officials learned they had been subpoenaed they endeavored to arrange a conference with the state's attorney.

SAYS ADMINISTRATION OPPOSES LA FOLLETTE

YESTERDAY Thompson and his party boarded the Vida and set sail. The absence of the schooner was soon noticed and the revenue cutter sent in pursuit. Had the Vida gained one hour's start she would have been in British Columbia waters, where the United States officers would have been powerless to stay the progress of the voyage for treasure.

GREAT STATE FAIR OPENS SEPTEMBER 12

SALEM, Or., Aug. 30.—(Special)—On Monday, September 12, the greatest state fair in the history of the west opens in this city. New features, new buildings, new landscape effects on the grounds and a general atmosphere of newness and bigness that will please every visitor.

Such are some of the things which are in sight and it is a safe guess that Salem will entertain greater crowds than ever before in her history.

Former state fairs of Oregon have become famous throughout the country as among the leaders of annual state exhibitions of stock and agricultural products but this year promises to eclipse all former successes in this state and pass into history as one of the best, if not the best, state fairs in America.

The endeavors of the board of directors and secretary to embody in the grounds everything possible for the edification of the stock raiser, agriculturist and department for the women, not alone the carnival features and horse races, are bearing fruit, inasmuch as entry lists in every department are rapidly filling up and future prospects are that the 1910 show will contain more than ever before.

Transportation facilities will also be far more adequate than in previous years, more trains are running into the city and a new street railway system will greatly add to the comfort of the throngs visiting the fair. Again, sleeping and eating accommodations have been greatly improved.

Back From Mt. McKinley. SEATTLE, Aug. 30.—Belmore Brown, leader of the Parker-Brown Mt. McKinley expedition, is back in Seattle today. He left Professor Parker at Valdez the latter too ill to continue the journey.

Brown declares that an attempt to reach the summit of Mount McKinley was abandoned after the party had reached an altitude of 10,000 feet, where a monster wall of ice blocked further ascent.

Brown would not be quoted as saying that the Lloyd party from Fairbanks did not reach the summit.

HOME PHONE LOSES ASHLAND

Special Council Committee Reports Failure to Begin Construction in Specified Time, Forfeits Franchise and Council Adopts Report.

ASHLAND, Or., Aug. 30.—At the last meeting of the city council the special committee consisting of C. Cunningham, W. F. Loomis and F. W. Moore, submitted a supplementary report in the matter of the franchise granted the Home Telephone and Telegraph company, in which they report that they are of the opinion that the failure of Mr. Sharpe and associates to comply with the terms of sections 9 and 10 of ordinance No. 422 has worked a forfeiture of any rights to construct and operate a telephone system in the city of Ashland. On motion, the report of the committee was approved by the council and the recorder instructed to notify the Home Telephone company accordingly.

The franchise requires that work be begun within a certain period which has not been done.

AMERICAN BOY WINS A PRINCESS

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 30.—That the administration is opposing Senator R. M. La Follette in his race for re-election to the United States senate from Wisconsin is the belief of Charles O. Whedon, who, as an insurgent, ran against Senator Burkett for the senatorial nomination in Nebraska. Whedon has just returned from Wisconsin.

"La Follette is a pioneer in progressive legislation," said Whedon. "The administration with all its power, will be pitted against him unless President Taft recants his Wisconsin speech endorsing the tariff bill. It is because congressmen are to be elected in November that the election this year assumes national importance.

"Kansas has repudiated Cannonism, Aldrichism and every other issue insofar as it attempted to limit tariff legislation to new tariff enactment."
