

IDAHO FORSAKES STANDPATISM AND LINES UP WITH INSURGENCY

Conceded Today That Burton L. French, Progressive, Is Assured of Nomination Over "Regular" Candidate, Present Incumbent.

Governor Brady, Up for Renomination, Probably Will Succeed in His Quest—Is Leading Opponent by Comfortable Majority.

BOISE, Idaho, Sept. 1.—There is no doubt today that Idaho has joined the insurgent column. Although all the returns from the first primary election within the state are not in, it is conceded that Burton L. French, progressive, is assured of the nomination over Thomas H. Hamer, regular, for congress. Hamer is the present incumbent.

French carried practically every county, running particularly well in the Idaho Panhandle. In southeastern Idaho, Hamer's stronghold, the insurgent candidate continued his success over his "stalwart" opponent. The insurgents assert that French's victory is overwhelming and is another indication that voters have tired of stand-patism and organization rule.

Governor Brady, who is up for renomination, probably will succeed in his quest. According to the returns today he was leading Clagstone, who is running second, by a comfortable plurality. Brady's strength in southern Idaho, where he carried practically every town, was a surprise. The only two which did not give him a plurality vote were Gooding and Halsey.

Today the race for the republican gubernatorial nomination was led by Brady, with Clagstone second, O'Neil third and Fletcher fourth. It is conceded that O'Neil has been beaten for first place, but his managers declare that in case Brady fails to secure the nomination on first choice that O'Neil will be strongly in the running. It is not believed that Fletcher has a chance.

James H. Hawley, who ran against Arthur C. Rice for the democratic gubernatorial nomination, was successful. He carried the north, southeast and south by big majorities. Rice favored a dry state.

Arthur Bowen won the democratic nomination for representative in congress.

DELEGATES APPOINTED TO MINING CONGRESS

PORTLAND, Or., Sept. 1.—Oregon will be well represented by a large delegation at the 13th annual session of the American mining congress, which meets at Los Angeles September 26 to October 1, according to President Watson today.

At a meeting of the local branch of the congress last night President Watson appointed the following delegates:

J. Frank Watson, H. M. Lawrie, E. A. Sessions, W. A. Gray, C. W. Riddell, O. A. Thomas, J. A. Wesco, H. W. Randel, Professor F. L. Barker of Eugene.

Before September 15 a meeting of the Oregon branch of the congress will be held and delegates from the eastern and southern parts of the state will be given their credentials.

It is probable that the Oregon delegates will travel to California in a special car.

One of the subjects of interest to Oregon will be the establishment of a state mining bureau along the lines of the federal mining bureau. Conservation of national resources and the effects of the policy on the mining industry will be one of the chief general subjects of discussion at Los Angeles.

HEINZE AND HIS BRIDE COMING WEST

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—F. Augustus Heinze, copper king, and his bride, who was Mrs. Bernice Golden Henderson, the "Vampire Girl," left today in a private car for Butte, Mont., on the first lap of their honeymoon.

An unappreciated wedding present to Heinze was the service of a summons and complaint in the suit of Mrs. Lillian Hobart French to recover $25,000 in securities alleged to have been lent to Heinze when he was in financial difficulties.

Following the wedding ceremony yesterday in Brooklyn, Heinze and his bride were hosts at a wedding supper at the Waldorf-Astoria. They spent the night at that hotel.

Mrs. French tossed her head when informed of Heinze's marriage. She declared she had no interest in him beyond the recovery of the money she says she loaned him.

After sojourning in Butte, Mr. and Mrs. Heinze will travel extensively through Europe.

JEALOUS LOVER SHOTS WOMAN, THEN HIMSELF

PORTLAND, Or., Sept. 1.—His love unrequited, Antonio Angelos, 25, a waiter, shot and seriously wounded Mrs. Fraye Slahe, then shot himself through the heart in a local restaurant last night. He died instantly.

While the woman was in a serious condition today, physicians declared that she would recover. The bullet entered near her hip and emerged at the knee.

According to Mrs. Slahe, Angelos met her while she was employed in a Sixth-street restaurant. He was so persistent in forcing his attentions on her, she said, that she quit the place and sought another position.

Last night she entered a restaurant on Fourth street for dinner. Angelos followed her and when she refused to sit at the same table with him he drew his revolver, shot her, then himself.

"SHAMELESS HYPOCRISY," SAYS RUSSIAN OF JAP

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 1.—Declaring that the treaty by which Korea is annexed by Japan is "an historical example of shameless hypocrisy," the Novoe Vremya comments in a bitterly sarcastic tone on the annexation. The paper declares that only because Russia's interests in the hermit kingdom are insignificant her diplomats will refrain from interference.

MRS. PALMER SAYS SKIRT IS AWFUL

However, Thinks Customs Inspection Law Is Worse—Says the Hobbie Skirt Is Absurd—Hopes Fad of Wearing It Will Soon Die Out.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—"The hobbie skirt is awful, but the customs inspection law is an outrage and a curse on the women of this country."

Mrs. Potter Palmer delivered herself of these two comments when she reached Chicago today. Mrs. Palmer was one of the many passengers of the Mauretania who were forced to stand on the New York dock at 1:30 in the morning, while customs inspectors searched all cabins for smuggled goods. She roundly denounced the law, but not the men enforcing it.

"In spite of this outrage," she declared, "the men stand idly by and watch their wives, or mothers, or daughters subjected to the outrages of the legal mandate and never raise a hand to have it stopped. It is a persecution against every traveler, particularly against the people of moderate circumstances, and I insist, particularly a persecution of women."

Mrs. Palmer said that dressmakers in New York were particularly responsible for such actions, as they demand protection against smugglers, although the great share of the cloth smuggling is done by some of their number.

"The hobbie skirt—why, it is absurd. Do you know the modistes in Paris are commencing to realize the skirt is impossible and are trying to blame its origin to American designers. It is purely a French creation though; I know the designer, but he does not deserve the advertisement he would get if I gave his name. The hobbie skirt is awful, and I'm sure it will never be taken seriously. I think the fad of wearing it will soon die out. Let us hope so, at any rate."

FORMER SULTAN HAS DISAPPEARED

Leaders of Young Turks Are Very Much Worried, Who Fear Revolt If the Deposed Ruler Should Come to Harm.

CONSTANTINOPLE, via Philopopolis, Sept. 1.—The disappearance of former Sultan Abdul Hamid and the transfer of 12 of his wives from the villa-prison at Salonika today is causing great uneasiness among the leaders of the Young Turks, who fear that if harm should befall the deposed "son of the prophet" the people would revolt. The Young Turks leaders profess ignorance of the whereabouts of the old ruler and their intimation is that the military commanders have placed him in a prison, the location of which is known only to two or three of the highest officials in the government.

The reason for the transfer of Abdul Hamid to a secret prison is believed to be the result of constant plotting by reactionaries to secure his release. Several formidable conspiracies with that end in view have been uncovered and foiled.

TOWN LOOTED, BUT YIELDED ONLY BOOZE

SPRINGDALE, Wash., Sept. 1.—This town is today recovering from the shock of the attempted wholesale holdup when a band of highwaymen attempted to blow open the vault of the First National bank yesterday morning and ended last night when the band left town after having ransacked a general merchandise store. The bank, though wrecked, withstood the assault of the robbers. Later they robbed the stores of the town and broke open a sealed car at the station. The only loot they got away with, it is believed, was four bottles of liquor from the local saloon.

CONGREGATION SAYS PASTOR IS SINNER'S CHUM

DAYTON, Wash., Sept. 1.—Rev. W. M. Harris, for three years pastor of the First Christian church, declared he would leave town today because he has been "too chummy with sinners," and members of his congregation complained that he dressed "too much like a traveling man." Harris has doubled the membership of the church since he has been here and has received a number of offers. He will accept a call from Waiteburg.

MISS FITCH NOW FIGHTS FOR LIFE

Girl Who Attempted Suicide Now Making Attempt to Cheat Grim Spectre—Says It Is Beautiful to Live When Loved.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—"When you're loved, it is beautiful to live. I realize that I have made a terrible mistake."

Thus Vera Fitch, who attempted to take her life Tuesday at the Hotel Astor, expressed her opinion of her act after a brief visit from her mother, Mrs. Henry Fitch.

"If I die it will grieve the few who are dear to me," she added. "Now I want to live."

Her determination to fight death increases her chance of recovery, although the chance is very slim, according to the surgeons.

That Miss Fitch's despairing fight for literary success has gained her a friend was shown today when her relatives learned that a man, unknown to them, had paid the girl's hospital bills for two weeks. He called last night at the Flower hospital, inquired the amount of the bill, and when told that it would reach $134, he paid the amount and took a receipt. He refused to give his name to the attendant.

Magnates Hunt Players.

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 1.—Although the magnates of the major leagues are here today to participate in the general scramble for promising minor league players via the draft route, it is not likely that actual drafting will begin until late today or tomorrow.

The national commission, with President Herrmann presiding, met at 10 o'clock to consider 25 cases pending before the supreme court of baseball, and the commission will not consider drafts until the 25 cases have been disposed of.

MAN SOUGHT BY KING SAID TO BE LABORER

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 1.—Under the name of Olaf Hammer, it is believed today that Count Olaf Holstein, son of Countess Holstein of Denmark, who is being sought at the instance of the king of Denmark, is working in Tacoma as a day laborer. According to Miss Margaret Mason, 3636 East G street, Hammer confided his life's history to her and to other people in this city. Miss Mason said that the Dane left his home country and fortune on account of a love affair.

The search for Count Holstein has been under way for some time. The man was traced to Seattle, where he lived at 80 1/2 West Main street. From there he disappeared and is now working with a pick and shovel on the streets of Tacoma, according to Miss Mason. The Danish consul probably will start a search for the young count here, as his mother is critically ill and his presence is desired in Denmark on this account.
